Record Vote Forecast In Ohio Today

Crucial 26 Elector Votes, U.S. Senate Race Spotlighted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A battle down to the wire for Ohio's all-important 26 elector votes—and a hot race for the U.S. Senate—promised to turn out a record 4.25 million voters in the state today.

Sunny skies and temperatures in the 60s were forecast for most of the state. On Nov. 5 last year, a major snowstorm hit Ohio, with more than two feet of snow falling in the Ashtabula area.

A spirited contest between Democrat John J. Gilligan and Republican William B. Saxbe for a U.S. Senate seat has stirred as much interest in the election as the presidential contest.

The presidential race between Republican Richard M. Nixon and Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey has gone on for the most part under the shadow of George C. Wallace, American Independent Party candidate.

The shadow could keep anyone from winning the top office at the polls.

Polls were to be open for 12 hours, ending at 6:30 p.m. (EST

Aside from the presidential and U.S. Senate races, Ohioans chose 24 U.S. representatives, 16 state senators, 99 state representatives, a Supreme Court chief justice and two associate justices.

The U.S. House seat in the 4th Congressional District and one associate justice seat were among uncontested positions.

The ballots also include two constitutional amendments — a $759 million highway and capital improvement program, and a proposed homestead (property tax) exemption.

There also are more than 1,400 local issues, mostly concerned with income taxes, school levies and bond issues.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown has predicted Wallace will poll about 25 per cent of the total Ohio vote. Leaders of Ohio Republican and Democratic parties say Wallace will get closer to 15 per cent of the vote.

Both Republican Chairman John S. Andrews and Democratic Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady predict victory for their respective parties.

Andrews said he expected Nixon to carry Ohio by more than 273,000 votes—his margin over John F. Kennedy in Ohio in 1960.

O'Grady contends Nixon declined in the closing days of the campaign while Humphrey's popularity rose.

ONLY A CHIMNEY AND CHARRED WALLS remained after flames swept through "The Hut," a tavern on Route 30 east of Chester, early this morning. Some 45 firemen battled the blaze. Damage was estimated at $60,000.

Chances Increase Final Decision May End Up In House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Early reports today indicated America's voters, the most unpredictable in two decades, were turning out in unusually large numbers to decide a presidential election clouded by war abroad and disorders at home.

A forecast of fair weather for most of the nation held the promise of a voter turnout exceeding the record 71 million of four years ago.

And up and down the Eastern seaboard, where the polls opened first, long lines were reported waiting to cast their ballots for Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey, Republican Richard M. Nixon, American Independent George C. Wallace or candidates of several minor parties.

In New York City, a spokesman for the Board of Elections said all indications showed a heavy vote under cloudy skies and mild temperatures.

Observers in Miami and Jacksonville, Fla., for instance, reported long voter lines and good weather. Estimates were that about 75,000 to 80,000 would have voted in Miami by 9 a.m., a little more than had voted at that time in 1964.

In Baltimore, Md., city precincts also reported a heavy early turnout. One newsman said 150 persons were waiting outside his polling place when it opened at 7 a.m., the most he had ever seen at that time.

Voting in the Columbus, Ohio, area also was very heavy during opening hours with most polling places reporting voters standing in line before the polls opened at 6:30 a.m.

Long lines also were seen in the Maryland and Virginia suburbs of the nation's capital.

In Connecticut, a state that could be an important indictator of national trends, the early voter turnout ranged from very heavy in the Stamford area, to heavy in the Hartford vicinity, to moderate around Bridgeport.

Philadelphia and its suburbs also reported heavy early balloting. Votes were reported cast one a minute at one Delaware County voting division. In one Bucks County precinct, nearly 10 per cent of its registered voters cast their ballots in the first hour.

Democratic Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and his wife Joan were among the early voters in Boston after waiting in a three-quarter-block line on historic Beacon Hill. Early voting elsewhere in Massachusetts was reported steady.

City Balloting Termed Light In Forenoon

Going against state and national trends, East Liverpool cast an unusually light forenoon vote today as Americans went to the polls to pick their next president and hundreds of state, district and county officials.

A sampling of seven precincts indicated East Liverpool had cast 2,230 votes in the first four hours after the polls opened this morning. The estimated turnout was down 715 from the 2,945 shown in forenoon voting in 1964 in the Johnson - Goldwater race. And it was off 1,210 from the 3,440 shown in the first four hours of voting in 1960 in the Kennedy - Nixon contest.

But, because of the unusually light voter registration, East Liverpool's morning vote is not a true indicator of the turnout the county can expect. The county is expected to cast 46,000 to 48,000 ballots today—nearly equalling the record vote of over 48,000 in 1960.

Due To Saigon's Absence

Talks On Peace Delayed In Paris

PARIS (AP) — The first scheduled peace talks since the bombing halt in Vietnam, due Wednesday, were postponed today because of the absence of a delegation from the Saigon government.

A U.S. delegation spokesman, in announcing that the session "will not be held," added that the United States hopes the South Vietnamese government will send a negotiating team "in the near future."

Also, he said, certain procedural matters involving the proposed expanded phase of the Paris parley have not yet been agreed on, and U.S. and North Vietnamese envoys have been meeting on these "procedural questions."

The postponement followed the refusal of South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu to join the proposed four-party sessions which would also include the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

"We will not talk with the NLF in Paris and no one can force us to do such a thing," Thieu said in Saigon.

The Saigon boycott embarrassed the U.S. delegation, headed by Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, in view of President Johnson's oct. 31 announcement of a bombing halt aimed at propelling the Paris talks into a new, more productive phase. They got under way in May.

Johnson said a regular session of the Paris talks was to take place on Wednesday at which Saigon government representatives "are free to participate." North Vietnam had served notice that NLF representatives also would be present, the President said, under the new arrangements.

The South Vietnamese government is opposed to any move which it thinks might imply recongition of the NLF. The NLF in turn claims to be the authentic representative of the South Vietnamese people. An NLF delegation arrived in Paris Monday.

Until now the Paris meetings have been conducted only by the U.S. and North Vietnamese governments and there was no immediate indication just when an expanded conference might get under way.

Board Hands Down Decision

Sex Classes To Continue Under 'Mixed' Plan Here

The sex education program in the city school system will continue with mixed classes as set up in September.

That was the announcement from the board of education Monday night following further presentations both for and against the program in its present form. Some 125 attended the session.

THE BOARD statement follows:

The board has listened to proponents and opponents. The board has read and placed on file, letters from doctors, clergymen and interested individuals as to their opinions on the course as being given. At two different regular stated meetings of the board, individuals representing their view and individuals representing a group's view were heard by the board. A joint discussion of the course was held with members of the board, the school superintendent, the assistant superintendent, with a representative of the press and of the radio in attendance. It is felt that the matter has been fairly treated.

"The board feels, therefore, since the parent may ask that the child not have to take this part of the course and that the child would be excused, that this would then eliminate the parental grievance of the feeling that the child 'had to take the subject.' With this in mind, the board has decided to carry on with the course of study as now set up, with directions to the administration to continually evaluate subject matter, films, texts, speakers, etc., as is done in any other subject, and to recommend changes, additions or deletions when thought to be necessary."

TWELVE in the audience at last night's meetings presented their views on the sex education program — with six for and six against the classes in their present form.

In addition, the board received letters from Dr. Alexander Fisher, Dr. Edith Gilmore, Dr. John Hayes and Dr. John Fraser supporting the program and from parents both supporting and objecting to the program. The letters were not read, but Board President Sam Brown pointed out they are on file

United Fund Attains 78% Of Its Goal

The East Liverpool Area United Fund campaign has reached 78 per cent of its goal of $130,000, Ed Monier, executive secretary, has announced.

A total of $428 was collected from the school drive.

For the first time, boxes were placed in each room at the schools, with the "high" room in each school awarded a prize.

East Liverpool, except the high school, Chester, Newell and Beaver Local participated. The high school conducted its own drive under supervision of the student council.

Monier said the highest single school contribution was $121 and that of the highest room was $26.68.

The East Liverpol school employes, including administrators, teachers and all non-certificated personnel, contributed $1,644 to the drive.

Industrial contributions to date total $54,000, with 12 industrial accounts still to report. A number of businesses still have not reported.

Light Turnout Expected In W. Va. Voting

Moore And Sprouse Hold Spotlight In Governor's Race

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) —A gubernatorial campaign that took the form of a verbal sparring match and produced two law suits ended today in the hands of West Virginia voters expected to turn out in light numbers.

Polls in the state's 2,511 precincts opened at 6:30 a.m. and will close at 7:30 p.m.

A turnout of 650,000 voters was predicted and the weatherman promised sunny skies with temperatures in the mid-60s. The vote projection fell well below the record 837,000 ballots cast in the 1960 general election.

Besides the governor's race, West Virginians also will pick even presidential electors, five congressmen, an entire Board of Public Works, all 100 members of the House of Delegates and 18 state senators.

Two constitutional amendments also are on the ballot.

The gubernatorial race, between Republican Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. and Democat James M. Sprouse, occupies the spotlight.

Moore, the state's 1st District congressman, is seeking to become the second GOP governor in the last 40 years. He won six straight terms in the U.S. House of Representatives, each with a larger majority and the last, in 1966, by 50,000 votes in a district where registered Democrats outnumber Republicans by nearly 30,000.

Sprouse, who was Gov. Hulett O. Smith's campaign manager in 1964, has tried repeatedly to disassociate himself from past Democratic administrations.

City Youth Injured As Truck Rams Pole

An East Liverpool youth suffered abrasions and lacerations in a truck accident on Route 30 Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in Greene Township, according to Pennsylvania State Police at Chippewa.

Officers said Herman G. Dingess Jr., 16, of 845 St. George St. was hurt when he was thrown from the pickup truck he was driving after it left the road, traveled along the berm 90 feet and struck a utility pole.

Officers said Dingess swerved to avoid a car which pulled into his path from Route 151 onto Route 30.

Damage to the truck was estimated at $700. Dingess was to see his family physician.

Tavern Leveled By $60,000 Fire

Damage was estimated at $60,000 in a fire at 4 a. m. today which destroyed The Hut, a tavern on Route 30 two miles east of Chester.

George McDole, Lawrenceville fire chief, said the building was engulfed by flames when Chester and Lawrenceville volunteer firemen arrived on the scene. A passing trucker saw the blaze and had an area resident call firemen.

The fire apparently started in the front of the building. McDole has asked for an investigation by the West Virginia fire marshal's office and no trespassing signs have been posted at the site.

About 45 firemen fought the blaze. In addition to those from Chester and Lawrenceville, Newell and New Manchester firemen responded.

Two dogs tied in the basement perished in the blaze, firemen said.

The Hut, located on the "Strip," has been in operation since July. The building is owned by Vic Rossi of Weirton, but is leased to Edmund Branam, who resides adjacent to the tavern. Ray Langdon of East Liverpool is manager.

Braham told fiemen he was in the building last on Sunday and that the business was not open yesterday.

The building was partially insured, but the contents were not, McDole said.

Firemen stayed on the scene until about 7:30 a. m.

Arbitration Move Urged In Hancock School Fight

An appeal for "good - faith negotiations" or arbitration in the Hancock County school employes dispute has been urged by the county's Parent-Teacher Council, while the employes and others have vowed to continue picketing the schools in the controversy.

The County PTA Council Monday urged full negotiations in the dispute which involves wages for the system's non-certified personnel.

However, plans for renewed pressure on the school administration and board of education were aired at a meeting of 300 Monday night at New Cumberland.

The Rev. Allen S. Fields of New Cumberland was elected president of the newly formed organization which voted to have pickets at all county schools during the boycott by the county's School Service Personnel Association.

The meeting was held when some residents went to New Cumberland expecting to attend a session of the board of education which was cancelled earlier in the day because, as one board member said, "the agenda was not prepared."

MEANWHILE, legal counsel for the administration and the service employes met Monday at Weirton and discussed the various issues involved.

A revised list of requests was presented to the administration by Atty. Frank Pietranton, representing the employes. Dr. Vernon Wyland, superintendent of schools, reportedly advised the group the new list would be studied and a decision given later.

One source indicated the employes had revised downward an original 50-cent across the board wage request in some categories, but was still sought for custodians and maintenance personnel.

THE PTA Council reported the following appeal will be submitted to the school administration, the board, and the School Service Personnel Association:

"1.—To immediately resume good-faith negotiations that will lead to a settlement of the present disruption of the education of our children.

"2.—That if necessary for progress to be made in negotiations, alternate representatives of each group be designated.

"3.—That if productive negotiations cannot be commenced at once, then we recommend that the dispute be submitted to arbitration.

"4.—That during negotiations or arbitration, school resume with the full, experienced non-teaching staff at their jobs.

U.S. Senate Top Race In Pennsylvania

Clark Seeks Third Term Against GOP Rival Schweiker

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Pennsylvanians, in possibly smaller numbers than in 1964, vote for a new president today —and despite the apathy politicians consider the election one of the most crucial in this century.

The 9,492 polling places opened at 7 a.m. under mostly fair skies and by the time they close 13 hours later, at 8 p.m., it is expected about 4.5 million will have cast ballots, or roughly 80 per cent of the 5,599,364 registered.

The final, frenzied drive for voter support—by telephone, by mailed brochures, by television and radio, by personal front-door confrontations—reportedly cost more than $1 million. In Philadelphia alone each party anted up about $250,000 to get voters to the polls.

Supporters of Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey, Republican Richard M. Nixon and American Independent George C. Wallace all claimed they'd win the big bloc of 29 electoral votes, third largest in the nation. But only the third party nominee, his support shrinking in the campaign's closing weeks, seemed to be a sure loser.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh could be the key to Democratic success: if Humphrey doesn't pile up a plurality of at least 300,000—and that may be short —in those Democratic strongholds Nixon probably will come out on top.

GOP State Chairman John C. Jordan saw Nixon a 350,000-vote winner, contrasting to the 1.5 million landslide rolled by President Johnson four years ago.

Democratic State Chairman Thomas Z. Minehart predicted Humphrey would carry the entire party ticket to victory, but declined to predict an actual margin. He said such a forecast was too uncertain, especially because of the Wallace presence.

PARIS (AP) — The first scheduled peace talks since the bombing halt in Vietnam, due Wednesday, were postponed today because of the absence of a delegation from the Saigon government.

An appeal for "good - faith negotiations" or arbitration in the Hancock County school employes dispute has been urged by the county's Parent-Teacher Council, while the employes and others have vowed to continue picketing the schools in the controversy.

The County PTA Council Monday urged full negotiations in the dispute which involves wages for the system's non-certified personnel.

However, plans for renewed pressure on the school administration and board of education were aired at a meeting of 300 Monday night at New Cumberland.

The Rev. Allen S. Fields of New Cumberland was elected president of the newly formed organization which voted to have pickets at all county schools during the boycott by the county's School Service Personnel Association.

The meeting was held when some residents went to New Cumberland expecting to attend a session of the board of education which was cancelled earlier in the day because, as one board member said, "the agenda was not prepared."

MEANWHILE, legal counsel for the administration and the service employes met Monday at Weirton and discussed the various issues involved.

A revised list of requests was presented to the administration by Atty. Frank Pietranton, representing the employes. Dr. Vernon Wyland, superintendent of schools, reportedly advised the group the new list would be studied and a decision given later.

One source indicated the employes had revised downward an original 50-cent across the board wage request in some categories, but was still sought for custodians and maintenance personnel.

THE PTA Council reported the following appeal will be submitted to the school administration, the board, and the School Service Personnel Association:

"1.—To immediately resume good-faith negotiations that will lead to a settlement of the present disruption of the education of our children.

"2.—That if necessary for progress to be made in negotiations, alternate representatives of each group be designated.

"3.—That if productive negotiations cannot be commenced at once, then we recommend that the dispute be submitted to arbitration.

"4.—That during negotiations or arbitration, school resume with the full, experienced non-teaching staff at their jobs.

U.S. Senate Top Race In Pennsylvania

Clark Seeks Third Term Against GOP Rival Schweiker

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Pennsylvanians, in possibly smaller numbers than in 1964, vote for a new president today —and despite the apathy politicians consider the election one of the most crucial in this century.

The 9,492 polling places opened at 7 a.m. under mostly fair skies and by the time they close 13 hours later, at 8 p.m., it is expected about 4.5 million will have cast ballots, or roughly 80 per cent of the 5,599,364 registered.

The final, frenzied drive for voter support—by telephone, by mailed brochures, by television and radio, by personal front-door confrontations—reportedly cost more than $1 million. In Philadelphia alone each party anted up about $250,000 to get voters to the polls.

Supporters of Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey, Republican Richard M. Nixon and American Independent George C. Wallace all claimed they'd win the big bloc of 29 electoral votes, third largest in the nation. But only the third party nominee, his support shrinking in the campaign's closing weeks, seemed to be a sure loser.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh could be the key to Democratic success: if Humphrey doesn't pile up a plurality of at least 300,000—and that may be short —in those Democratic strongholds Nixon probably will come out on top.

GOP State Chairman John C. Jordan saw Nixon a 350,000-vote winner, contrasting to the 1.5 million landslide rolled by President Johnson four years ago.

Democratic State Chairman Thomas Z. Minehart predicted Humphrey would carry the entire party ticket to victory, but declined to predict an actual margin. He said such a forecast was too uncertain, especially because of the Wallace presence.

Trial To Resume Wednesday In Traffic Fatality Charge

LISBON —The trial of Gilbert R. Ashbridge, 20, of East Palestine, charged with traffic manslaughter, will resume at 9 a. m. Wednesday after a half-day recess because of the election.

The Courthouse closed at noon today.

Ashbridge is charged with the death of Gary A. Norton, 23, of Astoria, N. Y., in a two - car collision July 31, 1967, on Route 170 just north of Negley. The victim was on vacation at his parents' home in Negley.

John B. McDonald, assistant prosecuting attorney, told the jury in his opening statement Monday the evidence will show Ashbridge was driving north "and, for some reason or another, failed to keep his auto on his own or the right side of the road and came across over into the lefthand lane and collided with a southbound car driven by Nelson."

James D. Primm Jr., defense counsel, told the jury neither Ashbridge nor his companion, Ronald Hughes, remembers the accident "and there were no eyewitnesses as far as I know." "There will be a reasonable doubt in your minds as to what really happened out there and by reason of that Gilbert Ashbridge will be entitled to an acquittal at your hands."

Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, county coroner, tesified he examined Mr. Norton's body at Salem City Hospial the night of the accident and performed an autopsy the next morning. He said death was caused by a severe cerebral concussion received in the collision.

Under cross - examination by Primm, Dr. Kolozsi said he did not take a blood sample from the victim to determine if he had been drinking. "There was no odor of alcohol," the coroner said, "and I did examine the man's stomach contents."

The state's second witness was Ronald W. Hughes of Chestertown, Md., who on the day of the accident was spending a leave at his grandparents' home in Negley.

He testified he met Ashbridge at the Valley Inn in Negley between 4:30 and 5 in the afternoon and they made plans to go to Lake Chautauquw, N. Y., that evening.

Hughes said he had one or two beers at the inn and that Ashbridge, who was playing pool, also had one. Hughes said he went to his grandparents' home in a few minutes and Ashbridge picked him up there later and headed north on Route 170 toward East Palestine.

Hughes said he saw a six-pack of beer on the back seat of Ashbridge's Corvair when he got in. He said he asked "Gil" if he wanted one and the driver said he did not. Hughes said he took a bottle from the pack and had his head down looking for a can opener under the front seat when the impact occurred. He said the next thing he remembers was "coming to in the ambulance."

"Do you recall how fast the car was going?" Primm asked.

"My guess would be 30, 35 or 40 miles per hour," Hughes answered. He said he does not remember seeing any other car.

"Did anything Gil say or do impress you that he had too much to drink?" Primm continued.

"No, sir," Hughes answered, "if it had, we would have taken my car."

Ptl. W. C. Muckleroy of Ohio Highway Paol Post 15 at Lisbon testified he arrived at the scene at 5:59 p.m. and saw two wrecked cars — a Corvair partly on the east berm and a 1964 Cadillac convertible upside down off the west side of the highway.

He said there was no one in the Corvair, but the driver was still pinned in the Cadillac and he assisted in working him free.

On the jury sworn in Monday by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard are Ruth C. Hogue, Hazel L. Fife and Lilyan Alpern, East Liverpool; Violet Whittaker and Dorman Householder, Wellsville; Gary Stone, Salineville; Gertrude Doan, Summitville; Sarah Ann Baronzzi and Ada Barborak, Lisbon; James DeJane, Leetonia, and Marcia Maag and Clarence Walker, Salem. Mary Louise Heddleston, East Liverpool, is the alternate.

Man Escapes Chair Death For 6th Time

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Cleo Vernon Keaton has escaped death in the electric chair for the sixth time.

The 31-year-old convicted killer, scheduled to die Friday night, is getting a stay of execution so that he may undergo a 30-day mental examination at Lima State Hospital.

Franklin County Common Pleas Court Judge Myron Gessaman said Monday he was issuing the stay on the advice of Ohio Penitentiary Warden H. D. Cardwell, who said it appears that Keaton is insane.

An insane person cannot be executed under Ohio law.

Cardwell based the recommendation on a report by Dr. John H. Vermeulen, state psychiatrist, who said he believed Keaton to be insane.

Gessaman said that after completion of the examination at Lima he will hold a sanity hearing for Keaton to determine if he is sane. Sources said it appears unlikely that Keaton will be returned to death row.

Keaton was sentenced in 1965 to die for the faal shooting of Maurice L. Francis, 27, Williamsport. Francis, a Columbus auto worker, was killed as Keaton allegedly was in the process of stealing his car in Pickaway County.

After a number of appeals, including one to the U.S. Supreme Court, were denied, Keaton asked for executive clemency. The state parole board was considering the request when Judge Gessaman ordered the stay.

Two plaques and letters of commendation have been received by Chester Postmaster Robert Edwards from F. Alvin Webb, regional director in Washington, D. C.

The continued excellence award for efforts in the good housekeeping program and a similar award for participation in the president's outdoors beautification program were accompanied by appropriately - worded plaques, Edwards said.

This is the second time the Chester post office has been recognized in this manner, he said.

Webb, in correspondence with Edwards, said, "It is most gratifying to know that you have surpassed your goal and have continued to support the programs."

Harris Poll Places HHH Ahead By 3%

NEW YORK (AP) — The major public opinion polls were split as the nation began voting today. A last-minute Harris poll showed Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey leading for the first time, 43 to 40 per cent over Republican Richard M. Nixon.

The final Harris survey, released Monday afternoon, indicated a swing of 5 per cent to Humphrey in 24 hours. It was dismissed by John N. Mitchell, Nixon's national campaign manager, as a "gratuitous concoction."

The final Gallup poll which was published Monday morning showed Nixon ahead 42 to 40 per cent with 14 per cent for third party candidate George C. Wallace and 4 per cent undecided.

Both the Gallup and Harris polls have showed Humphrey gaining momentum in recent weeks. Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien said the final Harris survey showed the vice president was "over the top now."

Since both of the major survey firms allow for a 3 to 4 per cent margin of error, the most recent surveys suggested a very close race with the possibility of a near dead heat in the popular voting.

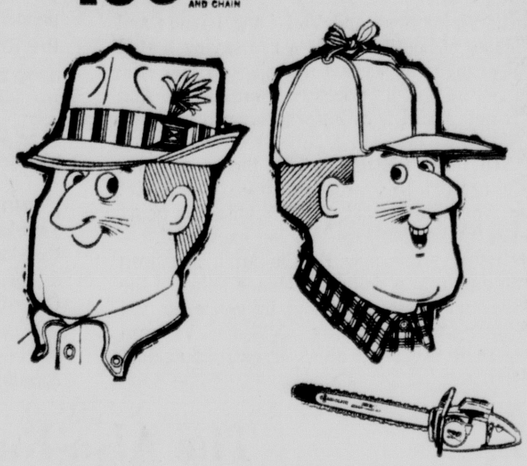

No published state-by-state electoral vote forecast has showed Humphrey ahead and some observers saw the possibility that the apparent Democratic surge might prevent any candidate from gaining the 270 electoral votes needed to win.

If that occurred, the election would be decided in the House of Representatives where each state delegation has one vote and a majority of 26 is required for election.

In dismissing the final Harris poll, Mitchell pointed out that the previous Harris figures, published Monday morning, had agreed with Gallup giving Nixon 42 per cent to 40 per cent for Humphrey.

Harris Poll Places HHH Ahead By 3%

NEW YORK (AP) — The major public opinion polls were split as the nation began voting today. A last-minute Harris poll showed Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey leading for the first time, 43 to 40 per cent over Republican Richard M. Nixon.

The final Harris survey, released Monday afternoon, indicated a swing of 5 per cent to Humphrey in 24 hours. It was dismissed by John N. Mitchell, Nixon's national campaign manager, as a "gratuitous concoction."

The final Gallup poll which was published Monday morning showed Nixon ahead 42 to 40 per cent with 14 per cent for third party candidate George C. Wallace and 4 per cent undecided.

Both the Gallup and Harris polls have showed Humphrey gaining momentum in recent weeks. Democratic National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien said the final Harris survey showed the vice president was "over the top now."

Since both of the major survey firms allow for a 3 to 4 per cent margin of error, the most recent surveys suggested a very close race with the possibility of a near dead heat in the popular voting.

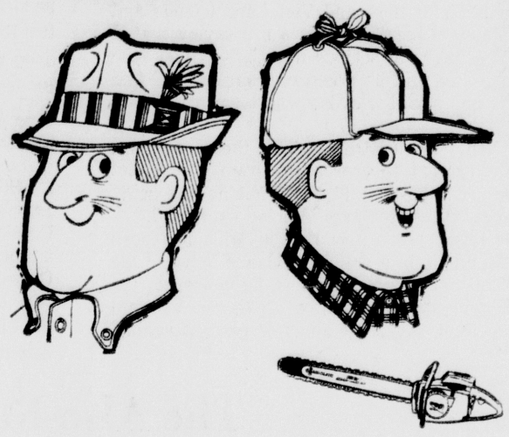

No published state-by-state electoral vote forecast has showed Humphrey ahead and some observers saw the possibility that the apparent Democratic surge might prevent any candidate from gaining the 270 electoral votes needed to win.

If that occurred, the election would be decided in the House of Representatives where each state delegation has one vote and a majority of 26 is required for election.

In dismissing the final Harris poll, Mitchell pointed out that the previous Harris figures, published Monday morning, had agreed with Gallup giving Nixon 42 per cent to 40 per cent for Humphrey.

Russia Pushes Ho Toward Peace

Behind the scenes in the maneuvering which brought about the cessation of bombing in the Vietnam War is Russia. There can be no denying this

There are various views, however, as to just what Russia's role has been and is at the moment.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong friends and confidants in South-East Asia are saying that if Hanoi engages in serious negotiations now, the main reason will be pressure from Russia. And this is being said with bitterness.

HANOI, ACCORDING TO these sources, deeply resents this pressure from the Soviet Union. The opinion that North Vietnam is being sold out by the Russians is being expressed.

For many years now Ho Chi Minh has been able to maintain a delicate balance between the Russian and Chinese aid and influence, as the amazingly skillful leaders of North Vietnam played their two giant allies or patrons against one another.

Within the past year, however, China, plagued with serious internal problems of its own, has slpped into the background and apparently has been unable to supply Hanoi's needs.

This made Ho and his henchmen more dependent upon the Russians. Consequently, when the Russians threaten to end the military aid upon which North Vietnam depends to carry on its aggression. Ho Chi Minh has no other course than grudgingly, and bitterly, to go along with the move toward peace.

THOSE WHO SEE the current bombing halt as having developed in this way believe that Russia is exerting the pressure because it fears a third world war and now believes that the United States will not give up South Vietnam.

If this analysis is correct, then there is hope for peace — for a while at least. For without Russian support the war would quickly end.

The Also-Rans

Men and women across the tri-state area and the nation went to the polls today to select winners — and losers.

It is an abiding belief in our democratic way of government that intelligent and informed voters over the long haul pick the right leaders. But we have all seen too many examples of specific cases in which the electorate put the wrong man in office.

And that will probably happen today in some contests, where personality or propaganda or any number of factors will bring about the election of the lesser qualified of two candidates for office.

Even the chap who deserves to lose earns an honest tribute from the citizens for seeking office, for believing in himself, in certain principles, in his party, in representative government.

It takes much hard work and much money to take to the political hustings, to knock on doors and shake hands and speak out. It's something a lot more critics and "experts" ought to do, but are afraid of the battle or the risk of defeat.

There's no shame in coming in second. Somebody has to lose an election, even Abraham Lincoln found that out. So we offer a salute to the also-rans. And if they are worth their salt, we hope they also run again . . .

Lucky Streak?

It has been said there is but one good throw upon the dice and that is to throw them away —but some people are hard to convince.

From America's gambling center of Nevada comes some information that may help someone trying to kick the gaming habit.

United Press International reports that Nevada gambling casinos won a record of more than $107 million in the second quarter of 1968.

The huge take represents an increase of 20 per cent over the same period in 1967.

Somebody's luck is definitely getting better.

Remember that old saying about a sucker being born every minute? It isn't outdated.

No Corner On Tax Misery

Their Canadian neighbors will pay 2 per cent more in taxes next year to help cover the $845-million cost of new welfare and educational programs.

Finance Minister E. J. Benson calls the income tax hike a "social development" levy. Whatever its title, Canadian citizens will feel the sting of the revenue-raising program which reportedly represents the largest hike in the country's history.

Related tax changes include some that affected corporations and authorized taxing of insurance companies, previously exempt.

Increased operating costs within the corporate structure naturally will be passed along to taxpayers and add to his woes.

The boost in revenue will not enable Prime Minister Elliott Trudeau to balance the federal budget in the present fiscal year which ends March 31.

Finance Minister Benson has expressed hope that the new levies would equalize federal expenditures and revenue in another year.

In his budget speech, Mr. Benson said Canada's economy is advancing to a period of prosperity complicated by federal spending commitments and by inflationary pressures on prices.

Doesn't it all sound familiar?

In Memoriam

Although lacking in detail, the announcement by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy describing the Robert F. Kennedy Memorial, a tribute to the late senator, indicates the goal of the foundation appears well chosen.

Sen. Kennedy said it is the hope of the founders that the memorial to his brother will act as a "catalyst" in the search for answers to problems that confront America.

Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy said the memorial will "carry forward the ideals" that were important to her husband.

The late senator was an action-oriented man and the idea of small task forces working in critical areas in a non-political, nonlobbying manner seems especially suited as a tribute to his memory.

Black Racism At Antioch

It wasn't too long ago that a group of Negro students at Northwestern University caused quite a stir by demanding equal but separate housing on the campus.

No white students were to be permitted to reside in the Negro dormitories.

Surprise and consternation greeted this demand for it seemed the antithesis of what black Americans had been striving for in racial relations. Charges of black racism and discrimination were heard.

NOW A CENTURY-OLD commitment to integrated education is being shattered at an Ohio educational institution — Antioch College at Yellow Springs.

An Afro-American Studies Institute is being started in which most of the liberal school's 100 Negro students will study in segregated surroundings.

As the result of a $10,000 grant recommended by the college president, James P. Dixon, as "an act of faith" in the educational goals of Negro students, more than a dozen courses "for Negroes only" are being offered in the social sciences and humanities.

Included in the courses, to be taught by Negroes only, are Black Economic Liberation, Black Curriculum Development, Black Psyche and other courses in philosophy, history and the arts.

ONE COURSE open to white student deals with what racism is and how to deal with it.

High Wire Act

The Democratic Way

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Of all the events of 1968, none has had more of an effect on the American people than the marriage of Jackie Kennedy to Greek zillionaire Aristotle Onassis. People who had no opinion on the Vietnamese war, the crisis of the cities or the youth revolution all had something to say about Mrs. Kennedy's nuptials.

Art Buchwald

It seems to me that what Jackie Kennedy didn't realize was that she was the property of the American people and, therefore, that she had no right to choose a husband on her own. If Mrs. Kennedy wanted to get married again, she should have informed the American public of this, either on the Johnny Carson show or the Bell Telephone Hour, and let the American people choose a husband for her.

ONCE SHE MADE her intentions known, a special Republican and Democratic convention would have been called and candidates would have been nominated for her to marry.

After the nominations, each candidate would have campaigned for Jackie's hand. They would have explained what they would do for Jackie as a husband, where they would live and how they would raise Jackie's children.

The candidates would have bought television time to let the public know where they stood, not only on the marriage, but also on the public issues of the day.

They also would have traveled across the nation so that Americans could see them in the flesh and decide for themselves which candidate would be the best mate for the former First Lady.

NOT ONLY WOULD the public have listened to the platform of the men it thought were suitable for Jackie's hand, but people would also have decided the complicated questions of religion, age and nationality of the husband-to-be.

Since they had so much at stake, the public would have taken far more interest in this campaign than they have in the presidential election.

The climax of the race for Jackie's husband would have been a nationally televised debate between the candidates, so the electorate could see for itself how each man would behave under pressure.

Finally, on Election Day, Americans from all walks of life would have gone to the polls and voted for the person they wanted to stand at Jackie's side.

In case neither candidate got a majority of the electoral voted, then the House of Representatives would have chosen the man privileged to be Jackie Kennedy's husband.

Once the majority of the American people had made their decision, we all would have abided by it, with no one complaining that he didn't have a vote in Mrs. Kennedy's marital affairs.

This would have been the American way of doing things. Perhaps Mr. Onassis might have won the election; perhaps he might not. But at least the election would have prevented the confusion and despair now rampant in the United States over the Kennedy-Onassis wedding.

EVEN THOSE who are on Jackie's side admit that it wasn't whom she married, but the way she did it, that has caused so much concern in this country.

No woman of Mrs. Kennedy's stature has a right to decide affairs of the heart by herself. Her marriage was everybody's business, and the least she could have done was poll the American public before she made a decision that affects the lives and pocketbooks of us all.

Letters To The Editor

Another Viewpoint

The level of intelligence of some of your readers is exceeded only by their incapacity to utilize deductive reasoning. . . .in other words, they would rather fight than THINK! I have attended seminars basically aimed at sex in general; the final and rational conclusion arrived at by boys and girls (11-18) was this:

Due to an alarming increase in teenage marriages, which were often mandatory, there were two possible solutions aside from sex education in the school.

They were: (1) to decrease the birth rate (2) to increase the death rate. Therefore, the latter of these solutions was made almost impossible due to medical research in God's field. One can observe the attempts made to decrease the birth rate by the pill, mechanical contraceptives, clinical approaches, etc.

Nevertheless, one must be educated to effectively utilize these methods to their utmost degree. Parents too often lead their children to adopt some form of blind faith in the gadgetry of contraception, though this in itself may have religious restraints.

According to the present demographic statistics, fertility among young people is definitely increasing. This is a direct indication that kids have the right to know the facts. . . .simple and concise. University Function

There have been many classical depictions of the lost ideal of the university. It was the place, in a busy society pursuing multitudinous purposes, where a relatively small number of mature intellects might study, do research, think and draw to themselves young learners who might succeed their elder mentors or go out into the world with an understanding of the underlying nature and meaning of its problems. Woodrow Wilson defined it 72 years ago at Princeton:

"A little world; but not perplexed, living with a singleness of purpose not found without; the home of sagacious men, debaters of the world's questions every day . . . and yet a place removed—calm science seated there, recluse, ascetic, like a nun; not knowing that the world passes, not caring, if the truth but come in answer to her prayer."

MY OWN DEFINITION, without Wilson's eloquence, serves better. For it includes in the university's purpose the primary obligation of passing on the knowledge and wisdom of "sagacious men to students through instruction, seeking to become like their mentors, searchers for the truth beneath the surface of affairs.

Since I terminated my relationship with Columbia University 16 years ago, I had not realized what a transformation had taken place there until I read this week what a man of high intelligence, like Wilson, had to say about the change. He is Jacques Barzun, a man who reached eminence as a professor and scholar, and who for 12 years deserted the classroom and served as dean of the faculties and provost until last year

He prefaces what he says by noting that in 1952 the Columbia budget was $20 million. In 1966 it was $120 million. This was certainly not due to the growth of the student body. For I did a bit of checking about enrollment. And after calling four different offices in the great complex that is the modern Columbia, the registrar's office gave me the enrollment figures for 1953 and 1966. These were 17,897 in 1953 and 17,534 in 1966.

And so the swelling, or growth, if you will, of Columbia is not due to the increase of he sudent body. It is because, as Barzun says:

"The American university has upheaved itself to 'catch up' and 'modernize,' words that mean: Has ceased to be a sheltered spot for study only; has come into the market place and answered the cries for help uttered by government, industry and the general public; has busily pursued the enthusiasm of our utopian leaders of thought, both private patrons and big foundations; has served the country by carrying on research for national goals; has, finally, recognized social needs by undertaking to teach the quite young, the middle-aged, the disabled, the deprived, the misdirected and the maladjusted.

"Every new skill or item of knowledge developed within the academy creates a new claim by the community. It thus comes about that the school of social work aids the poor, the school of architecture redesigns the slums, the school of business advises the small tradesman, the school of dentistry runs a free clinic, the school of law gives legal aid and the undergraduate college supplies volunteers to hospitals, recreation centers and remedial schools."

THE PRESSURE on the faculty to engage more fully in the life of the urban community, the state and the nation began long ago at Columbia and elsewhere. The "extensions" of the University of Wisconsin spread all over the state, telling farmers how to farm, helping cities to govern themselves by providing free administrative service, writing bills for ignorant state legislators and at the same time supplying recruits for actual jobs in government at all levels.

The consequences of all these preoccupations of the university, its administrative officers and faculty members is, as Barzun points out, a flight from teaching by those best equipped and the consequent imposition upon students of untrained young instructors and assistant professors.

It is small wonder that with this preoccupation of the university with public affairs and with boredom suffered by students denied interesting classroom instruction that the students themselves have become activists in matters of city, state and national concern. Here may well be the root of the crisis in the universities.

Russia Pushes Ho Toward Peace

Behind the scenes in the maneuvering which brought about the cessation of bombing in the Vietnam War is Russia. There can be no denying this

There are various views, however, as to just what Russia's role has been and is at the moment.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong friends and confidants in South-East Asia are saying that if Hanoi engages in serious negotiations now, the main reason will be pressure from Russia. And this is being said with bitterness.

HANOI, ACCORDING TO these sources, deeply resents this pressure from the Soviet Union. The opinion that North Vietnam is being sold out by the Russians is being expressed.

For many years now Ho Chi Minh has been able to maintain a delicate balance between the Russian and Chinese aid and influence, as the amazingly skillful leaders of North Vietnam played their two giant allies or patrons against one another.

Within the past year, however, China, plagued with serious internal problems of its own, has slpped into the background and apparently has been unable to supply Hanoi's needs.

This made Ho and his henchmen more dependent upon the Russians. Consequently, when the Russians threaten to end the military aid upon which North Vietnam depends to carry on its aggression. Ho Chi Minh has no other course than grudgingly, and bitterly, to go along with the move toward peace.

THOSE WHO SEE the current bombing halt as having developed in this way believe that Russia is exerting the pressure because it fears a third world war and now believes that the United States will not give up South Vietnam.

If this analysis is correct, then there is hope for peace — for a while at least. For without Russian support the war would quickly end.

The Also-Rans

Men and women across the tri-state area and the nation went to the polls today to select winners — and losers.

It is an abiding belief in our democratic way of government that intelligent and informed voters over the long haul pick the right leaders. But we have all seen too many examples of specific cases in which the electorate put the wrong man in office.

And that will probably happen today in some contests, where personality or propaganda or any number of factors will bring about the election of the lesser qualified of two candidates for office.

Even the chap who deserves to lose earns an honest tribute from the citizens for seeking office, for believing in himself, in certain principles, in his party, in representative government.

It takes much hard work and much money to take to the political hustings, to knock on doors and shake hands and speak out. It's something a lot more critics and "experts" ought to do, but are afraid of the battle or the risk of defeat.

There's no shame in coming in second. Somebody has to lose an election, even Abraham Lincoln found that out. So we offer a salute to the also-rans. And if they are worth their salt, we hope they also run again . . .

Lucky Streak?

It has been said there is but one good throw upon the dice and that is to throw them away —but some people are hard to convince.

From America's gambling center of Nevada comes some information that may help someone trying to kick the gaming habit.

United Press International reports that Nevada gambling casinos won a record of more than $107 million in the second quarter of 1968.

The huge take represents an increase of 20 per cent over the same period in 1967.

Somebody's luck is definitely getting better.

Remember that old saying about a sucker being born every minute? It isn't outdated.

No Corner On Tax Misery

Their Canadian neighbors will pay 2 per cent more in taxes next year to help cover the $845-million cost of new welfare and educational programs.

Finance Minister E. J. Benson calls the income tax hike a "social development" levy. Whatever its title, Canadian citizens will feel the sting of the revenue-raising program which reportedly represents the largest hike in the country's history.

Related tax changes include some that affected corporations and authorized taxing of insurance companies, previously exempt.

Increased operating costs within the corporate structure naturally will be passed along to taxpayers and add to his woes.

The boost in revenue will not enable Prime Minister Elliott Trudeau to balance the federal budget in the present fiscal year which ends March 31.

Finance Minister Benson has expressed hope that the new levies would equalize federal expenditures and revenue in another year.

In his budget speech, Mr. Benson said Canada's economy is advancing to a period of prosperity complicated by federal spending commitments and by inflationary pressures on prices.

Doesn't it all sound familiar?

In Memoriam

Although lacking in detail, the announcement by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy describing the Robert F. Kennedy Memorial, a tribute to the late senator, indicates the goal of the foundation appears well chosen.

Sen. Kennedy said it is the hope of the founders that the memorial to his brother will act as a "catalyst" in the search for answers to problems that confront America.

Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy said the memorial will "carry forward the ideals" that were important to her husband.

The late senator was an action-oriented man and the idea of small task forces working in critical areas in a non-political, nonlobbying manner seems especially suited as a tribute to his memory.

Black Racism At Antioch

It wasn't too long ago that a group of Negro students at Northwestern University caused quite a stir by demanding equal but separate housing on the campus.

No white students were to be permitted to reside in the Negro dormitories.

Surprise and consternation greeted this demand for it seemed the antithesis of what black Americans had been striving for in racial relations. Charges of black racism and discrimination were heard.

NOW A CENTURY-OLD commitment to integrated education is being shattered at an Ohio educational institution — Antioch College at Yellow Springs.

An Afro-American Studies Institute is being started in which most of the liberal school's 100 Negro students will study in segregated surroundings.

As the result of a $10,000 grant recommended by the college president, James P. Dixon, as "an act of faith" in the educational goals of Negro students, more than a dozen courses "for Negroes only" are being offered in the social sciences and humanities.

Included in the courses, to be taught by Negroes only, are Black Economic Liberation, Black Curriculum Development, Black Psyche and other courses in philosophy, history and the arts.

ONE COURSE open to white student deals with what racism is and how to deal with it.

Berry's World

High Wire Act

The Democratic Way

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Of all the events of 1968, none has had more of an effect on the American people than the marriage of Jackie Kennedy to Greek zillionaire Aristotle Onassis. People who had no opinion on the Vietnamese war, the crisis of the cities or the youth revolution all had something to say about Mrs. Kennedy's nuptials.

Art Buchwald

It seems to me that what Jackie Kennedy didn't realize was that she was the property of the American people and, therefore, that she had no right to choose a husband on her own. If Mrs. Kennedy wanted to get married again, she should have informed the American public of this, either on the Johnny Carson show or the Bell Telephone Hour, and let the American people choose a husband for her.

ONCE SHE MADE her intentions known, a special Republican and Democratic convention would have been called and candidates would have been nominated for her to marry.

After the nominations, each candidate would have campaigned for Jackie's hand. They would have explained what they would do for Jackie as a husband, where they would live and how they would raise Jackie's children.

The candidates would have bought television time to let the public know where they stood, not only on the marriage, but also on the public issues of the day.

They also would have traveled across the nation so that Americans could see them in the flesh and decide for themselves which candidate would be the best mate for the former First Lady.

NOT ONLY WOULD the public have listened to the platform of the men it thought were suitable for Jackie's hand, but people would also have decided the complicated questions of religion, age and nationality of the husband-to-be.

Since they had so much at stake, the public would have taken far more interest in this campaign than they have in the presidential election.

The climax of the race for Jackie's husband would have been a nationally televised debate between the candidates, so the electorate could see for itself how each man would behave under pressure.

Finally, on Election Day, Americans from all walks of life would have gone to the polls and voted for the person they wanted to stand at Jackie's side.

In case neither candidate got a majority of the elecioral voted, then the House of Representatives would have chosen the man privileged to be Jackie Kennedy's husband.

Once the majority of the American people had made their decision, we all would have abided by it, with no one complaining that he didn't have a vote in Mrs. Kennedy's marital affairs.

This would have been the American way of doing things. Perhaps Mr. Onassis might have won the election; perhaps he might not. But at least the election would have prevented the confusion and despair now rampant in the United States over the Kennedy-Onassis wedding.

EVEN THOSE who are on Jackie's side admit that it wasn't whom she married, but the way she did it, that has caused so much concern in this country.

No woman of Mrs. Kennedy's stature has a right to decide affairs of the heart by herself. Her marriage was everybody's business, and the least she could have done was poll the American public before she made a decision that affects the lives and pocketbooks of us all.

Letters To The Editor

Another Viewpoint

The level of intelligence of some of your readers is exceeded only by their incapacity to utilize deductive reasoning. . . .in other words, they would rather fight than THINK! I have attended seminars basically aimed at sex in general; the final and rational conclusion arrived at by boys and girls (11-18) was this:

Due to an alarming increase in teenage marriages, which were often mandatory, there were two possible solutions aside from sex education in the school.

They were: (1) to decrease the birth rate (2) to increase the death rate. Therefore, the latter of these solutions was made almost impossible due to medical research in God's field. One can observe the attempts made to decrease the birth rate by the pill, mechanical contraceptives, clinical approaches, etc.

Nevertheless, one must be educated to effectively utilize these methods to their utmost degree. Parents too often lead their children to adopt some form of blind faith in the gadgetry of contraception, though this in itself may have religious restraints.

According to the present demographic statistics, fertility among young people is definitely increasing. This is a direct indication that kids have the right to know the facts. . . .simple and concise. To the parents, let me say this: Your vocabulary and ability to create an undistorted picture concerning sex to your child is becoming obsolete.

The answer lies no longer only within the church; a coeducational classroom holds more worth than any pill or clinic. The teachers of these classes are hand-picked; they know their material inside-out. They went to college to learn the how's and why's. They helped to select the proper text which your child will read again and again. They also realize that between the mix-up of the home, church and school, the school will be the one to educate your children.

Parents, you are presently considered losers, whether pro or con, this issue. You as responsible adults have failed to realize that progress continues in every field. You should be thankful that the East Liverpool School System is taking corrective action for your mistakes. If you could only realize the value which coeducation yields, such as the right to question the other sex, to poll their opinions, and to become a well-educated and well-rounded youth.

Segregated sex classes often lead to the boy's or the girl's knowledge as being incomplete. As many people (educated or uneducated) may know, this is termed, "Gutter Sex".

THOUGH NO action was taken, discussions were held on keeping students out of school the Rev. George Stewart, president of the School Service Personnel Association, indicated.

Rev. Fields went on to say that "the non - teaching personnel have been trying for quite a long time to have negotiations with the Board, but the School Board had given the (its) authority to the superintendent (Dr. Vernon Wyland), and he refused to meet with them. Then when he did meet, he didn't give them an answer until they went out on strike."

Rev. Stewart said that the non-teaching personnel is "anxious to solve" the problems and has even reduced some of its former demands.

Also named to head the citizens meetings were the Rev. P. H. Johnson of Weirton, pastor of the Morning Star Baptist Church, vice president, and Jack Cooper of Weirton RD 1, secretary.

ported very heavy voting this morning.

Precinct 2-E, which votes at the North Side fire station, showed 113 votes in the first four hours today. In 1964, it cast 122 forenoon votes and in 1960 it had 150 morning votes. Precinct 1-B, which votes at a St. George St. home, showed 80 forenoon votes today, against 99 at the same time in 1964 and 126 in 1960.

Precinct 3-C, which votes at Central fire station, showed 61 forenoon votes today, with 53 at the same time in 1964 and 95 in 1960. Precinct 2-I, voting in a Beechwood home, had 65 forenoon votes today against 77 at the same time in 1960. Precinct 4-E, voting in a John St. home, had 52 forenoon votes today against 63 at the same time in 1964.

Precinct 3-F, voting on Lincoln Ave., had 31 forenoon votes today. Precinct 1-F, which votes at a 1st Ave. home, had 44 morning votes today. Comparable figures are not available from 1964 on the last two precincts.

The 170 polling places in Columbiana County opened at 6:30 a. m. and will close at 6:30 p.m.

Always belated in a presidential election, the returns tonight are expected to be later than usual because of the heavy vote the large number of candidates —including write-in —and the complicated task of gathering figures on 35 special questions and issues.

For the first time in many years, a court decision has permitted write-ins in Ohio at a general election, a fact that will slow the count. Secretary of State Ted W. Brown estimated final returns may be two hours later than usual, which means figures may not be complete until near dawn Wednesday.

The Columbiana County Election Board completed the task of gathering returns and adding up totals at 3:25 a. m. the day after the last presidential election in 1964. Returns on offices at the top of the ticket were finished countywide at 12:05 a. m.

Acting under instructions from Brown, boards throughout Ohio will make the first tabulation on the top offices. This means that final returns on county offices and special issues may not be available until 3 or 4 a.m. Wednesday. The practice of counting the top offices first has been followed for many years.

The last city precinct did not report until about 2 a.m. four years ago. The last county returns were received at 3:15 from Salineville.

East Liverpool has 8,187 voters qualified for the election today. In the 1964 presidential election, the city cast 7,837 votes out of a potential 9,000.

The city's turnout in the 1960 presidential election hit 9,323. In 1956, another presidential year, it hit 8,937. The city cast 10,233 votes in the 1952 voting.

The Election Board's first report to Columbus tonight will cover these races: President, U.S. senate, Ohio Supreme Court chief justice and two justices, two state constitutional amendments and 18th District congressman.

Supporters of former Gov. George Wallace have official credentials to place witnesses and or challengers in 10 Columbiana County precincts.

Law allows an official witness to enter a polling place after voting ends and observe tabulation of the returns. A challenger is permitted to remain in a polling place throughout the day and make an official challenge against any person's right to vote, provided he has legal cause.

The group indicated to the Election Board the 10 would function primarily as witnesses, not challengers.

Only one set of challenger-witness credentials was issued in East Liverpool. It covers Precinct 2-G, which votes at the Grace Baptist Temple.

Five were authorized in Lisbon precincts, with two each in East Palestine and Columbiana.

News Of Area Residents In Armed Forces

Army Spec. 6 William F. Dozier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Dozier of RD 3, is serving with the Army Forces Southern Command in the Panama Canal Zone. His wife, Mirta, is with him.

He is assigned to the 20th Infantry at Ft. Clayton as a first cook.

Seaman Apprentice James D. Higgins, son of Mrs. Collin Scott of Lisbon RD 1, has completed nine weeks of basic training at Great Lakes, Ill.

Army 1st Lt. John G. Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Griffith of 1869 Lisbon St., received the Silver Star for gallantry in action during recent ceremonies at his base in Vietnam.

He achieved the award for action last June while serving as artillery liaison officer with an infantry battalion on a reconnaissance in force mission north of Cai Lay when the unit engaged a Viet Cong force.

When the forward artillery observers attempted to call in for supporting artillery fire, their positions prevented radio contact, so Lt. Griffith boarded an observation helicopter "and from a hazardous altitude of only 100 meters above the battlefield, began to direct the artillery fire upon the enemy bunkers."

He also holds the Army Commendation Medal for heroism, the Air Medal and the Purple Heart. He entered the Army in February 1966 and arrived in Vietnam last November. He is assigned to Headquarters Battery, 1st Battalion, of the 9th Infantry Division's 11th Artillery. He is a 1964 graduate of East Liverpool High School.

One Town Picks Humphrey, Another Nixon In Early Vote

DIXVILLE NOTCH, N.H. (AP) — Dixville Notch, solidly Republican in the past, gave eight votes today to Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey and four to Richard M. Nixon.

The town of Ellsworth in the White Mountains, however, stayed in the Republican camp and its 11 registered voters cast ballots for Nixon.

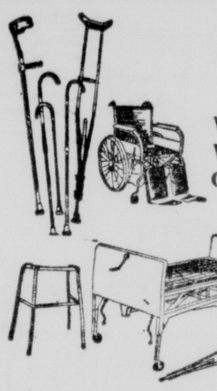

The two towns were among the first in the nation to count their presidential vote.

In 1960 Nixon collected all eight votes to which Dixville Notch, a town near the Canadian border, was then entitled. The makeup of the population has changed since then, however, with development of a new ski area bringing in some new families.

The voting at Dixville Notch was completed a few moments after midnight. Doughnuts and coffee helped to lure all the village's registered voters to the polling place some time before midnight, and when the polls officially opened at the stroke of 12 Town Moderator Nil Tillotson cast the first ballot and the others quickly followed.

New Hampshire law permits towns to set their own hours for opening the polls. They may be closed when every registered voter has cast a ballot.

Dixville Notch is in Coos County, one of the nation's bellwether counties. Coos has voted for the winner in every presidential election since 1884.

The Bell Appliance Co. of East Liverpool was awarded the contract for the 10-by-12-foot freezer on a low bid of $4,737. Space for the storage of large amounts of government surplus food previously has been rented at Lisbon and at the Vernon Dell Dairy, Supt. He said a ton of turkey is to be delivered for cafeteria use, and a cold storage unit is required.

In other action, the board approved three substitute bus drivers — Mrs. Arlene Clark of West Point, Mrs. Shirley Robinson of Grimms Bridge and Mrs. Shirley Smith of Rogers.

Mrs. Esther Williams of Apples Corners was hired as a bus driver to replace Mrs. Marie Shuman of Calcutta, resigned.

Supt. Cashdollar reported on inspections by the fire marshal and boiler officials. Some minor changes in the boiler operations are to be studied by the Sanford firm for a bid.

The men faculty members were granted permission to use the gym for basketball on Monday evenings.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 2. However, in the event plans are completed for proposed new classroom additions, a special meeting will be held to study the plans.

GOP Stands Good Chance To Widen Governor Edge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans, who have steadily increased their share of the nation's governorships in the last four elections, stand a good chance of widening the 26 to 24 margin they now hold over the Democrats.

Governors will be elected in 21 states. Democrats hold 13 of those seats, Republicans only eight.

Democrats in seven states are losing the usual advantage of having an incumbent governor standing for re-election. Two of the seven are running for the Senate, two are stepping down for personal reasons and three are barred by state law from succeeding themselves.

The lone Republican incumbent not running, Gov. Nils A. Boe of South Dakota, also is in the can't-run-again category.

In 1959-60, at the end of the Eisenhower administration, there were only 14 Republican governors—down from 30 in 1953-54. In the 29 states where there are no races for governor this year, the office is held in 11 by Democrats and in 18 by Republicans.

Several Democratic governors stepping out have national reputations. Harold E. Hughes of Iowa is running for the Senate. John Connally of Texas is going into private law practice after three terms. Philip H. Hoff of Vermont is stepping down for personal reasons after serving three two-year terms.

In New Hampshire, John King is running for the Senate. Roger D. Branigin of Indiana, Dan Moore of North Carolina and Hulett C. Smith can't run again.

States that are electing governors today for four year terms are Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Montana, North Carolina, Utah, Washington and West Virginia. Governors are being elected for two year terms in Arizona, Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont and Wisconsin.

In Arkansas, Winthrop Rockefeller seeks a second term as the state's first Republican governor since Reconstruction. And in Kansas, Democrat Robert Docking also is running for a second term in a traditionally Republican state where the only Democrat repeating as governor was his father, George Docking.

Republican Gov. Jack Williams of Arizona has as his opponent for a second term the man he ousted in 1966, Democrat Sam Goddard, who charges Williams' tax reforms favor big corporations.

In Delaware, Republican Russell W. Peterson said he would end the "fear and failure" that led Democratic Gov. Charles L. Terry to send National Guardsmen to quell rioting in Wilmington last April.

In Illinois, Democratic Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro and GOP opponent Richard B. Ogilvie vie over who can best maintain law and order, while both oppose a state income tax.

Hostility to taxes is also a feature of Indiana's Republican Campaign between Secretary of State Edgar D. Whitcomb and Democratic Lt. Gov. Robert L. Rock.

The Iowa GOP candidate, Robert D. Ray, charged in his campaign against Democratic State Treasurer Paul Franzenburg, that Democrats were spending the state into the red. Franzenburg denied it.

Democratic Gov. Robert Docking and GOP opponent Rick Harman in Kansas accused each other of favoring higher taxes.

In Missouri, Democratic Gov. Warren E. Hearnes boasted of improving education, attracting new industry and other programs, while Republican Lawrence K. Roos said the state still needs to catch up in those areas.

Both Democrat Emile R. Bussiere and Republican Walter R. Peterson opposed higher taxes in New Hampshire. Bussiere said he would veto any state income or sales taxes enacted by the GOP-controlled legislature, but Peterson refused to make such a promise.

The bid of Democrat Fabian Chavez to become New Mexico's first Spanish-name governor gave an ethnic tone to his effort to unseat GOP Gov. David F. Cargo.

Republican Robert P. McCarney argued in opposing North Dakota's Democratic Gov. William L. Guy that the state needs a governor of the same party as the GOP-controlled legislature.

In South Dakota, Democrat Robert Chamberlin proposed a state income tax to finance education while Republican Frank Farrar first opposed such a tax, then dropped the issue.

Jordan Fight Fatal To 16, 40 Wounded

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Armored cars and steel-helmeted troops today patrolled the streets of the Jordanian capital, still gripped by tension following widespread street fighting Monday in which 16 persons were reported killed and 40 wounded.

King Hussein clamped a heavy guard on his restive, divided country in an attempt to prevent further clashes between troops loyal to him and the Palestine guerrilla groups who have made his kingdom a base for terrorist operations against Israel.

All demonstrations were banned until further notice. An 18-hour curfew, between 4 p.m. and 10 a. m., was imposed.

The government announced the arrest of an undisclosed number of guerrilla leaders charged with responsibility for Monday's violence, the bloodiest confrontation so far between the army and the guerrilla groups demanding a free hand again Israel.

Tough Bedouins of the Arab Legion manned checkpoints at strategic intersections inside Amman. Patrol cars armed with Bren guns roared through the streets.

Several intersections still bore signs of the fighting. Army troops were tearing down stone barricades thrown up by guerrillas and demonstrators.

Telephone communications between Amman and neighboring Arab capitals were restored this morning.

A book of maps is called an atlas because the earliest such books had on the first page a pcture of Atlas, the Greek giant who, according to mythology, carried the world on his shoulders.

News Of Area Residents In Armed Forces

Army Spec. 6 William F. Dozier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Dozier of RD 3, is serving with the Army Forces Southern Command in the Panama Canal Zone. His wife, Mirta, is with him.

He is assigned to the 20th Infantry at Ft. Clayton as a first cook.

Seaman Apprentice James D. Higgins, son of Mrs. Collin Scott of Lisbon RD 1, has completed nine weeks of basic training at Great Lakes, Ill.

Army 1st Lt. John G. Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Griffith of 1869 Lisbon St., received the Silver Star for gallantry in action during recent ceremonies at his base in Vietnam.

He achieved the award for action last June while serving as artillery liaison officer with an infantry battalion on a reconnaissance in force mission north of Cai Lay when the unit engaged a Viet Cong force.

When the forward artillery observers attempted to call in for supporting artillery fire, their positions prevented radio contact, so Lt. Griffith boarded an observation helicopter "and from a hazardous altitude of only 100 meters above the battlefield, began to direct the artillery fire upon the enemy bunkers."

He also holds the Army Commendation Medal for heroism, the Air Medal and the Purple Heart. He entered the Army in February 1966 and arrived in Vietnam last November. He is assigned to Headquarters Battery, 1st Battalion, of the 9th Infantry Division's 11th Artillery. He is a 1964 graduate of East Liverpool High School.

One Town Picks Humphrey, Another Nixon In Early Vote

DIXVILLE NOTCH, N.H. (AP) — Dixville Notch, solidly Republican in the past, gave eight votes today to Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey and four to Richard M. Nixon.

The town of Ellsworth in the White Mountains, however, stayed in the Republican camp and its 11 registered voters cast ballots for Nixon.

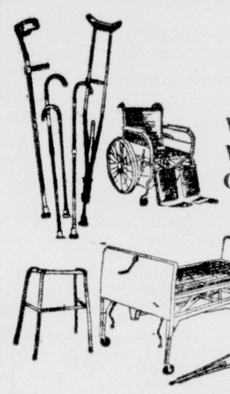

The two towns were among the first in the nation to count their presidential vote.

In 1960 Nixon collected all eight votes to which Dixville Notch, a town near the Canadian border, was then entitled. The makeup of the population has changed since then, however, with development of a new ski area bringing in some new families.

The voting at Dixville Notch was completed a few moments after midnight. Doughnuts and coffee helped to lure all the village's registered voters to the polling place some time before midnight, and when the polls officially opened at the stroke of 12 Town Moderator Nil Tillotson cast the first ballot and the others quickly followed.

New Hampshire law permits towns to set their own hours for opening the polls. They may be closed when every registered voter has cast a ballot.

Dixville Notch is in Coos County, one of the nation's bellwether counties. Coos has voted for the winner in every presidential election since 1884.

Council Given List

Changes Sought In Traffic Code

Council referred to tis ordinance committee Monday night 25 proposed changes in the city traffic code listed by Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey.

Some of the proposals represent innovations, but about two-thirds of the suggestions simply would bring the code into compliance with present - day practices, the director said in explaining his three - page letter to Council.

He asked creation of a parking meter zone on both the east and west sides of Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St. The block - long stretch was given a new blackstop surface as part of a summer street program. Previously it was a rough "washboard" of brick. The director also suggested establishment of one-way traffic, northbound only, on the same stretch of Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St.

He also asked addition of a parking meter zone on the south side of E. 4th St. between Cherry Alley and Union St. This would permit installation of meters in front of the former Central School building, now owned by the IBOP. Parking was banned in front of the building during class hours when the structure was used as a school. As a result, no meters are in place.

Vodrey called for a parking meter zone on the north side of E. 4th St. from Broadway to Walnut St. The unmetered stretch is opposite the former High School, which now is occupied by the Kent State Branch. He asked a metered zone on the south side of E. 4th St. from Apple Alley to Walnut St.

Many of the changes proposed by Vodrey would change the wording of the code to conform to conditions as they exist. Some traffic and parking changes have been set up on a 90-day trial basis, but never made official by amending the code.

HIS OTHER suggestions include:

Change provisions for stop signs at the River Rd. and Walnut St. and Broadway to "yield right-of-way" signs; set up no parking on the south side of 3rd St. from College St. to the Freeway; establish no parking zone on the west side of Jefferson St. from W. 6th St. to Rural Ln.; establish zones for "no stopping, standing or parking" on both sides of E. 5th St. from Broadway to Sugar St. and the east side of Broadway from E. 5th St. to E. 6th St.

Establish one - way traffic, northbound, on the east side of the Diamond from Diamond Alley to E. 6th St.; provide for parking meter zones on the east side of Dresden Ave. from 6th St. to Smith St. and from E. 8th St. to E. 9th St.; officially designate a parking meter zone on the west side of Market St. from 3rd St. to Summit Ln.

Establish a no parking zone on the east side of Union St. from E. 2nd St. to E. 3rd St. and on both sides of Back Alley from St. Clair Ave. to Almont St.; set up a stop sign at Erie St. and Dewey Ave. and a four - way stop at Sugar Alley and Pleasant Alley; provide for a ban on U turns on the Freeway at the east end of the divider strip.

Designate officially a parking ban on St. Clair Ave. beween 6th St. and Potters Alley, now used as a bus stop; add a stop sign at Grant St. and Peake St.

Some of the changes proposed on Market St. and Dresden Ave. date back to the time when Route 30 ran through the heart of the city — before the construction of the Freeway.

IN OTHER business, Council referred to the planning committee a letter from the Board of Public Utilities asking establishment of the post of utility supplyman at the water works plant at a salary of $462 monthly — the same rate paid the other operators. Signed by W. O. Schneider, chairman, the letter said the new appointee could be named to an operator's job if a vacancy occurred.

The claims committee was given a bill from Robert E. Carroll of 425 Morton St. asking for $10.95 for damage to his car when it hit a hole in the pavement on St. Clair Ave. Oct. 13.

The streets committee was asked to investigate a letter from Harry Wilson of 709 Bradshaw Ave. Wilson said he paid $39 into the city's low - cost street surfacing program with the understanding his street would be given an initial application of blacktop material, plus two more annual treatments. He said only the initial application was made.

Wilson said the city should apply the balance of the surfacing or refund to him two-thirds of the money he paid.

Queried by Council, Vodrey said the $39 represented the property owner's share of the first treatment. There was no contract for additional applications, he said. In the past, when the city applied additional surfacing material, it was done entirely at the expense of the municipality, he said.

Councilman Frank Duffy said the city would have had funds for the low - cost street program in 1968 but "you spent the money for something else."

ENGINEER George S. Bloomgren advised Council in caucus session he has prepared an estimate of $7,100 for contemplated work on Baxter St., including grading, placing of slag and "a minimal amount of drainage." He said the stretch has 1,200 feet of assessable frontage, which would make the cost per foot $6 if the city assesses the entire cost on the property owners. If core drillings are made to determine the nature of underground strata, another $100 should be added to the estimate, he said.

Bloomgren also advised Council that his office has completed plans for a sewer installation on the Sunset Dr. area of North Side. He said the plans will be given to the Board of Public Utilities within a few days — a prelude to calling for contractors' bids. Council approved a motion for the first enabling legislation — the so-called resolution of necessity.

The street committee was asked to investigate a suggestion from J. C. Mason of Maryland and Pennsylvania Aves. for installation of a treadle - type traffic signal at the junction of the two streets, which are adjacent to East Junior High School and East Elementary School.

Mason said establishment of new schools in the area has added greatly to the traffic volume. Motorists and school buses often have trouble pulling onto Pennsylvania Ave. from Maryland Ave. and there also is a hazard to pedestrians because of heavy traffic, he said.

Mason suggested installation of a light that would show a constant green signal to traffic on the thoroughfare except when an auto approaching on Maryland Ave. tripped a treadle. Such a signal has been used successfully on the western end of Midland Ave. in Midland for 12 years, he said.

Councilman Edward Massey, reporting for the streets committee, said he believes the Oakland Free Methodist Church should follow usual procedure and present a petition from owners of abutting property in support of its request for a new street light at Wedgewood and Etruria St. The first request for the light was received in October in a letter from a member of the church.

COUNCIL approved an amendment to the annual appropriation ordinance allocating $1,000 for gas and oil in the police department and $400 for incidental expenses in Municipal Court.

Councilman Floyd Murray asked installation of a stop sign on Wedgewood St. at Globe St. and a new street light on Monaca St. Both requests were referred to the street committee. Duffy asked that the street department be asked to sweep Palissey St.

Council man Donal I. Burcham, reporting for the franchise committee, said it is in the process of working out an agreement with a bus company to provide service that would haul youngsters from ne Mulberry St. area of East End and the Klondyke district to the East Junior High School and East Elementary Schools.

Parents would pay for the transportation, which would be provided for youngsters living less than a mile from the school and therefore not eligible to ride ordinary school buses, he explained. The transportation study was made at the request of an East End civic group.

Council prefaced its meeting with an hour - long public hearing on a request to change the zoning classification of the former Riggs Co. building on Dresden Ave.

The change was sought in order to clear the way for sale of the structure for use as a site for a service station.

Council took the request under advisement at the end of the hearing. It previously was turned down by the City Planning Commission. But Council also was required to hold a hearing, despite the Planning Commission's action.

Aunt Bee—A Lot More Than Competent

In a review of "Mayberry RFD" (the sequel series to the Andy Griffith Show) I committed the unpardonable sin of referring to "the competent assistance of Frances Bavier," who continues to play Aunt Bee.

Hal Humphrey

What I'd forgotten is that a word like "competent" is as distasteful to actors as the word "adequate" in describing their performance. They don't even like to be labeled as "real professionals."

"NOW IF YOU had said something like 'unique' or 'outstanding,' " says Miss Bavier, more or less good naturedly, "but 'competent'! That's just nothing."

Even though I meant it as praise, Miss Bavier is absolutely right. She deserves much more than the adjective competent for her work as Aunt Bee these eight years, going on nine. As she points out, her job is to take some quite corny situations and try not to make them "soap-opera-ish."

"But I will say that you brought me down to earth, so maybe it was for the best. I was beginning to think the success of the series must be me after nearly nine years," says Miss Bavier, showing her favorite Aunt Bee smile.

CERTAINLY Aunt Bee was and is an integral part of this success story, and Andy Griffith and the producers knew it. That's why they went to a lot of pains to get her to stay on for "Mayberry RFD."

Miss Bavier was thinking of quitting when Andy did, but they persuaded her to carry on with the new star, Ken Berry.

"Bob Ross, the producer, said to me, 'You're the backbone of the show,' which was almost as bad as your word 'competent,' " she recalls. "But finally it was flattery that convinced me to continue.

"I get more money, too, but the flattery did it. And I wouldn't have to touch wardrobe. It would all be picked for me, they said. Then Ken Berry himself came to me and said, 'Oh, please stay.' "

PRODUCER ROSS finally got her to say yes to doing four "Mayberry" episodes, but now they keep coming up with another "wonderful idea" for Aunt Bee, so she admits it looks as if she'll stay the season.

"I've been acting 45 years and it's a hard habit to break," she says. "Then I read that medical column about getting arteriosclerosis of the brain if you don't work, so here I am."

Miss Bavier has been playing these homespun Aunt Bee parts for a good piece of those 45 years. Many fans still remember her from the NBC series, "It's a Great Life," which had her as Amy Morgan, sister of James Dunn and housekeeper for him and his two ex-Army buddies played by Michael O'Shea and Bill Bishop.

HER MOVIE ROLES have had the same flavor, too, but on the stage early in her career Miss Bavier's talents had a much wider scope in which to operate.

"I remeber doing Arie in Paul Osborne's 'Mornings at 7,' which was a very meaty, subtle role. If I'd gone on in that direction, I might have been another Mildred Dunnock, but I must say this has been a darned lot more lucrative. I might have been a dedicated actress if I wasn't such a bargain hunter," she confesses.

Miss Bavier loves to buy things, at the right price. There's an Oriental rug on the set of "Mayberry" which she has her eye on, and if it doesn't eventually wind up in her apartment, I won't even call her competent.

YEARS AGO, Miss Bavier first came to Hollywood to do a movie called "The Lady Says No" with David Niven and Joan Caulfield. It was Niven who first coached her to "just speak to me in a conversational tone," which she had to learn after being on the stage.

After two more pictures, she returned to Broadway to do "Point of No Return" with Henry Fonda, but then she came back to Hollywood.

"I didn't quite trust this place at first, but it's been good to me," she says now.

Safer Speed Limit Sought

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Monday adopted a resolution requesting the director of highways to determine a reasonable and safe speed limit for a 5.87 - mile stretch of County Rd. 424 (the Y. & O. Rd.).

A reduction from the present 60-mile-an-hour limit is asked for 424 from U.S. Route 30 in Section 14 of Madison Township southeasterly to C.R. 425 (old Rt. 30 now identified as the East Liverpool Rd.)

County Engineer John Ursu said residents along the road petitioned for a reduction of the speed limit. Traffic consultants checked the road, Ursu said, and recommended a 40 - mile limit.

The consultants' survey and recommendation will be forwarded to the director, along with the petition and the commissioners' resolution.

In other business yesterday, the commissioners opened bids for equipment for the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children, which is nearing completion on the County Home farm.

Contracts will be awarded after approval of the bids by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The federal government gave $103,999 for the construction.

Council Given List

Changes Sought In Traffic Code

Council referred to tis ordinance committee Monday night 25 proposed changes in the city traffic code listed by Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey.

Some of the proposals represent innovations, but about two-thirds of the suggestions simply would bring the code into compliance with present - day practices, the director said in explaining his three - page letter to Council.

He asked creation of a parking meter zone on both the east and west sides of Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St. The block - long stretch was given a new blacktop surface as part of a summer street program. Previously it was a rough "washboard" of brick. The director also suggested establishment of one-way traffic, northbound only, on the same stretch of Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St.

He also asked addition of a parking meter zone on the south side of E. 4th St. between Cherry Alley and Union St. This would permit installation of meters in front of the former Central School building, now owned by the IBOP. Parking was banned in front of the building during class hours when the structure was used as a school. As a result, no meters are in place.

Vodrey called for a parking meter zone on the north side of E. 4th St. from Broadway to Walnut St. The unmetered stretch is opposite the former High School, which now is occupied by the Kent State Branch. He asked a metered zone on the south side of E. 4th St. from Apple Alley to Walnut St.

Many of the changes proposed by Vodrey would change the wording of the code to conform to conditions as they exist. Some traffic and parking changes have been set up on a 90-day trial basis, but never made official by amending the code.

HIS OTHER suggestions include:

Change provisions for stop signs at the River Rd. and Walnut St. and Broadway to "yield right-of-way" signs; set up no parking on the south side of 3rd St. from College St. to the Freeway; establish no parking zone on the west side of Jefferson St. from W. 6th St. to Rural Ln.; establish zones for "no stopping, standing or parking" on both sides of E. 5th St. from Broadway to Sugar St. and the east side of Broadway from E. 5th St. to E. 6th St.

Establish one - way traffic, northbound, on the east side of the Diamond from Diamond Alley to E. 6th St.; provide for parking meter zones on the east side of Dresden Ave. from 6th St. to Smith St. and from E. 8th St. to E. 9th St.; officially designate a parking meter zone on the west side of Market St. from 3rd St. to Summit Ln.

Establish a no parking zone on the east side of Union St. from E. 2nd St. to E. 3rd St. and on both sides of Back Alley from St. Clair Ave. to Almont St.; set up a stop sign at Erie St. and Dewey Ave. and a four - way stop at Sugar Alley and Pleasant Alley; provide for a ban on U turns on the Freeway at the east end of the divider strip.

Designate officially a parking ban on St. Clair Ave. beween 6th St. and Potters Alley, now used as a bus stop; add a stop sign at Grant St. and Peake St.

Some of the changes proposed on Market St. and Dresden Ave. date back to the time when Route 30 ran through the heart of the city — before the construction of the Freeway.

IN OTHER business, Council referred to the planning committee a letter from the Board of Public Utilities asking establishment of the post of utility supplyman at the water works plant at a salary of $462 monthly — the same rate paid the other operators. Signed by W. O. Schneider, chairman, the letter said the new appointee could be named to an operator's job if a vacancy occurred.

The claims committee was given a bill from Robert E. Carroll of 425 Morton St. asking for $10.95 for damage to his car when it hit a hole in the pavement on St. Clair Ave. Oct. 13.

The streets committee was asked to investigate a letter from Harry Wilson of 709 Bradshaw Ave. Wilson said he paid $39 into the city's low - cost street surfacing program with the understanding his street would be given an initial application of blacktop material, plus two more annual treatments. He said only the initial application was made.

Councilman Frank Duffy said the city would have had funds for the low - cost street program in 1968 but "you spent the money for something else."

Aunt Bee—A Lot More Than Competent

In a review of "Mayberry RFD" (the sequel series to the Andy Griffith Show) I committed the unpardonable sin of referring to "the competent assistance of Frances Bavier," who continues to play Aunt Bee.

Hal Humphrey

What I'd forgotten is that a word like "competent" is as distasteful to actors as the word "adequate" in describing their performance. They don't even like to be labeled as "real professionals."

"NOW IF YOU had said something like 'unique' or 'outstanding,' " says Miss Bavier, more or less good naturedly, "but 'competent'! That's just nothing."

Even though I meant it as praise, Miss Bavier is absolutely right. She deserves much more than the adjective competent for her work as Aunt Bee these eight years, going on nine. As she points out, her job is to take some quite corny situations and try not to make them "soap-opera-ish."

"But I will say that you brought me down to earth, so maybe it was for the best. I was beginning to think the success of the series must be me after nearly nine years," says Miss Bavier, showing her favorite Aunt Bee smile.

CERTAINLY Aunt Bee was and is an integral part of this success story, and Andy Griffith and the producers knew it. That's why they went to a lot of pains to get her to stay on for "Mayberry RFD."

Miss Bavier was thinking of quitting when Andy did, but they persuaded her to carry on with the new star, Ken Berry.

"Bob Ross, the producer, said to me, 'You're the backbone of the show,' which was almost as bad as your word 'competent,' " she recalls. "But finally it was flattery that convinced me to continue.

"I get more money, too, but the flattery did it. And I wouldn't have to touch wardrobe. It would all be picked for me, they said. Then Ken Berry himself came to me and said, 'Oh, please stay.' "

PRODUCER ROSS finally got her to say yes to doing four "Mayberry" episodes, but now they keep coming up with another "wonderful idea" for Aunt Bee, so she admits it looks as if she'll stay the season.

"I've been acting 45 years and it's a hard habit to break," she says. "Then I read that medical column about getting arteriosclerosis of the brain if you don't work, so here I am."

Miss Bavier has been playing these homespun Aunt Bee parts for a good piece of those 45 years. Many fans still remember her from the NBC series, "It's a Great Life," which had her as Amy Morgan, sister of James Dunn and housekeeper for him and his two ex-Army buddies played by Michael O'Shea and Bill Bishop.

HER MOVIE ROLES have had the same flavor, too, but on the stage early in her career Miss Bavier's talents had a much wider scope in which to operate.

"I remeber doing Arie in Paul Osborne's 'Mornings at 7,' which was a very meaty, subtle role. If I'd gone on in that direction, I might have been another Mildred Dunnock, but I must say this has been a darned lot more lucrative. I might have been a dedicated actress if I wasn't such a bargain hunter," she confesses.

Miss Bavier loves to buy things, at the right price. There's an Oriental rug on the set of "Mayberry" which she has her eye on, and if it doesn't eventually wind up in her apartment, I won't even call her competent.

YEARS AGO, Miss Bavier first came to Hollywood to do a movie called "The Lady Says No" with David Niven and Joan Caulfield. It was Niven who first coached her to "just speak to me in a conversational tone," which she had to learn after being on the stage.

After two more pictures, she returned to Broadway to do "Point of No Return" with Henry Fonda, but then she came back to Hollywood.

"I didn't quite trust this place at first, but it's been good to me," she says now.

Palestine Fills Patrolman Post

EAST PALESTINE — Mayor Robert Harding today announced appointment of Glenn R. Fulton of 267 Garfield Ave. to the police force.

Safer Speed Limit Sought

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Monday adopted a resolution requesting the director of highways to determine a reasonable and safe speed limit for a 5.87 - mile stretch of County Rd. 424 (the Y. & O. Rd.).

A reduction from the present 60-mile-an-hour limit is asked for 424 from U.S. Route 30 in Section 14 of Madison Township southeasterly to C.R. 425 (old Rt. 30 now identified as the East Liverpool Rd.)

County Engineer John Ursu said residents along the road petitioned for a reduction of the speed limit. Traffic consultants checked the road, Ursu said, and recommended a 40 - mile limit.

The consultants' survey and recommendation will be forwarded to the director, along with the petition and the commissioners' resolution.

In other business yesterday, the commissioners opened bids for equipment for the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children, which is nearing completion on the County Home farm.

Contracts will be awarded after approval of the bids by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The federal government gave $103,999 for the construction.

People Invade Pennsylvania Cemetery In Hunt For Ghost

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP) — People are invading Willow Dale Cemetery at night by the dozens in search of a ghost called Luke. But the police chief says he'll have to have a pay raise before he'll join any such chase.

"I've done a lot of reading on it," says Sue Aylward. "and it seems that it's possible, and I believe in anything that's possible until proven otherwise."

So far the last few nights, Sue and many others of all ages have invaded the cemetery looking for Luke, variously described as a white, slightly blurred figure floating about two feet above the ground or a man with a distinguished crop of iron gray hair wearing a blue suit with a boutonniere.

"You'd really be surprised if you were out there," says William Neatrour, police chief of Bradford Township.

"I sat out there and just watched. There were easily 50 people who came to look for this ghost. Two of them even had tape recorders," says Neatrour. "I tell them it's a hoax, and they just look at me and say they believe in ghosts."

Sue, a 16-year-old senior at Bradford High School, says she is one of the believers. Two nights ago, she and three of her girl friends went out to the cemetery on a cold, dark and snowy night.

Sitting on the steps of a mausoleum, they asked a ouija board, its surface illuminated by their car's headlights, questions about the ghost.

"We asked certain questions," says Sue, "Like: 'Would Mr. Luke come out again?' The answer was, 'Yes,' but it didn't disclose any time."

Sue says her friends have taken tape recorders to the cemetery and the tapes, when played back, contain ghostly screams.

Neatrour, who has heard the same tapes, says they are nonsense.

And says Neatrour, "If I've got to chase ghosts, then they better raise my pay."

Children read more for personal pleasure and information —aside from school books—than ever before. Since 1925 the number of new books and new editions for children have increased more than 400 per cent, according to the Encycopaedia Britannica.

COLOR IN DIAMONDS

Many of you, no doubt, have seen the DeBeers Consolidated Mines advertisements on diamonds in a few of your national magazines. They contain an excellent commentary on the meaning of color in diamonds and how it affects value.

As a member of the American Gem Society, we have long recognized the importance of this quality factor and have been most instrumental in developing grading standards for it. The use of the AGS Colorimeter and Master Diamonds for color grading are a few examples of this concern. Another is the AGS ruling against use of the term "blue white" when describing the color of a diamond.

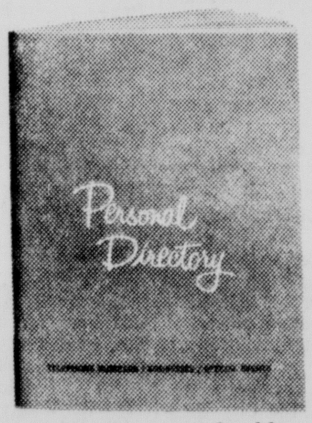

Member firms of the American Gem Society, like myself, are not allowed to use this term since it is so misleading to the consumer. Even the Federal Trade Commission recognizes this in their rulings for the jewelry industry. They say "it is an unfair trade practice to use this expression as descriptive of any diamond which under normal, north daylight or its equivalent, shows any color or trace of color other than blue or bluish." A diamond that would properly fit this definition would occur not more than once in 500 stones.

Diamonds commonly have a slight degree of yellow tint in their body color. It is the degree of this subtle shading that affects the gem's value. It is therefore possible to obtain a slightly larger stone, that grades lightly less than ideal (colorless) in color, and yet have a beautiful gem. The Cutting and Clarity factors then determine its value, also. Do come in and let us explain this point to you when you are shopping for your next diamond.

News Of Area Residents In Armed Forces

Army Spec. 6 William F. Dozier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Dozier of RD 3, is serving with the Army Forces Southern Command in the Panama Canal Zone. His wife, Mirta, is with him.

He is assigned to the 20th Infantry at Ft. Clayton as a first cook.

Seaman Apprentice James D. Higgins, son of Mrs. Collin Scott of Lisbon RD 1, has completed nine weeks of basic training at Great Lakes, Ill.

Army 1st Lt. John G. Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Griffith of 1869 Lisbon St., received the Silver Star for gallantry in action during recent ceremonies at his base in Vietnam.

He achieved the award for action last June while serving as artillery liaison officer with an infantry battalion on a reconnaissance in force mission north of Cai Lay when the unit engaged a Viet Cong force.

When the forward artillery observers attempted to call in for supporting artillery fire, their positions prevented radio contact, so Lt. Griffith boarded an observation helicopter "and from a hazardous altitude of only 100 meters above the battlefield, began to direct the artillery fire upon the enemy bunkers."

He also holds the Army Commendation Medal for heroism, the Air Medal and the Purple Heart. He entered the Army in February 1966 and arrived in Vietnam last November. He is assigned to Headquarters Battery, 1st Battalion, of the 9th Infantry Division's 11th Artillery. He is a 1964 graduate of East Liverpool High School.

One Town Picks Humphrey, Another Nixon In Early Vote

DIXVILLE NOTCH, N.H. (AP) — Dixville Notch, solidly Republican in the past, gave eight votes today to Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey and four to Richard M. Nixon.

The town of Ellsworth in the White Mountains, however, stayed in the Republican camp and its 11 registered voters cast ballots for Nixon.

The two towns were among the first in the nation to count their presidential vote.

In 1960 Nixon collected all eight votes to which Dixville Notch, a town near the Canadian border, was then entitled. The makeup of the population has changed since then, however, with development of a new ski area bringing in some new families.

The voting at Dixville Notch was completed a few moments after midnight. Doughnuts and coffee helped to lure all the village's registered voters to the polling place some time before midnight, and when the polls officially opened at the stroke of 12 Town Moderator Nil Tillotson cast the first ballot and the others quickly followed.

New Hampshire law permits towns to set their own hours for opening the polls. They may be closed when every registered voter has cast a ballot.

Beaver Local Board Buys Freezer Unit

The Bell Appliance Co. of East Liverpool was awarded the contract for the 10-by-12-foot freezer on a low bid of $4,737. Space for the storage of large amounts of government surplus food previously has been rented at Lisbon and at the Vernon Dell Dairy, Supt. Roy Cashdollar said, but these sites will no longer be available.

He said a ton of turkey is to be delivered for cafeteria use, and a cold storage unit is required.

In other action, the board approved three substitute bus drivers — Mrs. Arlene Clark of West Point, Mrs. Shirley Robinson of Grimms Bridge and Mrs. Shirley Smith of Rogers.

The men faculty members were granted permission to use the gym for basketball on Monday evenings.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 2. However, in the event plans are completed for proposed new classroom additions, a special meeting will be held to study the plans.

GOP Stands Good Chance To Widen Governor Edge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans, who have steadily increased their share of the nation's governorships in the last four elections, stand a good chance of widening the 26 to 24 margin they now hold over the Democrats.

Governors will be elected in 21 states. Democrats hold 13 of those seats, Republicans only eight.

Democrats in seven states are losing the usual advantage of having an incumbent governor standing for re-election. Two of the seven are running for the Senate, two are stepping down for personal reasons and three are barred by state law from succeeding themselves.

The lone Republican incumbent not running, Gov. Nils A. Boe of South Dakota, also is in the can't-run-again category.

In 1959-60, at the end of the Eisenhower administration, there were only 14 Republican governors—down from 30 in 1953-54. In the 29 states where there are no races for governor this year, the office is held in 11 by Democrats and in 18 by Republicans.

Several Democratic governors stepping out have national reputations. Harold E. Hughes of Iowa is running for the Senate. John Connally of Texas is going into private law practice after three terms. Philip H. Hoff of Vermont is stepping down for personal reasons after serving three two-year terms.

In New Hampshire, John King is running for the Senate. Roger D. Branigin of Indiana, Dan Moore of North Carolina and Hulett C. Smith can't run again.

States that are electing governors today for four year terms are Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Montana, North Carolina, Utah, Washington and West Virginia. Governors are being elected for two year terms in Arizona, Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont and Wisconsin.

In Arkansas, Winthrop Rockefeller seeks a second term as the state's first Republican governor since Reconstruction. And in Kansas, Democrat Robert Docking also is running for a second term in a traditionally Republican state where the only Democrat repeating as governor was his father, George Docking.

Republican Gov. Jack Williams of Arizona has as his opponent for a second term the man he ousted in 1966, Democrat Sam Goddard, who charges Williams' tax reforms favor big corporations.

In Delaware, Republican Russell W. Peterson said he would end the "fear and failure" that led Democratic Gov. Charles L. Terry to send National Guardsmen to quell rioting in Wilmington last April.

In Illinois, Democratic Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro and GOP opponent Richard B. Ogilvie vie over who can best maintain law and order, while both oppose a state income tax.

Hostility to taxes is also a feature of Indiana's Republican Campaign between Secretary of State Edgar D. Whitcomb and Democratic Lt. Gov. Robert L. Rock.

The Iowa GOP candidate, Robert D. Ray, charged in his campaign against Democratic State Treasurer Paul Franzenburg, that Democrats were spending the state into the red. Franzenburg denied it.

Democratic Gov. Robert Docking and GOP opponent Rick Harman in Kansas accused each other of favoring higher taxes.

In Missouri, Democratic Gov. Warren E. Hearnes boasted of improving education, attracting new industry and other programs, while Republican Lawrence K. Roos said the state still needs to catch up in those areas.

Both Democrat Emile R. Bussiere and Republican Walter R. Peterson opposed higher taxes in New Hampshire. Bussiere said he would veto any state income or sales taxes enacted by the GOP-controlled legislature, but Peterson refused to make such a promise.

The bid of Democrat Fabian Chavez to become New Mexico's first Spanish-name governor gave an ethnic tone to his effort to unseat GOP Gov. David F. Cargo.

Republican Robert P. McCarney argued in opposing North Dakota's Democratic Gov. William L. Guy that the state needs a governor of the same party as the GOP-controlled legislature.

In South Dakota, Democrat Robert Chamberlin proposed a state income tax to finance education while Republican Frank Farrar first opposed such a tax, then dropped the issue.

Jordan Fight Fatal To 16, 40 Wounded

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Armored cars and steel-helmeted troops today patrolled the streets of the Jordanian capital, still gripped by tension following widespread street fighting Monday in which 16 persons were reported killed and 40 wounded.

King Hussein clamped a heavy guard on his restive, divided country in an attempt to prevent further clashes between troops loyal to him and the Palestine guerrilla groups who have made his kingdom a base for terrorist operations against Israel.

All demonstrations were banned until further notice. An 18-hour curfew, between 4 p.m. and 10 a. m., was imposed.

The government announced the arrest of an undisclosed number of guerrilla leaders charged with responsibility for Monday's violence, the bloodiest confrontation so far between the army and the guerrilla groups demanding a free hand again Israel.

Tough Bedouins of the Arab Legion manned checkpoints at strategic intersections inside Amman. Patrol cars armed with Bren guns roared through the streets.

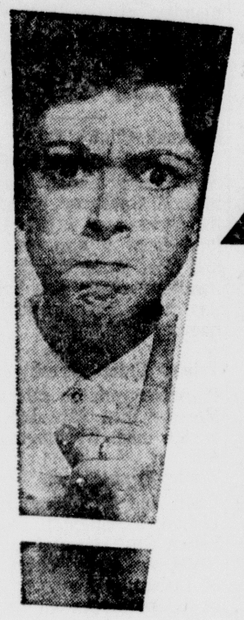

Several intersections still bore signs of the fighting. Army troops were tearing down stone barricades thrown up by guerrillas and demonstrators.

Telephone communications between Amman and neighboring Arab capitals were restored this morning.

For New Offices

Work Will Start On Taft Building

The renovation of the former Taft building for the new administrative offices of the East Liverpool school system will begin no later than next Monday, Architect Robert Beatty told board members Monday night.

Cost of the program has been set at $43,354.

Board Member William Blair, chairman of the building committee, said funds for the work will come from interest on the bond issue revenue which accumulated when the construction program of the new educational complex was delayed.

BEATTY reported that glass which had been broken and other damage caused by vandalism has been repaired at a cost of more than $1,000, with all but the glass covered by insurance.

It was pointed out that insurance can't be obtained against glass breakage, the cost being prohibitive.

Beatty said a few changes will have to be made as the result of an inspection by the state fire marshal's office.

Dampers already are installed in air vents, but the inspector requests inspection windows also. The total cost for these changes at North Elementary and the high school was estimated at $400.

A railing also has been ordered for the stage steps in the auditorium.

Although expressing concern that the items hadn't been included by the state in its original approval, the board approved the changes.

BIDS WILL be received for moving dirt and rough grading the field by the high school for a physical education, track, and football area.

Beatty also reported that the grand total cost of the new buildings, excluding the administration headquarters at Taft, was $5,573,761.

Board President Samuel Brown mentioned that the suppliers who have not made deliveres should be notified that they will be penalized. Beatty said all had been, except the library equipment supplier.

The contract for the library was let with the original contract, and the date specified was September, 1969. Therefore, it was pointed out, there is no violation of contract. Delivery has been promised in December.

In other business, Supt. Paul Blair announced that all schools will observe Veterans Day Monday.

The board approved rentals for Westgate for the East Liverpool Jaycees Miss Ohio Contest on May 2-3 and for the Delta Kappa Gamma Society of Columbiana County to use the high school cafeteria Nov. 12 from 6 to 9 p.m. for its fall meeting.

Since so many of the East Liverpool teachers belong to the society, the board approved rental for custodial and cafeteria help fees only. The Jaycees will pay $30 for Westgate for rehearsal and $75 for the event, plus custodial fees for both days.

THE BOARD accepted the resignation of Mrs. Jean E. Farnsworth of 920 St. George St., a cafeteria worker.

Brown will attend the Ohio School Board Association annual meeting in Columbus Nov. 12-14 as the board's delegate.

William Blair expressed concern over the snack bar at Westgate and East Junior. He commented, "I fail to see the reason for the need. I do not think we should offer candy and pop to the kids. If their parents want them to have it, they can give it to them at home. I just want the board to consider this."

The board will meet Thursday night to discuss the request from the custodians that the agreement reached with them be signed. A date will be set for meeting with the custodians.

Thieves Take $100, TV Set

Thieves escaped with a console color television set and $100 in cash in two incidents reported to police Monday afternoon and night. A Jethro home and a West End tool shed also were looted.

Floyd Robinson, resident of an apartment at 519½ Market St., told police three envelopes containing a total of $100 were taken from his room sometime between Friday afternoon and Monday night.

The apartment is over the Diamond Restaurant. The money was taken from Room 4, which is used as the office for room rentals, Robinson said. Tenants sometimes place their rent in envelopes and slip them under the door, he said. Officers said there is sufficient space underneath the door for someone to have inserted a wire and dragged out the envelopes. There was no sign of forcible entry.

Robert Frazer of 138 Broad St. told officers Monday afternoon an intruder took a color TV set from the livingroom at his home Sunday night or early yesterday. Entry was gained by forcing a basement door on the east side of the home. The TV set apparently was carried out the back door, officers said.

Richard E. Kruegel of Churchhill Rd., Lisbon, told police Monday night thieves looted a home which he owns at 720 Leonard St., Jethro, between Friday at 4 p.m. and 10 a.m. Monday. The thieves took a refrigerator, an electric stove and three overhead cabinets from the kitchen and a bed from a bedroom upstairs, he said.

John Melvin of 1076 Peake St. told officers Monday afternoon a thief pried a hasp off the door of a workshop on his property Saturday night or early Sunday and took an alcohol - fueled torch, wire cutters and a hammer. The torch was found later about 200 yards south of the Melvin residence and returned to the owner, officers said.

2 Escapees From W. Va. Pen Arrested

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Two escapees from the prison at Moundsville, W. Va., were arrested near here Monday night on robbery charges following a shooting, state police said.

A third man is being sought.

Held were Elmer Robinson, 39, and Arthur Sucik, 26, police said.

Police said the arrests were made after three men entered a migrant labor camp late Monday afternoon and robbed two men. Both reportedly were beaten with a rifle and had their wallets stolen.

In addition, one of the victims, Billy Dickson, 58, suffered a wound above the right eye from a 22-caliber rifle.

Police said they were called to the rural home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rosenberry who said they had disarmed two men. They were turned over to police.

Robinson and Sucik escaped with two other men Oct. 31 by cutting their way through the prison's front wall and dashing across the prison yard unnoticed.

The other escapees were identified as George Edward Brown, 38, of White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., and Dale Gordon, 21, of Fairmont, W.Va.

LISBON — Gregg Ramsey, owner of the Wright Buffing Wheel Co., S. Market St., notified Chief of Police Leon T. Zahrndt this morning that someone threw a large stone through his office window during the night. The chief said the stone broke a 36-by-40-inch window and struck the opposite wall.

Rogers Council Purchases $850 Salt Spreader Device

ROGERS — An new $850 salt spreader was purchased by Council Monday night from the Our Equipment Co. of Salineville.

The attachment to the village truck is to be delivered within three weeks, it was announced.

Washing away of sections of berm along Route 7 in recent rains was discussed. It was decided to tar the sections to hold the ground during the winter, and to blacktop it next spring.

Bills amounting to $399 were paid. Mayor Glenn Rhodes reported the County Health Department has directed the closing of the village dump by Jan. 1 because it does not meet the new state standards.

A private refuse hauling firm is serving the village and area, but not all the residents are utilizing the service, it was explained by village authorities.

Everett Galbreath of Highland Ave. filed a request of widening of College St. to its dedicated width of 40 feet to permit passage of two cars. It currently is about 25 feet wide. Councilmen agreed the project would be undertaken when funds are available.

Mayor Rhodes reported an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. official had discussed with him tentative plans for adding Rogers area toll free to the East Liverpool exchange in the near future.

Councilmen voiced opinions against the plan, stating the majority of residents do business wih the Columbiana, Lisbon or Salem districts.

Mayor Rhodes said residents with legitimate complaints should attend Council meetings the first Monday of each month or write letters to Councilmen. He said the proper channel for complaints is not with the mayor but with all of Council or individual Councilmen.

Fall cleanup days were scheduled for Nov. 16 and Nov. 23.

The next meeting will be Dec. 2.

Changes Sought In Traffic Code

Council referred to tis ordinance committee Monday night 25 proposed changes in the city traffic code listed by Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey.

Some of the proposals represent innovations, but about two-thirds of the suggestions simply would bring the code into compliance with present - day practices, the director said in explaining his three - page letter to Council.

He asked creation of a parking meter zone on both the east and west sides of Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St. The block - long stretch was given a new blackstop surface as part of a summer street program. Previously it was a rough "washboard" of brick. The director also suggested establishment of one way traffic, northbound only, on the same stretch of Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St.

He also asked addition of a parking meter zone on the south side of E. 4th St. between Cherry Alley and Union St. This would permit installation of meters in front of the former Central School building, now owned by the IBOP. Parking was banned in front of the building during class hours when the structure was used as a school. As a result, no meters are in place.

Vodrey called for a parking meter zone on the north side of E. 4th St. from Broadway to Walnut St. The unmetered stretch is opposite the former High School, which now is occupied by the Kent State Branch. He asked a metered zone on the south side of E. 4th St. from Apple Alley to Walnut St.

Many of the changes proposed by Vodrey would change the wording of the code to conform to conditions as they exist. Some traffic and parking changes have been set up on a 90-day trial basis, but never made official by amending the code.

HIS OTHER suggestions include:

Change provisions for stop signs at the River Rd. and Walnut St. and Broadway to "yield right-of-way" signs; set up no parking on the south side of 3rd St. from College St. to the Freeway; establish no parking zone on the west side of Jefferson St. from W. 6th St. to Rural Ln.; establish zones for "no stopping, standing or parking" on both sides of E. 5th St. from Broadway to Sugar St. and the east side of Broadway from E. 5th St. to E. 6th St.

Establish one - way traffic, northbound, on the east side of the Diamond from Diamond Alley to E. 6th St.; provide for parking meter zones on the east side of Dresden Ave. from 6th St. to Smith St. and from E. 8th St. to E. 9th St.; officially designate a parking meter zone on the west side of Market St. from 3rd St. to Summit Ln.

Establish a no parking zone on the east side of Union St. from E. 2nd St. to E. 3rd St. and on both sides of Back Alley from St. Clair Ave. to Almont St.; set up a stop sign at Erie St. and Dewey Ave. and a four - way stop at Sugar Alley and Pleasant Alley; provide for a ban on U turns on the Freeway at the east end of the divider strip.

Designate officially a parking ban on St. Clair Ave. beween 6th St. and Potters Alley, now used as a bus stop; add a stop sign at Grant St. and Peake St.

Some of the changes proposed on Market St. and Dresden Ave. date back to the time when Route 30 ran through the heart of the city — before the construction of the Freeway.

IN OTHER business, Council referred to the planning committee a letter from the Board of Public Utilities asking establishment of the post of utility supplyman at the water works plant at a salary of $462 monthly — the same rate paid the other operators. Signed by W. O. Schneider, chairman, the letter said the new appointee could be named to an operator's job if a vacancy occurred.

The claims committee was given a bill from Robert E. Carroll of 425 Morton St. asking for $10.95 for damage to his car when it hit a hole in the pavement on St. Clair Ave. Oct. 13.

The streets committee was asked to investigate a letter from Harry Wilson of 709 Bradshaw Ave. Wilson said he paid $39 into the city's low - cost street surfacing program with the understanding his street would be given an initial application of blacktop material, plus two more annual treatments. He said only the initial application was made.

Wilson said the city should apply the balance of the surfacing or refund to him two-thirds of the money he paid.

Queried by Council, Vodrey said the $39 represented the property owner's share of the first treatment. There was no contract for additional applications, he said. In the past, when the city applied additional surfacing material, it was done entirely at the expense of the municipality, he said.

Councilman Frank Duffy said the city would have had funds for the low - cost street program in 1968 but "you spent the money for something else."

ENGINEER George S. Bloomgren advised Council in caucus session he has prepared an estimate of $7,100 for contemplated work on Baxter St., including grading, placing of slag and "a minimal amount of drainage." He said the stretch has 1,200 feet of assessable frontage, which would make the cost per foot $6 if the city assesses the entire cost on the property owners. If core drillings are made to determine the nature of underground strata, another $100 should be added to the estimate, he said.

Bloomgren also advised Council that his office has completed plans for a sewer installation on the Sunset Dr. area of North Side. He said the plans will be given to the Board of Public Utilities within a few days — a prelude to calling for contractors' bids. Council approved a motion for the first enabling legislation — the so-called resolution of necessity.

The street committee was asked to investigate a suggestion from J. C. Mason of Maryland and Pennsylvania Aves. for installation of a treadle - type traffic signal at the junction of the two streets, which are adjacent to East Junior High School and East Elementary School.

Mason said establishment of new schools in the area has added greatly to the traffic volume. Motorists and school buses often have trouble pulling onto Pennsylvania Ave. from Maryland Ave. and there also is a hazard to pedestrians because of heavy traffic, he said.

Mason suggested installation of a light that would show a constant green signal to traffic on the thoroughfare except when an auto approaching on Maryland Ave. tripped a treadle. Such a signal has been used successfully on the western end of Midland Ave. in Midland for 12 years, he said.

Councilman Edward Massey, reporting for the streets committee, said he believes the Oakland Free Methodist Church should follow usual procedure and present a petition from owners of abutting property in support of its request for a new street light at Wedgewood and Etruria St. The first request for the light was received in October in a letter from a member of the church.

COUNCIL approved an amendment to the annual appropriation ordinance allocating $1,000 for gas and oil in the police department and $400 for incidental expenses in Municipal Court.

Councilman Floyd Murray asked installation of a stop sign on Wedgewood St. at Globe St. and a new street light on Monaca St. Both requests were referred to the street committee. Duffy asked that the street department be asked to sweep Palissey St.

Council man Donal I. Burcham, reporting for the franchise committee, said it is in the process of working out an agreement with a bus company to provide service that would haul youngsters from ne Mulberry St. area of East End and the Klondyke district to the East Junior High School and East Elementary Schools.

Parents would pay for the transportation, which would be provided for youngsters living less than a mile from the school and therefore not eligible to ride ordinary school buses, he explained. The transportation study was made at the request of an East End civic group.

Council prefaced its meeting with an hour - long public hearing on a request to change the zoning classification of the former Riggs Co. building on Dresden Ave.

The change was sought in order to clear the way for sale of the structure for use as a site for a service station.

Council took the request under advisement at the end of the hearing. It previously was turned down by the City Planning Commission. But Council also was required to hold a hearing, despite the Planning Commission's action.

Aunt Bee—A Lot More Than Competent

In a review of "Mayberry RFD" (the sequel series to the Andy Griffith Show) I committed the unpardonable sin of referring to "the competent assistance of Frances Bavier," who continues to play Aunt Bee.

Hal Humphrey

What I'd forgotten is that a word like "competent" is as distasteful to actors as the word "adequate" in describing their performance. They don't even like to be labeled as "real professionals."

"NOW IF YOU had said something like 'unique' or 'outstanding,'" says Miss Bavier, more or less good naturedly, "but 'competent'! That's just nothing."

Even though I meant it as praise, Miss Bavier is absolutely right. She deserves much more than the adjective competent for her work as Aunt Bee these eight years, going on nine. As she points out, her job is to take some quite corny situations and try not to make them "soap-opera-ish."

"But I will say that you brought me down to earth, so maybe it was for the best. I was beginning to think the success of the series must be me after nearly nine years," says Miss Bavier, showing her favorite Aunt Bee smile.

CERTAINLY Aunt Bee was and is an integral part of this success story, and Andy Griffith and the producers knew it. That's why they went to a lot of pains to get her to stay on for "Mayberry RFD."

Miss Bavier was thinking of quitting when Andy did, but they persuaded her to carry on with the new star, Ken Berry.

"Bob Ross, the producer, said to me, 'You're the backbone of the show,' which was almost as bad as your word 'competent,'" she recalls. "But finally it was flattery that convinced me to continue.

"I get more money, too, but the flattery did it. And I wouldn't have to touch wardrobe. It would all be picked for me, they said. Then Ken Berry himself came to me and said, 'Oh, please stay.'"

PRODUCER ROSS finally got her to say yes to doing four "Mayberry" episodes, but now they keep coming up with another "wonderful idea" for Aunt Bee, so she admits it looks as if she'll stay the season.

"I've been acting 45 years and it's a hard habit to break," she says. "Then I read that medical column about getting arteriosclerosis of the brain if you don't work, so here I am."

Miss Bavier has been playing these homespun Aunt Bee parts for a good piece of those 45 years. Many fans still remember her from the NBC series, "It's a Great Life," which had her as Amy Morgan, sister of James Dunn and housekeeper for him and his two ex-Army buddies played by Michael O'Shea and Bill Bishop.

HER MOVIE ROLES have had the same flavor, too, but on the stage early in her career Miss Bavier's talents had a much wider scope in which to operate.

"I remeber doing Arie in Paul Osborne's 'Mornings at 7,' which was a very meaty, subtle role. If I'd gone on in that direction, I might have been another Mildred Dunnock, but I must say this has been a darned lot more lucrative. I might have been a dedicated actress if I wasn't such a bargain hunter," she confesses.

Miss Bavier loves to buy things, at the right price. There's an Oriental rug on the set of "Mayberry" which she has her eye on, and if it doesn't eventually wind up in her apartment, I won't even call her competent.

YEARS AGO, Miss Bavier first came to Hollywood to do a movie called "The Lady Says No" with David Niven and Joan Caulfield. It was Niven who first coached her to "just speak to me in a conversational tone," which she had to learn after being on the stage.

After two more pictures, she returned to Broadway to do "Point of No Return" with Henry Fonda, but then she came back to Hollywood.

"I didn't quite trust this place at first, but it's been good to me," she says now.

Palestine Fills Patrolman Post

EAST PALESTINE — Mayor Robert Harding today announced appointment of Glenn R. Fulton of 267 Garfield Ave. to the police force.

Fulton, 25, now employed as a serviceman with IBM at Youngstown, will replace Jack Straley, who resigned from the department. Fulton, one of three men who passed the Civil Service Commission examination in August, will work part time until Nov. 15, when he will begin regular duties.

Safer Speed Limit Sought

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Monday adopted a resolution requesting the director of highways to determine a reasonable and safe speed limit for a 5.87 - mile stretch of County Rd. 424 (the Y. & O. Rd.).

A reduction from the present 60-mile-an-hour limit is asked for 424 from U.S. Route 30 in Section 14 of Madison Township southeasterly to C.R. 425 (old Rt. 30 now identified as the East Liverpool Rd.)

County Engineer John Ursu said residents along the road petitioned for a reduction of the speed limit. Traffic consultants checked the road, Ursu said, and recommended a 40 - mile limit.

The consultants' survey and recommendation will be forwarded to the director, along with the petition and the commissioners' resolution.

In other business yesterday, the commissioners opened bids for equipment for the Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children, which is nearing completion on the County Home farm.

Contracts will be awarded after approval of the bids by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The federal government gave $103,999 for the construction.

Sex Classes To Continue Under 'Mixed' Plan Here

with Kathryn Liebschner, clerk, if anyone wishes to see them.

Vincent Chronister of 350 Hill St., the first to speak, said he is against the program as it is being taught, and asked, "What qualifications does the teacher have?"

Assistant Supt. Carl Pelini said Mrs. Donna Wilson was certificated and was a physical education major. In answer to a specific question as to whether or not she had studied sociology, Pelini said she had.

Chronister continued, "I would like to know why the parents and people involved were not notified it was not a compulsory course." Pelini replied, "When they first signed up, we allowed parents to withdraw the children."

Chronister than asked, "Why are mixed classes necessary? Has the program proven to be helpful in anyway. Has it prevented girls from becoming pregnant?

Pelini said he did not have material in his pocket, but would show Mr. Chronister material he had relative to the course. Chronister said Pittsburgh schools have had a program for several years, but with separate classes. "If a city of that size has them separated, why do we have them mixed?"

Pelini answered, "I can show you even larger districts that do have classes together."

LEE WHITE of 1248 Sunnyside Ave. spoke in opposition. He said he has resided in East Liverpool all his life and attended school here. "I have four girls and two boys, with four children in school. So far I have been satisfied—up until now. I can't agree with mixed classes. They should have separate classes with a male instructor for boys and a female instructor for girls.

"I don't think any woman sitting in here can tell me what my first sex experience felt like, and I don't feel any female can tell my 10-year-old son what to expect. I don't think you will get much open discussion from the girls about it, and I hope not. We read the book and I was embarrassed to discuss some of it with my wife.

"There are three things separating us from being animals. They are a chain of embarrassment, modesty, and morality. A chain is only as strong as its weakest link.

"If they are taught not to be embarrassed, the next thing, they will lose modesty. Then, lose morality. What I say for the future has been true in the past. Moral standards have dropped. There isn't anyone here to say this has been good for our country."

White concluded, "In some parts of the country they want integrated rest rooms. Why not? This is the next step."

ROBERT BARTRAM of Olhausen St., spokesman for the group which demonstrated in front of Westgate School last week said, "I am for sex education. I want to commend the board of education for having this meeting like this. I have heard this isn't proper, but we still live in a free country.

"Many things have been said on this issue. Basically, I am against mixed classes. I ask you once again to separate classes. Get the kids back in school.

"Many influential people are speaking out for this program in total as it is, but a doctor is only a human being sometimes guilty of a bad diagnosis.

"Consider their opinions, but consider ours also. We have split the community with this issue — churchmen against churchmen—educators against educators — neighbor against neighbor. We will always wonder who is right and who is wrong. We want education. We know it is needed. Morality, modesty and gutter language will always be. But if I let this go on, I would diminish in the eyes of my children. As average middle class, look to us for guidance, also."

MRS. DONALD Boso of 1006 Dresden Ave. complained that obscene language was being used in the class. "Some words I consider just plain swear words," she said, "but others are obscene." She objected to four-letter words that were used.

"Are my kids going to have to sit and listen in the class? These girls know they are developing, but don't want boys to look at them and discuss this part of growing.

"I bought a book at the Bible Store which says a mother should talk to her daughter and a father to his son. I would be ashamed if my daughter used these words on the streets."

Mrs. Roy Sweezy of 1252 Sunnyside Ave. asked if it would be possible for parents to see the movies on sex education.

"If we do not see these movies, we are not sure what the children are shown. If it is true what they are being shown. I don't believe my 14-year-old daughter would want to see these. I think they should be shown to parents.

"I was at the parent-teacher association meetings when sex education was discussed, and I was for it, but wasn't shown any movies.

"School has enough problems with children today, and children don't want to be different from the crowd. I would like to see the movies myself and I am making a request these movies be shown to all parents so they can see what the children are being taught."

He said he was speaking as a father of two, as a husband who has learned the full meaning of sex, as a minister and as a certificated teacher in secondary education.

"I have had the privilege of reading the book in question. Now I want to react to the comments given here tonight.

"How can you measure the value of results of such a course? How do you go about measuring — years will tell. The kind of concepts picked up in a course have far more value than counting pregnancies. You have to measure the amount of anxiety or self-satisfaction and knowledge and freedom of anxiety and tension.

"How do you measure how they feel about themselves? How do you measure degree of adjustment to life? How do you measure whether or not this couple has learned how to plan their family, not just whether or not they learn how not to get pregnant out of wedlock?

"I challenge anyone to try to measure.

"A husband and wife learn to communicate about each other. There is nothing in the book I would be embarrassed to discuss with my wife. This course will enable the kind of communication that is needed in marriage. If you can measure these kinds of values, you can measure this program.

"About not being informed the course was not compulsory — there are other things not compulsory that you wouldn't want to advertise. We do not want to advertise no prayer in schools and that it is not compulsory to stay there while there is one. You would rather no one knew about this. It is not compulsory to salute the flag of the United States, but we do not want to advertise this.

"It is not in good taste to let it be known until someone wants to withdraw."

Rev. Shipley continued, "We are in a sex environment. All our life is sexual — you can't escape it. No one is denying the vital role of parents. This is simply to supplement. I don't for a minute want to feel no more responsibility.

"As to morality — the book doesn't try to demoralize. To learn the facts of life will not make an adultress. The book says, 'Your sense of right and wrong is really your conscience.' There is room for parents to teach morals.

"I have taught sex education from a much more complex book than this. I was dismayed at the course because it was so small an endeavor. I am glad to see this same kind of education can be made available on a broader base so more can be taught."

The minister concluded, "I strongly favor what the school board is doing and hope it will continue with the same."

VICKIE LANE, president of the Junior Women's Club, said, "We fully endorse the program of sex education. I have letters here from doctors and a statement. This letter is for your file endorsing the program. I also have a letter from East Palestine where they have had the program successfully for two years starting in the fifth and sixth grades."

Mrs. Ginger Hile of Windsor Dr. said, "You have chosen a very fine program for our children. As board members, you know there is a need for this. There is nothing in the book that incites lust. There is a good deal more in movies, books and television that does incite lust.

"This education is the biggest need in our society today. The kids know that there are people who do care. I'd rather have my children in class than out somewhere at a drive-in movie or at Beaver Creek or somewhere like that discussing it."

MRS. MERRY Ann Darrah of 718 Midway Ln., president of the East Liverpool Jaycee-ettes, said their board of directors felt it essential to meet and conduct a poll "on this very important subject." A telephone poll was taken, with a majority "in favor of sex education classes as now being taught in our schools."

—:—

THE REV. John Skelbred, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, pointed out he attended several meetings and heard both sides.

"I think the children in our school system have a greater respect for each other than we appreciate. The problem is of parents being embarrassed, not our children, because this is a new and strange thing that has come to our society.

"If I would need a lawyer, I would go to one. If I would need a pediatrician, I would go to one and wouldn't tell him what to prescribe. The school board and administrators realized the ramifications and studied this thing through, and I accept their judgment.

"I hope they will continue. I speak as a citizen, not as a representative of my denomination. Also, as a Christian."

JOHN SCALES of Homestead Dr. said he is the father of four children, the oldest of whom will be in junior high next year. He told of the tribal people of the South Sea Islands, who could not understand the missionaries when they talked about obscenity, because they do not have any.

"They need no police — have no crime. They are so healthy in their mental attitude.

"There are no physical attacks, no rape. We need emphasis on this sex education program mixed so all can get the same class of instruction at the same time.

"If segregated, there still leaves the problem of wandering around in the halls and finding out what each learned today. Co-educationally is the only way to get about it. The children respect each other—have new respect for their parents. Not necessarily in the physical sense, but in all other areas.

"When I talked with Mr. Pelini, he indicated that there were no funds to start in grade one. That is too bad. Grade one is the obvious place to start."

ROBERT WILLIAMS of Lisbon St., the final parent to speak, said, "I don't believe some of the mothers would like to take this movie in their own home and show it to their children.

"Some organizations go on file as supporting the program. Did their members read this book or know anything about this program. I don't believe this is really a point here. As far as influential people go, their word should not mean anything more than ours.

"Some don't have children. We have love for our children and try to teach them as best we know how.

"As for movies, we can keep our children from going to these things.

"We have gained some attention by being in front of Westgate. Some children hadn't taken the book home. Some were ashamed and did not want their parents to read the book, maybe because they can't communicate with their parents.

"We need sex education. I want to go on record as saying that Pelini said that if we have to do without mixed classes, we will not have it at all. Of course, there would be problems in changing classes, but I think it should be worked out.

"White then asked if he could add one more thought. He said he was not against a sex education program. I think it should be started in the first grade. But the book needs to be watered down. If mixed classes continue, I will withdraw my children."

BOARD President Brown then urged that those present read the Nov. 1 issue of Life magazine and the current issue of the Reader's Digest, and referred to certain topics. Brown said these are accepted magazines in probably 75 per cent of the homes.

He added that he did not want to be misquoted as he was after the last board meeting when the board was supposed to have said it would return a decision on Friday. Also, he said a statement in a "Letter to the Editor" in The Review quoted him as saying that no one has read the book. This is false — our teachers and committee read the book, and who else should read it?

"Therefore, this board will issue a statement to the press and radio, that will be available tomorrow."

After a discussion, the board instead issued the statement last night to the effect that the program would continue.

After the statement was agreed upon, William Blair, a board member, reiterated that no child or parent would be penalized if the child was removed from the class. He also pointed out again that board members and the administration will watch the course to make sure proper communication exists between the teacher and the children.

He commented that he hopes the parents also will be as interested in math, reading, etc., as in this program.

Kapp Selects R. L. Simpson

Robert L. Simpson, associated in law practice with Ben H. Berman, has been appointed assistant city solicitor to replace Jackman S. Vodrey, resigned. Solicitor J. Michael Kapp announced to Council Monday night.

Kapp made the announcement in seeking ratification of the appointment by Council. His appointment for the $3,150-a-year post was approved unanimously. Vodrey submitted his resignation, effective Monday, because of the press of other business. He had been Kapp's assistant since Jan. 1.

Simpson has been associated with Berman since March 4. The 29-year-old native of Cincinnati was graduated from the University of Cincinnati Law School in 1964 and was admitted to the Ohio bar the same year. He did his undergraduate work at Xavier University, also in Cincinnati.

Simpson served three and a half years in the Navy as a law specialist. He was stationed in Washington., Charleston, S. C., and Trinidad in the West Indies. He was released from active duty Feb. 23. Simpson and his wife, the former Janette MacMeechan of Scotland, reside on the Westfield Rd. They have a daughter, Mary Ann.

Kapp told Council his new assistant will serve primarily as prosector of criminal cases in Municipal Court. Kapp formerly served as prosecutor. He said the new arrangement will allow him to devote more time to city business, including his work as adviser to Council and municipal officials.

People Invade Pennsylvania Cemetery In Hunt For Ghost

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP) — People are invading Willow Dale Cemetery at night by the dozens in search of a ghost called Luke. But the police chief says he'll have to have a pay raise before he'll join any such chase.

"I've done a lot of reading on it," says Sue Aylward, "and it seems that it's possible, and I believe in anything that's possible until proven otherwise."

So far the last few nights, Sue and many others of all ages have invaded the cemetery looking for Luke, variously described as a white, slightly blurred figure floating about two feet above the ground or a man with a distinguished crop of iron gray hair wearing a blue suit with a boutonniere.

"You'd really be surprised if you were out there," says William Neatrour, police chief of Bradford Township.

"I sat out there and just watched. There were easily 50 people who came to look for this ghost. Two of them even had tape recorders," says Neatrour. "I tell them it's a hoax, and they just look at me and say they believe in ghosts."

Sue, a 16-year-old senior at Bradford High School, says she is one of the believers. Two nights ago, she and three of her girl friends went out to the cemetery on a cold, dark and snowy night.

Sitting on the steps of a mausoleum, they asked a ouija board, its surface illuminated by their car's headlights, questions about the ghost.

"We asked certain questions," says Sue, "Like: 'Would Mr. Luke come out again?' The answer was, 'Yes,' but it didn't disclose any time."

Sue says her friends have taken tape recorders to the cemetery and the tapes, when played back, contain ghostly screams.

Neatrour, who has heard the same tapes, says they are nonsense.

And says Neatrour, "If I've got to chase ghosts, then they better raise my pay."

Children read more for personal pleasure and information—aside from school books—than ever before. Since 925 the number of new books and new editions for children have increased more than 400 per cent, according to the Encycopaedia Britannica.

COLOR IN DIAMONDS

Many of you, no doubt, have seen the DeBeers Consolidated Mines advertisements on diamonds in a few of your national magazines. They contain an excellent commentary on the meaning of color in diamonds and how it affects value.

As a member of the American Gem Society, we have long recognized the importance of this quality factor and have been most instrumental in developing grading standards for it. The use of the AGS Colorimeter and Master Diamonds for color grading are a few examples of this concern. Another is the AGS ruling against use of the term "blue white" when describing the color of a diamond.

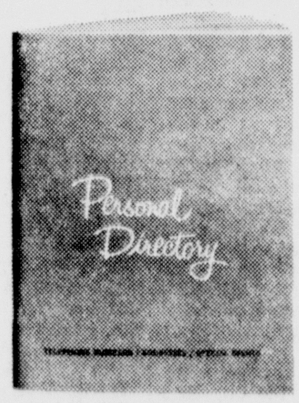

Member firms of the American Gem Society, like myself, are not allowed to use this term since it is so misleading to the consumer. Even the Federal Trade Commission recognizes this in their rulings for the jewelry industry. They say "it is an unfair trade practice to use this expression as descriptive of any diamond which under normal, north daylight or its equivalent, shows any color or trace of color other than blue or bluish." A diamond that would properly fit this definition would occur not more than once in 500 stones.

Diamonds commonly have a slight degree of yellow tint in their body color. It is the degree of this subtle shading that affects the gem's value. It is therefore possible to obtain a slightly larger stone, that grades lightly less than ideal (colorless) in color, and yet have a beautiful gem. The Cutting and Clarity factors then determine its value, also. Do come in and let us explain this point to you when you are shopping for your next diamond.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Moving The Easy Way

DEAR HELOISE: Moving day is an awful chore, but I have found a way to lighten it, at least for local moves.

Heloise

Use sturdy shopping bags instead of cartons!

When I moved from an upstairs apartment to a house across town, I stood at the head of the stairway on my way to the grocery for the usual empty cartons to pack things in. Suddenly, I thought about struggling down those steep stairs with heavy cartons.

So instead of using the cartons, I bought a number of shopping bags. They were inexpensive and wonderful. I could carry two bags in either hand, each holding as much as one carton that would have required both my arms.

For a local, do-it-yourself move, the bags do not have to be so carefully packed because you know what is in them. They ride easily on the seat, floor or in your car trunk.

And when you arrive at your new home, you can set them down in each room where you intend to unpack them. As fast as they are unpacked they can be folded and put away clearing your litter.

The ones you haven't time to get at can be set in a corner or behind the door out of sight.

One warning — just don't overload.

Another thing, be sure to have enough. I ran out and had to use two or three cartons in the end and realized how much more convenient the shopping bags are. Happy moving!

DOROTHY E. CURTIS.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know if you sprinkle waxed paper with powdered sugar when wrapping a piece of frsoted cake for your child's or husband's lunch, it will prevent the frosting from sticking to the paper?

MOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: We have an electric clock-radio with an appliance outlet which we keep in the bedroom. . .

It's so much more pleasant to get up on dark winter mornings if we plug in a small lamp.

MARJ MARSHALL

DEAR HELOISE: From a tired-out velveteen maternity suit, I made a smart 3-piece outfit by taking out the sleeves and making the flared jacket straight. From the excess material, I put a new panel in front of the skirt to replace the former "hole."

I just added a pretty long-sleeved blouse and now have a new dress-up suit!

MRS. WASNIDGE.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I am a waitress. One day, a customer with a large protuding tummy kept losing his napkin.

He had a nice tie clip on, so I used it to attach his napkin to his tie.

No more trouble.

I told him I would give this handy hint to you and he just laughed.

MRS. W. J. SHVOROT.

So did I.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I have what I think is a good idea for the new high boots you see so much of now.

When I am not wearing mine, I don't like them to just fold over, so I roll up several thicknesses of newspaper and put them down in the boots.

JOAN AMMERMAN.

DEAR HELOISE: I love pistachios, but every time I eat them I break a finger nail. So now I use small manicure scissors that are no longer my best pair, insert the point in the crack and spread the nuts apart as I open up the scissors.

It works fast and, best of all, I don't end up with red and sore fingers.

ELVERA.

Ex-Convict Hunted In Slaying Of 4

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Richard Tingler, the 28-year-old ex-convict charged in the hold-up slaying of two Columbus teen-agers, is being sought in connection with a quadruple slaying here Sept. 16.

Cleveland Detective Sgt. Victor Kovacic said a warrant charging first-degree murder would be issued today on the strength of ballistics comparisons in the two cases.

He said 9-millimeter bullets and fragments recovered from the Oct. 20th slayings at a Lawson Milk Co. store in Columbus came from one of the guns used in the Rockefeller Park killings.

Columbus police also have a warrant charging the onetime department store employe with first-degree murder.

They believe Tingler, said to be a native of Piqua, (Miami County) in southwestern Ohio, still may be in the Cleveland area.

Cleveland police said he was living on this city's East Side when his abandoned auto was found on Public Square Oct. 23. Inside, they found a receipt for repairs at a suburban Rocky River service station.

"He was very well-mannered," said Cairns. "You certainly never would have guessed by talking to him that he was wanted for murder."

Cleveland Homicide Detective Sgt. Edward Manning said, however, that Tingler is vicious and probably would stop at nothing to avoid being taken.

Columbus police described the murders there as two of the most brutal in their files.

In that holdup-slaying, 14-year-old James Stevens, and Susan Pack, 18, were bound, gagged and then shot to death. A night manager, 34-year-old Phyllis Crow was beaten, stangled and left for dead.

In the Cleveland murders, a Euclid Avenue bar owner, a woman and two other men were taken to Rockefeller Park and shot in the head with a 9-millimeter and .25-caliber guns.

Cleveland victims were Joseph Zoldan, 54, owner of Tom's Bar; Raymond G. Homer, 26; Ronald Mahone, 22, and Martha L. Lancaster, 21.

Humphrey Posts Gain In Beaver Local Poll

Theodore Taylor, principal, said of the 533 students who took part, 222 were for Nixon, 212 for Humphrey and 95 for Wallace. In a poll conducted for a magazine last month, the results were 175 for Nixon, 199 for Wallace and 110 for Humphrey.

100 Ex-Employes Lose Case On Fund

CINCINNATI (AP) — About 100 former workers of Trailmobile Corp., contending they were entitled to a share in a $4 million retirement fund of the firm, lost their case Monday in U.S. District Court.

The corporation, a division of Pullman, Inc., closed its Cincinnati operations in June 1967 and distributed the funds to older workers. The group excluded then filed suit.

Gas Revenue Figures Filed With Council

A detailed study of the rate structure of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. in East Liverpool was filed with Council Monday night by the Ohio Public Utilities Commission, the result of a survey requested last summer by Council.

It was another development in negotiations between the municipality and the utility on a new rate ordinance. The talks were launched in July 1967. The 1966-67 Council enacted a rate ordinance shortly before leaving office at the end of December. The present Council rescinded the legislation as one of its first official acts and a substitute measure was proposed, but never approved.

The talks between Council and the utility have been broken off for months. At one time, the gas company suggested it would file an application direct with the PUCO, but Council never has received notice that such action was taken. The study given Council last night was signed by Harry L. Morton, a PUCO examiner. It was received and filed by Council.

Simpson reported that the firm's operations in East Liverpool for the 12-month period ending Dec. 31, 1967, "produced $80,066 in net income available for fixed charges, which amount yielded a rate of return of 3.49 per cent when applied to the value of the rate base in the amount of $2,292,916."

"After adjusting operating revenues and expenses, the net income available for fixed charges would have been decreased to $74,104, which amount would have yielded a rate of return of 3.23 per cent when applied to the value of the rate base," the report added.

If the company's proposed rates for the first year "had been in effect during the test period, they would have produced 125,066 in net income available for fixed charges, which amount would have yielded a rate of return of 5.45 per cent when applied to the value of the rate base. . ." the reports added.

The company's proposed rate for the second year "would have produced $131,209 in net available income, which amount would have yielded a rate of return of 5.72 per cent applied to the rate base. ." the report said.

Candidates On Ballot Despite Other Advice

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — Both candidates for Lawrence County Court judge were on today's election ballot, despite advice to the contrary by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

The county election board decided Monday not to rule on protests involving Judge Kenneth B. Ater and William J. Curry, both of Chesapeake, until after the election. Brown recommended Curry's disqualification because he lost a bid in the May primary for county prosecutor.

For New Offices

Work Will Start On Taft Building

The renovation of the former Taft building for the new administrative offices of the East Liverpool school system will begin no later than next Monday, Architect Robert Beatty told board members Monday night.

Cost of the program has been set at $43,354.

Board Member William Blair, chairman of the building committee, said funds for the work will come from interest on the bond issue revenue which accumulated when the construction program of the new educational complex was delayed.

BEATTY reported that glass which had been broken and other damage caused by vandalism has been repaired at a cost of more than $1,000, with all but the glass covered by insurance.

It was pointed out that insurance can't be obtained against glass breakage, the cost being prohibitive.

Beatty said a few changes will have to be made as the result of an inspection by the state fire marshal's office.

Dampers already are installed in air vents, but the inspector requests inspection windows also. The total cost for these changes at North Elementary and the high school was estimated at $400.

A railing also has been ordered for the stage steps in the auditorium.

Although expressing concern that the items hadn't been included by the state in its original approval, the board approved the changes.

BIDS WILL be received for moving dirt and rough grading the field by the high school for a physical education, track, and football area.

Beatty also reported that the grand total cost of the new buildings, excluding the administration headquarters at Taft, was $5,573,761.

Board President Samuel Brown mentioned that the suppliers who have not made deliveres should be notified that they will be penalized. Beatty said all had been, except the library equipment supplier.

The contract for the library was let with the original contract, and the date specified was September, 1969. Therefore, it was pointed out, there is no violation of contract. Delivery has been promised in December.

In other business, Supt. Paul Blair announced that all schools will observe Veterans Day Monday.

The board approved rentals for Westgate for the East Liverpool Jaycees Miss Ohio Contest on May 2-3 and for the Delta Kappa Gamma Society of Columbiana County to use the high school cafeteria Nov. 12 from 6 to 9 p.m. for its fall meeting.

Since so many of the East Liverpool teachers belong to the society, the board approved rental for custodial and cafeteria help fees only. The Jaycees will pay $30 for Westgate for rehearsal and $75 for the event, plus custodial fees for both days.

THE BOARD accepted the resignation of Mrs. Jean E. Farnsworth of 920 St. George St., a cafeteria worker.

Brown will attend the Ohio School Board Association annual meeting in Columbus Nov. 12-14 as the board's delegate.

William Blair expressed concern over the snack bar at Westgate and East Junior. He commented, "I fail to see the reason for the need. I do not think we should offer candy and pop to the kids. If their parents want them to have it, they can give it to them at home. I just want the board to consider this."

The board will meet Thursday night to discuss the request from the custodians that the agreement reached with them be signed. A date will be set for meeting with the custodians.

Thieves Take $100, TV Set

Thieves escaped with a console color television set and $100 in cash in two incidents reported to police Monday afternoon and night. A Jethro home and a West End tool shed also were looted.

Floyd Robinson, resident of an apartment at 519½ Market St., told police three envelopes containing a total of $100 were taken from his room sometime between Friday afternoon and Monday night.

The apartment is over the Diamond Restaurant. The money was taken from Room 4, which is used as the office for room rentals, Robinson said. Tenants sometimes place their rent in envelopes and slip them under the door, he said. Officers said there is sufficient space underneath the door for someone to have inserted a wire and dragged out the envelopes. There was no sign of forcible entry.

Robert Frazer of 138 Broad St. told officers Monday afternoon an intruder took a color TV set from the livingroom at his home Sunday night or early yesterday. Entry was gained by forcing a basement door on the east side of the home. The TV set apparently was carried out the back door, officers said.

Richard E. Kruegel of Churchhill Rd., Lisbon, told police Monday night thieves looted a home which he owns at 720 Leonard St., Jethro, between Friday at 4 p.m. and 10 a.m. Monday. The thieves took a refrigerator, an electric stove and three overhead cabinets from the kitchen and a bed from a bedroom upstairs, he said.

John Melvin of 1076 Peake St. told officers Monday afternoon a thief pried a hasp off the door of a workshop on his property Saturday night or early Sunday and took an alcohol - fueled torch, wire cutters and a hammer. The torch was found later about 200 yards south of the Melvin residence and returned to the owner, officers said.

2 Escapees From W. Va. Pen Arrested

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Two escapees from the prison at Moundsville, W. Va., were arrested near here Monday night on robbery charges following a shooting, state police said.

A third man is being sought.

Held were Elmer Robinson, 39, and Arthur Sucik, 26, police said.

Police said the arrests were made after three men entered a migrant labor camp late Monday afternoon and robbed two men. Both reportedly were beaten with a rifle and had their wallets stolen.

Police said they were called to the rural home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rosenberry who said they had disarmed two men. They were turned over to police.

Robinson and Sucik escaped with two other men Oct. 31 by cutting their way through the prison's front wall and dashing across the prison yard unnoticed.

The other escapees were identified as George Edward Brown, 38, of White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., and Dale Gordon, 21, of Fairmont, W.Va.

Rogers Council Purchases $850 Salt Spreader Device

ROGERS — An new $850 salt spreader was purchased by Council Monday night from the Our Equipment Co. of Salineville.

The attachment to the village truck is to be delivered within three weeks, it was announced.

Washing away of sections of berm along Route 7 in recent rains was discussed. It was decided to tar the sections to hold the ground during the winter, and to blacktop it next spring.

Bills amounting to $399 were paid. Mayor Glenn Rhodes reported the County Health Department has directed the closing of the village dump by Jan. 1 because it does not meet the new state standards.

A private refuse hauling firm is serving the village and area, but not all the residents are utilizing the service, it was explained by village authorities.

Everett Galbreath of Highland Ave. filed a request of widening of College St. to its dedicated width of 40 feet to permit passage of two cars. It currently is about 25 feet wide. Councilmen agreed the project would be undertaken when funds are available.

Mayor Rhodes reported an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. official had discussed with him tentative plans for adding Rogers area toll free to the East Liverpool exchange in the near future.

Councilmen voiced opinions against the plan, stating the majority of residents do business with the Columbiana, Lisbon or Salem districts.

Mayor Rhodes said residents with legitimate complaints should attend Council meetings the first Monday of each month or write letters to Councilmen. He said the proper channel for complaints is not with the mayor but with all of Council or individual Councilmen.

Fall cleanup days were scheduled for Nov. 16 and Nov. 23.

Sex Classes To Continue Under 'Mixed' Plan Here

with Kathryn Liebschner, clerk, if anyone wishes to see them.

Vincent Chronister of 350 Hill St., the first to speak, said he is against the program as it is being taught, and asked, "What qualifications does the teacher have?"

Assistant Supt. Carl Pelini said Mrs. Donna Wilson was certificated and was a physical education major. In answer to a specific question as to whether or not she had studied sociology, Pelini said she had.

Chronister continued, "I would like to know why the parents and people involved were not notified it was not a compulsory course." Pelini replied, "When they first signed up, we allowed parents to withdraw the children."

Chronister than asked, "Why are mixed classes necessary? Has the program proven to be helpful in anyway. Has it prevented girls from becoming pregnant?

Pelini said he did not have material in his pocket, but would show Mr. Chronister material he had relative to the course. Chronister said Pittsburgh schools have had a program for several years, but with separate classes. "If a city of that size has them separated, why do we have them mixed?"

LEE WHITE of 1248 Sunnyside Ave. spoke in opposition. He said he has resided in East Liverpool all his life and attended school here. "I have four girls and two boys, with four children in school. So far I have been satisfied—up until now. I can't agree with mixed classes. They should have separate classes with a male instructor for boys and a female instructor for girls.

"I don't think any woman sitting in here can tell me what my first sex experience felt like, and I don't feel any female can tell my 10-year-old son what to expect. I don't think you will get much open discussion from the girls about it, and I hope not. We read the book and I was embarrassed to discuss some of it with my wife.

"There are three things separating us from being animals. They are a chain of embarrassment, modesty, and morality. A chain is only as strong as its weakest link.

"If they are taught not to be embarrassed, the next thing, they will lose modesty. Then, lose morality. What I say for the future has been true in the past. Moral standards have dropped. There isn't anyone here to say this has been good for our country."

White concluded, "In some parts of the country they want integrated rest rooms. Why not? This is the next step."

ROBERT BARTRAM of Olhausen St., spokesman for the group which demonstrated in front of Westgate School last week said, "I am for sex education. I want to commend the board of education for having this meeting like this. I have heard this isn't proper, but we still live in a free country.

"Many things have been said on this issue. Basically, I am against mixed classes. I ask you once again to separate classes. Get the kids back in school.

"Many influential people are speaking out for this program in total as it is, but a doctor is only a human being sometimes guilty of a bad diagnosis.

"Consider their opinions, but consider ours also. We have split the community with this issue — churchmen against churchmen—educators agianst educators — neighbor against neighbor. We will always wonder who is right and who is wrong. We want education. We know it is needed. Morality, modesty and gutter language will always be. But if I let this go on, I would diminish in the eyes of my children. As average middle class, look to us for guidance, also."

MRS. DONALD Boso of 1006 Dresden Ave. complained that obscene language was being used in the class. "Some words I consider just plain swear words," she said, "but others are obscene." She objected to four-letter words that were used.

"Are my kids going to have to sit and listen in the class? These girls know they are developing, but don't want boys to look at them and discuss this part of growing.

"I bought a book at the Bible Store which says a mother should talk to her daughter and a father to his son. I would be ashamed if my daughter used these words on the streets."

Mrs. Roy Sweezy of 1252 Sunnyside Ave. asked if it would be possible for parents to see the movies on sex education.

"If we do not see these movies, we are not sure what the children are shown. If it is true what they are being shown. I don't believe my 14-year-old daughter would want to see these. I think they should be shown to parents.

"I was at the parent-teacher association meetings when sex education was discussed, and I was for it, but wasn't shown any movies.

"School has enough problems with children today, and children don't want to be different from the crowd. I would like to see the movies myself and I am making a request these movies be shown to all parents so they can see what the children are being taught."

He said he was speaking as a father of two, as a husband who has learned the full meaning of sex, as a minister and as a certificated teacher in secondary education.

"I have had the privilege of reading the book in question. Now I want to react to the comments given here tonight.

"How can you measure the value of results of such a course? How do you go about measuring — years will tell. The kind of concepts picked up in a course have far more value than counting pregnancies. You have to measure the amount of anxiety or self-satisfaction and knowledge and freedom of anxiety and tension.

"How do you measure how they feel about themselves? How do you measure degree of adjustment to life? How do you measure whether or not this couple has learned how to plan their family, not just whether or not they learn how not to get pregnant out of wedlock?

"I challenge anyone to try to measure.

"A husband and wife learn to communicate about each other. There is nothing in the book I would be embarrassed to discuss with my wife. This course will enable the kind of communication that is needed in marriage. If you can measure these kinds of values, you can measure this program.

"About not being informed the course was not compulsory — there are other things not compulsory that you wouldn't want to advertise. We do not want to advertise no prayer in schools and that it is not compulsory to stay there while there is one. You would rather no one knew about this. It is not compulsory to salute the flag of the United States, but we do not want to advertise this.

"It is not in good taste to let it be known until someone wants to withdraw."

Rev. Shipley continued, "We are in a sex environment. All our life is sexual — you can't escape it. No one is denying the vital role of parents. This is simply to supplement. I don't for a minute want to feel no more responsibility.

"As to morality — the book doesn't try to demoralize. To learn the facts of life will not make an adultress. The book says, 'Your sense of right and wrong is really your conscience.' There is room for parents to teach morals.

"I have taught sex education from a much more complex book than this. I was dismayed at the course because it was so small an endeavor. I am glad to see this same kind of education can be made available on a broader base so more can be taught."

The minister concluded, "I strongly favor what the school board is doing and hope it will continue with the same."

VICKIE LANE, president of the Junior Women's Club, said, "We fully endorse the program of sex education. I have letters here from doctors and a statement. This letter is for your file endorsing the program. I also have a letter from East Palestine where they have had the program successfully for two years starting in the fifth and sixth grades."

Mrs. Ginger Hile of Windsor Dr. said, "You have chosen a very fine program for our children. As board members, you know there is a need for this. There is nothing in the book that incites lust. There is a good deal more in movies, books and television that does incite lust.

"This education is the biggest need in our society today. The kids know that there are people who do care. I'd rather have my children in class than out somewhere at a drive-in movie or at Beaver Creek or somewhere like that discussing it."

MRS. MERRY Ann Darrah of 718 Midway Ln., president of the East Liverpool Jaycee-ettes, said their board of directors felt it essential to meet and conduct a poll "on this very important subject." A telephone poll was taken, with a majority "in favor of sex education classes as now being taught in our schools."

—:—

THE REV. John Skelbred, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, pointed out he attended several meetings and heard both sides.

"I think the children in our school system have a greater respect for each other than we appreciate. The problem is of parents being embarrassed, not our children, because this is a new and strange thing that has come to our society.

"If I would need a lawyer, I would go to one. If I would need a pediatrician, I would go to one and wouldn't tell him what to prescribe. The school board and administrators realized the ramifications and studied this thing through, and I accept their judgment.

"I hope they will continue. I speak as a citizen, not as a representative of my denomination. Also, as a Christian."

JOHN SCALES of Homestead Dr. said he is the father of four children, the oldest of whom will be in junior high next year. He told of the tribal people of the South Sea Islands, who could not understand the missionaries when they talked about obscenity, because they do not have any.

"They need no police — have no crime. They are so healthy in their mental attitude.

"There are no physical attacks, no rape. We need emphasis on this sex education program mixed so all can get the same class of instruction at the same time.

"If segregated, there still leaves the problem of wandering around in the halls and finding out what each learned today. Co-educationally is the only way to get about it. The children respect each other—have new respect for their parents. Not necessarily in the physical sense, but in all other areas.

"When I talked with Mr. Pelini, he indicated that there were no funds to start in grade one. That is too bad. Grade one is the obvious place to start."

ROBERT WILLIAMS of Lisbon St., the final parent to speak, said, "I don't believe some of the mothers would like to take this movie in their own home and show it to their children.

"Some organizations go on file as supporting the program. Did their members read this book or know anything about this program. I don't believe this is really a point here. As far as influential people go, their word should not mean anything more than ours.

"Some don't have children. We have love for our children and try to teach them as best we know how.

"As for movies, we can keep our children from going to these things.

"We have gained some attention by being in front of Westgate. Some children hadn't taken the book home. Some were ashamed and did not want their parents to read the book, maybe because they can't communicate with their parents.

"We need sex education. I want to go on record as saying that Pelini said that if we have to do without mixed classes, we will not have it at all. Of course, there would be problems in changing classes, but I think it should be worked out.

"White then asked if he could add one more thought. He said he was not against a sex education program. I think it should be started in the first grade. But the book needs to be watered down. If mixed classes continue, I will withdraw my children."

BOARD President Brown then urged that those present read the Nov. 1 issue of Life magazine and the current issue of the Reader's Digest, and referred to certain topics. Brown said these are accepted magazines in probably 75 per cent of the homes.

He added that he did not want to be misquoted as he was after the last board meeting when the board was supposed to have said it would return a decision on Friday. Also, he said a statement in a "Letter to the Editor" in The Review quoted him as saying that no one has read the book. This is false — our teachers and committee read the book, and who else should read it?

"Therefore, this board will issue a statement to the press and radio, that will be available tomorrow."

After a discussion, the board instead issued the statement last night to the effect that the program would continue.

After the statement was agreed upon, William Blair, a board member, reiterated that no child or parent would be penalized if the child was removed from the class. He also pointed out again that board members and the administration will watch the course to make sure proper communication exists between the teacher and the children.

He commented that he hopes the parents also will be as interested in math, reading, etc., as in this program.

ANN LANDERS

Forgives, Lives Happily

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Today is my 25th wedding anniversary. I just read the letter from the anguished wife who stumbled over her husband and her younger sister in the backyard.

Your advice to send the sister packing and never mention the affair again was perfect. I hope the woman has the courage to follow it. Perhaps my own experience will give her added strength.

Twenty years ago I also stumbled over my husband, only it wasn't my sister he was with, it was my very closest friend. The occasion was a Fourth of July outing and we were picnicking in the hills.

I was shocked and filled with anger and grief. When I told my mother the next morning I was filing for divorce, she said, "Are you going to divorce a man you love, give up your home, your place in the community and deprive your children of a father because of a cheap little tramp?"

Mother then told me of a similar incident involving my own devoted father. They had been married less than three years when she caught him with a neighbor.

After we both had a good cry, I pulled my shoulders back, painted a smile on my face, and that was the end of my divorce plans.

My husband and I have had a wonderful marriage — some tears, many laughs and five beautiful children. When I think of how close I came to destroying it all, I shudder.

Easy to forgive a cheating husband and never mention it again? No — it was the hardest thing I've ever had to do in my life, but it paid huge dividends. — VICTORIA.

Dear Vic: Your letter was about the 100th I received with the same message. I didn't realize so many wives had stumbled over their husbands in the past 25 years. Thanks to all who wrote and cheers for the victors. The following letter strengthens your case, girls. Read on.

Hasty Decision

Dear Ann: I never thought I'd write to you but that letter from the woman who caught her husband with her younger sister was my story only it wasn't my sister, it was my niece.

My husband swore it never would happen again. He begged me to forgive him, just as the husband of the woman who wrote, but I was so bitter and so incapable of swallowing my pride that I could think of nothing but getting even. I filed for divorce even though my three children begged me not to.

Even after the divorce, my husband tried for two years to win me back but I refused to have anything to do with him. All I wanted was to hurt him more.

Finally he gave up and married a lovely young widow with a small child. He's made a new life for himself and I'm a lonely and miserable woman who allowed her foolish stubbornness and lack of humility to ruin her life.

If you think there's a lesson here for others, print my letter, Ann. Sign me — RIVER OF TEARS.

Dear Tears: I do and I will. Thank you or writing.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Personalities In The News

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski, banned from travel abroad since he angered Communist authorities in 1965, left by train Monday night for a visit to the Vatican.

He was expected to be gone a month or so.

The cardinal, 67, incurred Communist wrath after the Polish bishops addressed a letter of forgiveness and reconciliation to the German bishops during the 1965 Ecumenical Council.

The cardinal was accused of meddling in foreign affairs.

During a five-week jury trial Stroock, who sat in a wheel chair, testified he married 52-year - old Helen Thompson, a former telephone operator, in the Grand Bahamas in October 1964.

Stroock told the court he had been "floating in Scotch" at the time of the wedding.

Helen Thompson Stroock withdrew her objections to the annulment, agreeing to accept $35,000 and to return a diamond ring that had belonged to Stroock's mother.

"I must conclude this was not a marriage made in heaven and it was certainly not a marriage on earth," said Judge Irving H. Saypol.

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP) — Stanley Williams, 50, blind father of seven children, Monday was named the outstanding student at a Staffordshire business college.

Williams, an accountant, came in first among 4,500 students at Wednesbury College of Commerce and earned a bachelor of law degree with honors.

Williams took his examination after studying from a set of books tape-recorded by his wife, Connie. She was permitted to be in the examination room to read the questions to her husband and write down his answers.

Her physician, Dr. Charles A. Mulry, said she may be hospitalized for up to five weeks.

Butter has been a food since the beginning of recorded history . . . being used not only as a food, but as a medicine, an ointment, and a lamp fuel. One of the first methods of making it consisted of placing cream in skin pouches and hanging these over the backs of trotting horses.

Workable Program's Certification Sought

A mass of forms was forwarded Monday to the Chicago regional office of the Department of Housing and Urban Development asking it to certify again East Liverpool's "workable program" for development — a step which makes the city eligible for federal aid for many types of projects.

Planning Coordinator Don Eckert said he has been working on the recertification move since May. Yesterday's action amounts to an updated summary of all the steps the city has taken to qualify for federal aid — things such as enactment of building and zoning codes and establishing a housing insnector's office.

The forms restate the city's goals, the actons it has proposed and the progress it has achieved in reaching the goals. The "workable program" first received federal certification in October 1966.

The term "Papal States" embraced the land in Italy over which the Roman Catholic Church formerly had temporal power. Today it is only the 105-acre Vatican City.

The DOCTOR Says

Medical Costs Are On The Rise

Dr. Brandstadt

In these times of creeping inflation, many persons are complaining about the cost of medical care. Let's take a minute to examine the facts and the reasons for the increases. In 1940, a complete medical workup (initial history, physical examination and simple laboratory tests) by your doctor cost $25. A surgeon charged about $500 for a major operation that required an average of eight days in the hospital and the loss of three or four weeks from work.

—:—

TODAY THE CHARGE for an initial workup is still $25. The preoperative care, operative technique and postoperative care have improved to the point where, although the same operation that formerly cost $500 now costs about $525, only three days in the hospital and a week away from work are required.

—:—

ALTHOUGH THE doctor's living expenses, office rent and equipment now cost him far more than they did 28 years ago and although the stamps to mail out his bills cost twice what they cost 10 years ago, he has absorbed these costs and has raised his fees, if at all, far less than any other group.

—:—

WHY, THEN ARE medical costs rising? One reason is that technological advances in the broad field of medicine are expensive. A $75,000 apparatus that costs $25,000 to install can detect a tumor the size of a pea. Without this equipment it would not be diagnosed until it had become as large as a lemon. Granted this test is costly, it is also lifesaving and represents greatly improved service to you as a patient.

—:—

THE OTHER CHIEF reason for increased costs has to do with hospital care. Hospitals are usually nonprofit organizations and can't absorb increases in their operating costs — they must be passed on to you or the hospital must close its doors. Medicare was introduced to help relieve this burden on persons who are over 65. Persons who are not yet eligible for Medicare should avail themselves of one of the voluntary health insurance plans that are offered.

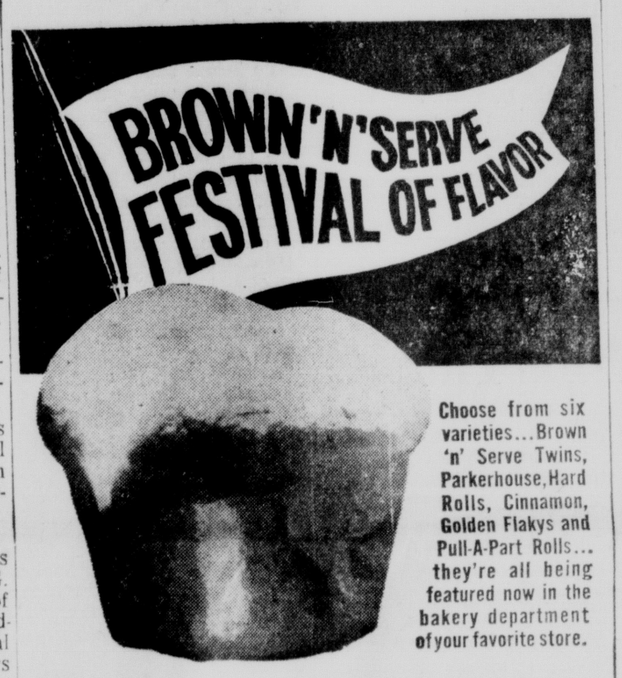

—:—

Q—What is meant by hypercholesterolemia and hypothyrodism?

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Moving The Easy Way

DEAR HELOISE: Moving day is an awful chore, but I have found a way to lighten it, at least for local moves.

Heloise

Use sturdy shopping bags instead of cartons!

When I moved from an upstairs apartment to a house across town, I stood at the head of the stairway on my way to the grocery for the usual empty cartons to pack things in. Suddenly, I thought about struggling down those steep stairs with heavy cartons.

So instead of using the cartons, I bought a number of shopping bags. They were inexpensive and wonderful. I could carry two bags in either hand, each holding as much as one carton that would have required both my arms.

For a local, do-it-yourself move, the bags do not have to be so carefully packed because you know what is in them. They ride easily on the seat, floor or in your car trunk.

And when you arrive at your new home, you can set them down in each room where you intend to unpack them. As fast as they are unpacked they can be folded and put away clearing your litter.

The ones you haven't time to get at can be set in a corner or behind the door out of sight.

One warning — just don't overload.

Another thing, be sure to have enough. I ran out and had to use two or three cartons in the end and realized how much more convenient the shopping bags are. Happy moving!

DOROTHY E. CURTIS.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know if you sprinkle waxed paper with powdered sugar when wrapping a piece of frsoted cake for your child's or husband's lunch, it will prevent the frosting from sticking to the paper?

MOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: We have an electric clock-radio with an appliance outlet which we keep in the bedroom. . .

It's so much more pleasant to get up on dark winter mornings if we plug in a small lamp.

MARJ MARSHALL

DEAR HELOISE: From a tired-out velveteen maternity suit, I made a smart 3-piece outfit by taking out the sleeves and making the flared jacket straight. From the excess material, I put a new panel in front of the skirt to replace the former "hole."

I just added a pretty long-sleeved blouse and now have a new dress-up suit!

MRS. WASNIDGE.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I am a waitress. One day, a customer with a large protuding tummy kept losing his napkin.

He had a nice tie clip on, so I used it to attach his napkin to his tie.

No more trouble.

I told him I would give this handy hint to you and he just laughed.

MRS. W. J. SHVOROT.

So did I.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I have what I think is a good idea for the new high boots you see so much of now.

When I am not wearing mine, I don't like them to just fold over, so I roll up several thicknesses of newspaper and put them down in the boots.

JOAN AMMERMAN.

DEAR HELOISE: I love pistachios, but every time I eat them I break a finger nail. So now I use small manicure scissors that are no longer my best pair, insert the point in the crack and spread the nuts apart as I open up the scissors.

It works fast and, best of all, I don't end up with red and sore fingers.

ELVERA.

AIR SENSOR tells it like it is in Pittsburgh, Pa. Ex-Convict Hunted In Slaying Of 4

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Richard Tingler, the 28-year-old ex-convict charged in the hold-up slaying of two Columbus teen-agers, is being sought in connection with a quadruple slaying here Sept. 16.

Cleveland Detective Sgt. Victor Kovacic said a warrant charging first-degree murder would be issued today on the strength of ballistics comparisons in the two cases.

He said 9-millimeter bullets and fragments recovered from the Oct. 20th slayings at a Lawson Milk Co. store in Columbus came from one of the guns used in the Rockefeller Park killings.

Columbus police also have a warrant charging the onetime department store employe with first-degree murder.

They believe Tingler, said to be a native of Piqua, (Miami County) in southwestern Ohio, still may be in the Cleveland area.

Cleveland police said he was living on this city's East Side when his abandoned auto was found on Public Square Oct. 23. Inside, they found a receipt for repairs at a suburban Rocky River service station.

William Cairns, 40, operator of the station, said that Tingler had driven in the day before.

"He was very well-mannered," said Cairns. "You certainly never would have guessed by talking to him that he was wanted for murder."

Cleveland Homicide Detective Sgt. Edward Manning said, however, that Tingler is vicious and probably would stop at nothing to avoid being taken.

Columbus police described the murders there as two of the most brutal in their files.

In that holdup-slaying, 14-year-old James Stevens, and Susan Pack, 18, were bound, gagged and then shot to death. A night manager, 34-year-old Phyllis Crow was beaten, stangled and left for dead.

In the Cleveland murders, a Euclid Avenue bar owner, a woman and two other men were taken to Rockefeller Park and shot in the head with a 9-millimeter and .25-caliber guns.

100 Ex-Employes Lose Case On Fund

CINCINNATI (AP) — About 100 former workers of Trailmobile Corp., contending they were entitled to a share in a $4 million retirement fund of the firm, lost their case Monday in U.S. District Court.

The corporation, a division of Pullman, Inc., closed its Cincinnati operations in June 1967 and distributed the funds to older workers. The group excluded then filed suit.

Gas Revenue Figures Filed With Council

A detailed study of the rate structure of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. in East Liverpool was filed with Council Monday night by the Ohio Public Utilities Commission, the result of a survey requested last summer by Council.

It was another development in negotiations between the municipality and the utility on a new rate ordinance. The talks were launched in July 1967. The 1966-67 Council enacted a rate ordinance shortly before leaving office at the end of December. The present Council rescinded the legislation as one of its first official acts and a substitute measure was proposed, but never approved.

The talks between Council and the utility have been broken off for months. At one time, the gas company suggested it would file an application direct with the PUCO, but Council never has received notice that such action was taken. The study given Council last night was signed by Harry L. Morton, a PUCO examiner. It was received and filed by Council.

Simpson reported that the firm's operations in East Liverpool for the 12-month period ending Dec. 31, 1967, "produced $80.066 in net income available for fixed charges, which amount yielded a rate of return of 3.49 per cent when applied to the value of the rate base in the amount of $2,292,916."

"After adjusting operating revenues and expenses, the net income available for fixed charges would have been decreased to $74,104, which amount would have yielded a rate of return of 3.23 per cent when applied to the value of the rate base," the report added.

If the company's proposed rates for the first year "had been in effect during the test period, they would have produced 125,066 in net income available for fixed charges, which amount would have yielded a rate of return of 5.45 per cent when applied to the value of the rate base. . ." the reports added.

The company's proposed rate for the second year "would have produced $131,209 in net available income, which amount would have yielded a rate of return of 5.72 per cent applied to the rate base. ." the report said.

Candidates On Ballot Despite Other Advice

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — Both candidates for Lawrence County Court judge were on today's election ballot, despite advice to the contrary by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

The county election board decided Monday not to rule on protests involving Judge Kenneth B. Ater and William J. Curry, both of Chesapeake, until after the election. Brown recommended Curry's disqualification because he lost a bid in the May primary for county prosecutor.

Wintersville's dream of a high state ranking was shattered by the Warren Harding Panthers Saturday night when Warren won 43-13.

The Warriors started off briskly, and led 7-6. It was 14-13 Warren after only six minutes had elapsed, but from there on it was all downhill for Bob Kettlewell's team.

The powerful All-American conference is almost sure to wind up with a tie for the title. Warren Harding, Canton McKinley, Massillon and Niles have lost only one game each, while Steubenville and Alliance are winless. Warren hosts Niles and Massillon hosts Canton. Niles has played one less game, so if the Red Dragons top Warren the winner of the Massillon-Canton game takes the title.

Southern California needed a touchdown pass with 1:13 remaining to squeeze past stubborn Oregon 20-13. The Trojans piled up 816 points in the balloting by 45 sports writers and broadcasters.

Ohio State tallied 14 first-place votes and 803 points after holding off Michigan State, No. 17 in this week's poll, 25-20.

Georgia, seventh a week ago, dropped to ninth after tying 13th-ranked Houston 10-10 and California fell from eighth to 11th following a 7-7 deadlock with Washington.

Michigan moved up from ninth to seventh via a 35-0 rout of Northwestern, and Missouri climbed from 10th to eighth after belting Oklahoma State 42-7. Texas took over the 10th spot following a 38-7 drubbing of Southern Methodist.

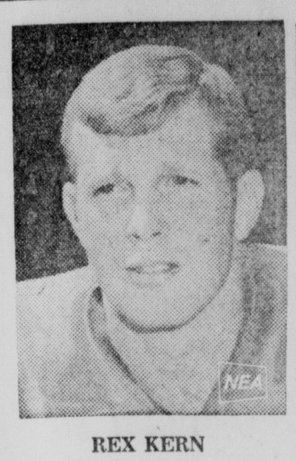

California barely led the Second Ten by nine points over Notre Dame, which clobbered Navy 45-14.

Passing Attack Paces Ohio State's Success

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Woody Hayes has taken a hard look at the statistical sheet covering Ohio State's first six games and likes what he sees.

"The most amazing thing about our football season to date is our great receivers," Hayes told his weekly luncheon Monday.

The top four receivers are Bruce Jankowski, Jan White, Larry Zelina and Jim Otis but a total of 10 Buckeyes have caught passes this season.

"They (the opponents) sure have to cover a lot of them," Hayes noted. "And look at our passing. Name me two other sophomores in the country who are over 50 per cent?"

Hayes was talking about quarterbacks Rex Kern, who has complete 56 of 96 for 747 yards, and Ron Maciejowski, who has hit 12 of 23 or 234 yards.

The unbeaten Bucks are led by Otts' 48 points but a dozen others have cracked the point column.

"That's why we're a better team. All these things emphasize team play and that's what we're after. That's what makes good football teams," Hayes decided.

Maybe Hayes was thinking about last year when his Bucks barely edged the Badgers 17-15. Wisconsin, 0-9-1 a year ago, is 0-7 this season.

Coach John Coatta's team has been blanked by Michigan State, Utah and Iowa and only scored one touchdown in two other games. But the Badgers have looked better in their last two starts, losing to Northwestern 13 - 10 before last week's one-point setback to the Hoosiers, 21-20.

Hayes singled out Larry Zelina for the second straight week as the top offensive player in the 25 - 20 decision over Michigan State. Jankowski, who caught passes, was the best lineman.

Maciejowski, who gave a good account of himself as Kern's replacement against the Spartans, likely will start against the Badgers.

Kern, who suffered an ankle injury "is a fast healer but probably won't be ready," Hayes said. "But don't bet on it," he added.

Upper Arlington Ups Poll Lead

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Defending Class AA champion Upper Arlington charged out to a commanding lead in the weekly Associated Press high school football rankings today.

The unbeaten Golden Bears, sporting a perfect 9-0 record, collected 190 points from the sports writers and sportscasters who vote in the poll.

The final ratings will be announced next week.

Coach Marv Moorehead's powerhouse pulled away to a 31-point advantage, its largest of the season, on the strength of a 61-12 romp over Marietta.

Mentor, also unbeaten in nine starts, moved up a notch to second on 150 points while Elyria, 9-0, is in third place on 124.

Canton McKinley, which has lost only to Niles McKinley, vaulted from seventh to fourth after handing second - ranked Warren Western Reserve its first setback, 27-12. That loss dropped Reserve to sixth behind Struthers, 8-0.

Cincinnati St. Xavier, 9-0, is seventh, followed by Shelby, 9-0, Cleveland St. Joseph, 9-0, and Warren Harding, 7 - 2, which moved into the charmed circle after walloping previously unbeaten Wintersville, 43-13.

Wintersville, ninth last week, tumbled to 13th.

Arlington finishes Friday at Lancaster while Mentor closes against Eastlake North. Elyria faces rugged Lorain Senior in its windup while Canton McKinley has its traditional tussle with Massillon Saturday.

In Class A, Newark Catholic continues to hold first place with 168 points, 13 more than garnered by Norwalk St. Paul. Cory-Rawson is 28 points behind in third place.

All three are 9-0 with Catholic closing against Miami Trace Friday, and Norwalk finishing against Plymouth Saturday. Cory-Rawson is 28 points behind son last weekend with a 50-0 romp over McComb, the only team to whip C-R last year.

The Plains, 9-0, is fourth followed by West Muskingum, 9-0, Newcomerstown, 8 - 0 - 1, Portsmouth Notre Dame, 7-1, Covington, 9-0, Lorain St. Mary, 7-1-1 and Mogadore, 9-0. The latter team broke into the top ten as West Jefferson fell out.

Cranston Offensive Back Of Week

Floyd Cranston was named offensive back of the week for the first time this season after the East Liverpool coaching staff reviewed the films of the 24-13 win over Bellaire St. John's.

Cranston, playing a position with which he was not too familiar, gained 29 yards in five carries and caught four passes for 29 yards. He also faked well, and was so outstanding at his middle guard spot on defense that he hearly got the defensive lineman award, which went to Stanley Ice.

John Johnson was again defensive back of the week, with two interceptions and some good tackles. Don Cochran was named offensive lineman of the week.

The coaches were also pleased with the punting of Dan Cunningham, who averaged 38.3 yards in the absence of regular punter Tom Chambers. Chambers, sidelined with a knee injury, is unlikely to play in the season's finale against Alliance.

Packers Must Scramble For Fourth NFL Title

By BOB GREENE
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — A fourth consecutive National Football League championship still is the goal for the Green Bay Packers. Yet they seem to be going about it in an unusual manner.

"It looks as if we might lose our way into the Central Division title," a Packer said following Sunday's 13-10 loss to the Chicago Bears.

That defeat knocked the Packers out of a share of the division lead with a 3-4-1 record. But former co-leader Detroit also lost.

Now Chicago and Minnesota are tied for first. But both have four defeats to go along with four victories.

Although it's still anybody's race, Packers' Coach Phil Bengtson sees a hard road ahead for his team with only six games left in the regular season.

"We have to win them all," Bengtson said. "And the other people have to lose some."

That might not be so easy. The Packers have to play, in order, Minnesota, New Orleans, Washington, San Francisco, Baltimore and Chicago.

The Minnesota Vikings have the toughest schedule, facing the Packers, Detroit, Baltimore, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Philadelphia.

But a final deadlock with Detroit would send the Lions to the playoffs. In case of a tie, under league rules, the team that scored the most points in their two-game series would get the nod. Detroit downed the Packers in their first meeting and fought to a tie in the rematch.

Hurt by numerous injuries to their defensive linemen this season, the Packers also have suffered from poor field goal kicking. It's a problem that Bengtson and his staff are trying desperately to solve.

"We had a big discussion on that," Bengtson said, referring to three missed field goals in the Chicago game. "We're definitely going to have to do something."

"We haven't given up on Erroll Mann," Bengtson said of the latest placekicker, who was added to the squad only last week. "But we haven't decided about next week."

Lady Potters Meeting Tomorrow

The Lady Potter Boosters Club will meet tomorrow night at 8 p.m. at the home of Mary Alice Flouse on Orchard Grove Ave.

All football mothers are invited to the meeting and to the Lady Potter banquet, to be held Nov. 12 at the East Liverpool Country Club. All reservations for the banquet must be made by tomorrow night.

Cracked Ribs Sideline Bill Glass

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Bill Glass, an 11-year defensive end with the Cleveland Browns, will be out 6 to 8 weeks with two cracked ribs, it was announced Monday.

Glass was injured Sunday in the Browns' victory over San Francisco and X-rays revealed the fractures. A Browns' spokesman said it was possible but not likely, that Glass could be ready for any playoff games Cleveland might be in after the regular Natonal Football League season.

Jack Gregory, a second year man, replaced Glass against the 49ers and probably will start against New Orleans next Sunday.

Monroe Tops NBA Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Baltimore'a Earl Monroe remains the National Basketball Association's top point-producer, but Los Angeles' Elgin Baylor has replaced Dave Bing of Detroit as the top per-game shooter.

Monroe, last season's rookie of the year, had scored 300 points in 11 games through Sunday for a 27.3 average, according to league statistics released today.

Baylor had 249 points in eight games for a 31.1 mark, while Bing, last year's scoring king, had 247 in eight games for a 30.9 average.

Bill Russell, Boston's playing coach, held a big lead in rebounding with 199 in eight games for a 24.9 average.

Wilt Chamberlain of Los Angeles remained the top floor shooter with 81 of 119 tries for a .681 percentage. New York's Walt Frazier has converted 31 of 34 free throw attempts for .912.

The record for extra points missed in one National Football League game is four. It happened to Washington's Joe Aguirre against Philadelphia in a 1944 game.

Reserves Lose To Ursuline

The Potters penetrated the 15 twice, but once lost the ball on a fumble and once were set back by a penalty.

Hawkins Scores 43 As Pipers Win 4th

By The Associated Press

Jimmy Rayl just missed a desperation shot from the three-point area as the gun sounded Monday night, and the unbeaten Minnesota Pipers squeezed past the Indiana Pacers 121-120 for their fourth American Basketball Association victory.

All other teams in the league were idle, while San Francisco whipped Phoenix 119-108 in the night's only National Basketball Association match.

The victory kept Minnesota as pro basketball's only unbeaten outfit, and boosted to 1½ games its lead over Kentucky in the ABA's Eastern Division.

Rayl missed the shot that would have won for the Pacers after scoring 11 of his 13 points in a rally that helped Indiana cut a 15-point deficit in the final six minutes. He had scored two three-point baskets from beyond the 25-foot range in the closing surge.

San Francisco utilized the scoring of Rudy LaRusso, Nate Thurmond and Jeff Mullins in its conquest of Phoenix. LaRusso and Thurmond accounted for 28 points each while Mullins contribted 26 to the Warriors' attack.

Ole Miss Soph Manning AP Back Of The Week

Manning fired 40 passes, completing 24 for 344 yards, scored one touchdown himself and threw for two more, including a nine-yard strike to Steve Hindman with 55 seconds remaining that gave Mississippi a 27-24 upset victory over the Tigers.

Today, the 6-foot-3, 190-pound youngster was selected college football's Back of the Week by The Associated Press.

Manning, held out of practice until midweek because of a rib injury suffered during Ole Miss' previous game against Houston, tossed a 65-yard touchdown bomb to Floyd Franks as the Rebs rallied from a 17-3 deficit to go ahead 20-17 in the fourth quarter.

Then, with time running out, LSU regained the lead on Kenny Newfield's 11-yard touchdown run. But hte Rebs mounted a last-ditch drive from their 25, Bo Bowen scampering 17 yards before Manning hit on four passes, the last to Hindman for the winning score.

Vaught calls the 19-year-old soph the best quarterback prospect "I've ever had . . . and I've had some good ones."

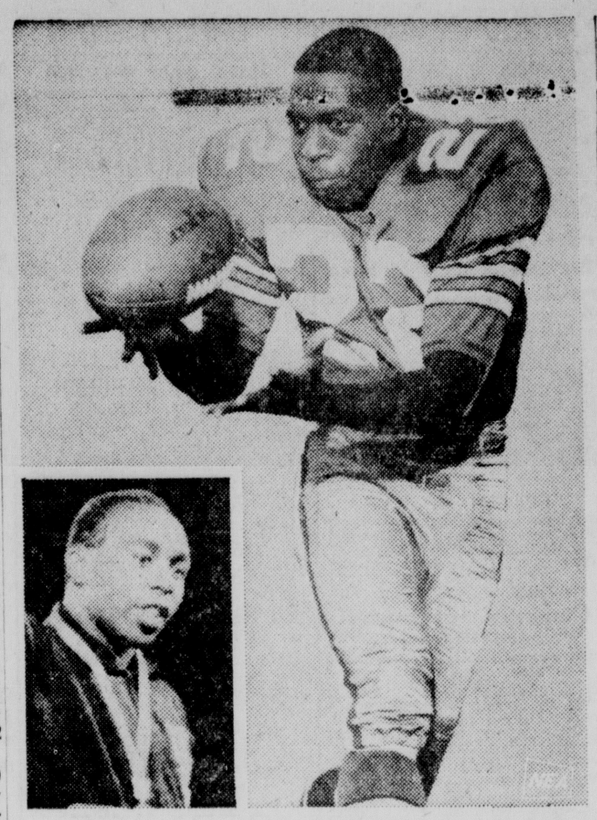

Among others, he's had Charley Conerly, Eagle Day, Jake Gibbs and Glynn Griffing . . . so it's about the highest praise Manning could ask for.

Two other soph quarterbacks from Dixie, South Carolina's Tommy Suggs and Duke's Leo Hart, pressed Manning for weekly honors while engineering upset victories and North Texas State senior Steve Ramsey went on a devastating long ball spree against Cincinnati.

Suggs tossed five touchdown passes, setting an Atlantic Coach Conference record, as the Gamecocks ambushed Virginia 49-28. The 5-foot-9 flash connected on 14 of 15 attempts for 312 yards.

Hart triggered Duke's 46-30 conquest of Georgia Tech by completing 15 of 21 passes for 237 yards and one touchdown and running 11 yards for another score.

Ramsey threw five scoring strikes as North Texas State flattened Cincinnati 55 - 34. He wound up with 433 yards on 13 completions ... an average gain of 33 yards.

Hines' Speed No Surety Of Pro Football Stardom

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Columnist

NEW YORK—(NEA)—It was the day after Jimmy Hines won the gold medal in Mexico City by running 100 meters in 9.9 seconds, breaking the Olympic record of 10.0.

In Dallas, Cowboy split end Bob Hayes, who set the record in the 1965 Olympics, trotted onto the practice field. He was immediately encircled by teammates. Their heads were hung in mock sorrow and they patted him on the back.

"What's happening?" asked Hayes. "What did I do wrong?"

One of the players replied with a tremor in his voice, "We're sorry, Bob."

"Sorry about what?"

"That you're now only the World's Second Fastest Human."

The man who wins the 100-meter race is designated the World's Fastest Human, just as the decathlon winner is the World's Greatest Athlete and the carnival's bearded lady is tre World's Hairiest Dame. The world is fond of dropping titles on people, and sometimes those titles become very heavy to lug around.

Bob Hayes thinks this will be so with Jimmy Hines, as it was for him. Hines recently signed a professional football contract with the Miami Dolphins, just as Hayes did with Dallas after his Olympic triumph. Hayes was an immediate sensation, and has been named to the Pro Bowl game each season.

"Tremendous pressure will be on Jimmy," said Hayes. "Everybody will come into the stadium and will watch Jimmy. They'll forget the Dolphins. They'll expect Jimmy to outrun everybody, every time, every game.

" "He's going to be so anxious to do it, he may forget about controlling his speed. He's got to ease up to make the turns and cuts. No one can go full speed and run the patterns right. Not even a slow guy."

Certainly it requires more than the quickness of a blink to make it big in pro football. Ask Ray Norton or Frank Budd, one-time nominees for the speed title. It takes the ability to absorb punishment, to catch passes and to read defenses.

"The first thing I'd tell Jimmy," said Hayes, "is to get some hitting in practice right away. He hasn't played football in, what, four years? He could be contact-shy. And if you're afraid to be hit, it's all over."

Football scientists have found no more effective way to arrest a Hayes or Hines than by slamming him on his tailbone.

"They key on me. They go after me," said Hayes. "And why not? The opposition wants to win as much as I do. If they let me off by myself, they're going to get beat. It doesn't mean I like being belted, but I've come to respect it, understand it, accept it."

Hayes saw Hines play football once. It was at a Houson playground, and Haves was visiting friends. "I saw Jimmy play catch," said Hayes, "and he looked pretty good. Of course, it's a bit different catching a pass in the pros. You've got to concentrate on the ball, and forget those footsteps behind you.

One difference between the two Haves was a football star at Florida A&M. Hines hasn't played football seriously in four years, since he was a standout at McClymonds High School in Oakland, Calif. "I hope he hasn't lost his football sense," said Hayes. "That could happen after a long layoff."

With Hines in the league, some pressure may be off Hayes. But if it's not one thing, it's another. The other day Hayes saw an envelope taped to his locker. It was addressed to: "Jimmy Hines, World's Fastest Human, Dallas Cowboys, Dallas, Texas."

"One of my teammates put it up," explained Hayes, laughing. "He was feeling sorry for me again."

Namath Runs Show

Parilli Happy On Sideline As Long As Jets Win

By LEE MUELLER
NEA Sports Writer

Babe Parilli

NEW YORK—(NEA)—It is no easy thing Vito (Babe) Parilli does these days. Standing on the sidelines watching younger men play your game is almost as much fun as purchasing burial plots.

Still, as the sun sinks beyond the Hudson River and Parilli stands in the shadows of Shea Stadium with a New York Jets' uniform on his back and a field phone in his hand, it is—he says—worth it.

Babe Parilli is the Jets' second - string quarterback behind Joe Namath, which is to say that he spends enough time on the field phone to qualify for union membership at AT&T.

Parilli, however, is satisfied. "At least with a club like this I am," he says. "It's a winner. We're going for the championship."

You remember Parilli, of course. Namath was just 7 when the Babe was throwing 23 touchdown passes for Kentucky in 1950. When Bart Starr was in high school at Montgomery, Ala., he plastered pictures of Parilli on his bedroom wall.

Professional football was not immediately kind to the Babe. It took 10 years to establish himself as a competent pro quarterback at Boston. Places like Green Bay and Cleveland did not want him.

Now Parilli is 38 years old, an age at which most professional athletes have settled into swivel chairs. Before Jets coach Weeb Ewbank picked him for his backup quarterback this year, the Babe had completed 1,509 of 3,251 passes for 22,143 yards and 171 touchdowns in 13 seasons.

If he is not tired, perhaps he should be. At any rate, unless Namath comes to physical harm, it is doubtful that Parilli will start at quarterback any more.

Once black, curly hair is now flecked with gray and Parilli—at 6-foot, 195 pounds—is a little heavier than he used to be. He admits becoming second string has been a difficult adjustment.

"It's good to be part of a winner, though, you know" he said. "Oh sure, I'd like to play a little, too — it's a natural feeling — but I'm satisfied."

For the Jets' Ewbank, the trade that brought Parilli to the Jets and send young Mike Taliaferro to Boston was ideal. "Mike had been asking to be traded, but until we got the deal for Babe, I wasn't getting what I wanted," he said. "Now we are all happy. Babe's made a very fine contribution to our team."

It was nice, Babe said. "The thing you've got to do is practice hard," he said. "I practice as hard as Joe every day so that if I'm needed, I'll be ready."

On the bench, Parilli keeps up with the game situation with the phones, talking to coaches in the press box, and then to Namath when the Jets are on defense.

"It's great to know you have a man like that ready to come in if something happens to Joe," Sauer said.

As the season grows older, however, most of Parilli's actual playing time will be clocked during field goal attempts and conversion kicks. "I've never seen anyone better at setting up the ball for place kicks," Ewbank said. "He helped our kicker, Jim Turner, immensely."

When the day comes that Parilli decides to quit playing football, he would — he said — like to coach. Ewbank says Babe already is on the way.

Steelers' Campbell Sidelined

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers won their second consecutive game by beating the Atlanta Falcons Sunday but lost two players with injuries, one for the season.

The Steelers said Monday that linebacker John Campbell will miss the rest of the season with a broken left elbow and cornerback Bob Hohn will be sidelined for at least four weeks with a shoulder separation.

Coach Bill Austin said Jerry Hillebrand will take over Campbell's spot. Austin added that linebacker Bill Saul, injured since the start of the season, will be reactivated and defensive back John Foururia recalled from the taxi squad to fill the two vacancies.

Jackpot Shoot Won By Zaplata

John McIntosh and Paul Saling tied for second with 46 of 50 and Ken Alford and Gus Cochran tied for fourth with 43 of 50.

In practice, Zaplata and Tim Mellon hit 24 of 25 and McIntosh 22 of 25. Zaplata won the red bird shoot, Saling won the grouse walk and walk around shoots and Luther Adkins won two turkeys.

The next shoot will be Wednesday night.

Gorgone Has Four Winners At Waterford

Frank Gorgone, a jockey who is licensed in Pennsylvania as a full-fledged barber, rode four winners at Waterford Park Monday night.

Gorgone won with Ann Fan, $16.30 in the second; Rob's Warrior, $63.60 in the third; Ginger's Brother, $63.60 in the sixth, and Johneil, $20.60 in the eighth.

Gorgone almost won the tenth race aboard another longshot named King Soma, but had to be content with a second place finish behind Red Choo Choo.

ANN LANDERS

Forgives, Lives Happily

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Today is my 25th wedding anniversary. I just read the letter from the anguished wife who stumbled over her husband and her younger sister in the backyard.

Your advice to send the sister packing and never mention the affair again was perfect. I hope the woman has the courage to follow it. Perhaps my own experience will give her added strength.

Twenty years ago I also stumbled over my husband, only it wasn't my sister he was with, it was my very closest friend. The occasion was a Fourth of July outing and we were picnicking in the hills.

I was shocked and filled with anger and grief. When I told my mother the next morning I was filing for divorce, she said, "Are you going to divorce a man you love, give up your home, your place in the community and deprive your children of a father because of a cheap little tramp?"

Mother then told me of a similar incident involving my own devoted father. They had been married less than three years when she caught him with a neighbor.

After we both had a good cry, I pulled my shoulders back, painted a smile on my face, and that was the end of my divorce plans.

My husband and I have had a wonderful marriage — some tears, many laughs and five beautiful children. When I think of how close I came to destroying it all, I shudder.

Easy to forgive a cheating husband and never mention it again? No — it was the hardest thing I've ever had to do in my life, but it paid huge dividends. — VICTORIA.

Dear Vic: Your letter was about the 100th I received with the same message. I didn't realize so many wives had stumbled over their husbands in the past 25 years. Thanks to all who wrote and cheers for the victors. The following letter strengthens your case, girls. Read on.

Hasty Decision

Dear Ann: I never thought I'd write to you but that letter from the woman who caught her husband with her younger sister was my story only it wasn't my sister, it was my niece.

My husband swore it never would happen again. He begged me to forgive him, just as the husband of the woman who wrote, but I was so bitter and so incapable of swallowing my pride that I could think of nothing but getting even. I filed for divorce even though my three children begged me not to.

Even after the divorce, my husband tried for two years to win me back but I refused to have anything to do with him. All I wanted was to hurt him more.

Finally he gave up and married a lovely young widow with a small child. He's made a new life for himself and I'm a lonely and miserable woman who allowed her foolish stubbornness and lack of humility to ruin her life.

If you think there's a lesson here for others, print my letter, Ann. Sign me — RIVER OF TEARS.

Dear Tears: I do and I will. Thank you or writing.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Personalities In The News

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski, banned from travel abroad since he angered Communist authorities in 1965, left by train Monday night for a visit to the Vatican.

He was expected to be gone a month or so.

The cardinal, 67, incurred Communist wrath after the Polish bishops addressed a letter of forgiveness and reconciliation to the German bishops during the 1965 Ecumenical Council.

The cardinal was accused of meddling in foreign affairs.

During a five-week jury trial Stroock, who sat in a wheel chair, testified he married 52-year - old Helen Thompson, a former telephone operator, in the Grand Bahamas in October 1964.

Stroock told the court he had been "floating in Scotch" at the time of the wedding.

Helen Thompson Stroock withdrew her objections to the annulment, agreeing to accept $35,000 and to return a diamond ring that had belonged to Stroock's mother.

"I must conclude this was not a marriage made in heaven and it was certainly not a marriage on earth," said Judge Irving H. Saypol.

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP) — Stanley Williams, 50, blind father of seven children, Monday was named the outstanding student at a Staffordshire business college.

Williams, an accountant, came in first among 4,500 students at Wednesdbury College of Commerce and earned a bachelor of law degree with honors.

Williams took his examination after studying from a set of books tape-recorded by his wife, Connie. She was permitted to be in the examination room to read the questions to her husband and write down his answers.

Her physician, Dr. Charles A. Mulry, said she may be hospitalized for up to five weeks.

Butter has been a food since the beginning of recorded history . . . being used not only as a food, but as a medicine, an ointment, and a lamp fuel. One of the first methods of making it consisted of placing cream in skin pouches and hanging these over the backs of trotting horses.

Workable Program's Certification Sought

A mass of forms was forwarded Monday to the Chicago regional office of the Department of Housing and Urban Development asking it to certify again East Liverpool's "workable program" for development — a step which makes the city eligible for federal aid for many types of projects.

Planning Coordinator Don Eckert said he has been working on the recertification move since May. Yesterday's action amounts to an updated summary of all the steps the city has taken to qualify for federal aid — things such as enactment of building and zoning codes and establishing a housing inspector's office.

The forms restate the city's goals, the actons it has proposed and the progress it has achieved in reaching the goals. The "workable program" first received federal certification in October 1966.

The term "Papal States" embraced the land in Italy over which the Roman Catholic Church formerly had temporal power. Today it is only the 105-acre Vatican City.

The DOCTOR Says

Medical Costs Are On The Rise

In these times of creeping inflation, many persons are complaining about the cost of medical care. Let's take a minute to examine the facts and the reasons for the increases. In 1940, a complete medical workup (initial history, physical examination and simple laboratory tests) by your doctor cost $25. A surgeon charged about $500 for a major operation that required an average of eight days in the hospital and the loss of three or four weeks from work.

TODAY THE CHARGE for an initial workup is still $25. The preoperative care, operative technique and postoperative care have improved to the point where, although the same operation that formerly cost $500 now costs about $525, only three days in the hospital and a week away from work are required.

—:—

ALTHOUGH THE doctor's living expenses, office rent and equipment now cost him far more than they did 28 years ago and although the stamps to mail out his bills cost twice what they cost 10 years ago, he has absorbed these costs and has raised his fees, if at all, far less than any other group.

—:—

WHY, THEN ARE medical costs rising? One reason is that technological advances in the broad field of medicine are expensive. A $75,000 apparatus that costs $25,000 to install can detect a tumor the size of a pea. Without this equipment it would not be diagnosed until it had become as large as a lemon. Granted this test is costly, it is also lifesaving and represents greatly improved service to you as a patient.

—:—

THE OTHER CHIEF reason for increased costs has to do with hospital care. Hospitals are usually nonprofit organizations and can't absorb increases in their operating costs — they must be passed on to you or the hospital must close its doors. Medicare was introduced to help relieve this burden on persons who are over 65. Persons who are not yet eligible for Medicare should avail themselves of one of the voluntary health insurance plans that are offered.

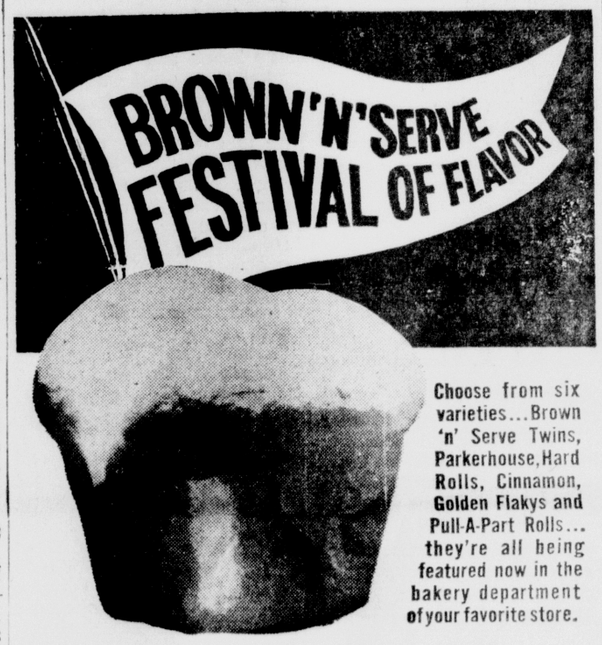

—:—

Q—What is meant by hypercholesterolemia and hypothyroidism?

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

No Agreement Among Candidates

Behind-Scenes Operation Looms In Electoral Fight

By DICK BARNES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Campaign oratory is likely to give way to behind-the-scenes maneuvering on one or perhaps two levels if today's election fails to produce a clear-cut Electoral College winner.

There has been no agreement among the three presidential candidates about what should be done if one of them fails to get the needed 270 electoral votes.

Republican Richard M. Nixon has challenged Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey to agree in advance to support the popular vote winner if the election goes to the House.

Humphrey said he has always favored direct popular election of the president—which would require a constitutional amendment.

Until one can be passed, he has said he stands behind the constitutional procedure that provides for election by the House if no candidate wins a majority in the Electoral College.

George C. Wallace says the matter will never go to the House but will be settled, if necessary, by the electors themselves who meet and vote Dec. 16 in their respective states.

The maneuvering, however, that is likely to occur will involve first the Electoral College itself whose 538 members won t vote until Dec. 16. It will take 270 electoral votes—a simple majority—for a presidential candidate to win.

The next target of maneuvering would be the New House of Representatives, which will inherit the task of picking a president if the Electoral College can't do it.

The slates of candidates for elector have said which presidential nominee they favor. The slate supporting the nominee who wins the most popular votes in each state gets to cast all that state's electoral votes.

If Richard M. Nixon, Hubert H. Humphrey or George C. Wallace wins in states with 270 or more electoral votes, the electoral college proceedings are a formality.

In only 16 states and the District of Columbia are the electors actually pledged to follow their state's popular vote. Wallace's electors in many states have pledged to do what he says. Thus, if Wallace told his electors to vote for Nixon or Humphrey, that could create an electoral majority despite the popular vote.

There would be 41 days for bargaining or changes of mind.

On Dec. 16, the electors meet in their respective state capitals to vote. The outcome presumably will be known almost immediately, although the official ballots are not tabulated until Jan. 6 at a joint session of Congress. There is no provision for a second electoral college ballot if no majority is reached on the first.

He said that the 1878 law places in Congress "the final say whether to honor an electoral vote cast for a candidate other than the candidate of his party."

If the Electoral College deadlocks, the House of Representatives would immediately ballot to pick a president. Each state delegation would get one vote and 26 votes would be required to elect a president.

The fact that one party holds a majority of the 435-member House is no guarantee its seats would be distributed within the states so as to guarantee the 26 votes. Additionally, at least 85 candidates with a good chance of election have said they would vote for the popular vote winner in their district, state or the nation rather than necessarily for their party's nominee.

Paralleling this procedure would be selection of a vice president. If the electoral college could not produce 270 votes for Spiro T. Agnew, Edmund S. Muskie or Curtis E. LeMay, the Senate would have to pick the vice president.

But while the House would ballot among the top three finishers in the electoral college presidential balloting, the Senate would be allowed to select only between the top two in vice presidential voting.

If the House were deadlocked over the presidency at noon, Jan. 20—Inauguration Day—the vice president-elect would become acting president until the deadlock is resolved.

If the Senate also were deadlocked, the speaker of the House would become acting president after resigning as speaker and as a member of Congress. Next to him in succession would be the president pro tem of the Senate.

It picked Thomas Jefferson in 1801 over Aaron Burr, who was then made vice president.

Local Proposals On Ballot

U.S. Voters To Settle Hundreds Of Questions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Californians can grant themselves tax cuts, New Hampshire may give up the right to declare war, and Tuesday is a day of decision in semi-dry Utah where a liquor-by-the-drink question is on the ballot.

Two other states, Hawaii and Nebraska, decide whether to lower the voting age, while Washington state votes on whether traffic policemen should administer breath and blood tests to drinking drivers.

These and hundreds of other questions will be settled by Americans in about three-fourths of the states with local proposals on the election ballot.

New Jersey voters will decide whether to float that state's biggest bond issue in history—$990 million—to pay or low income housing, education facilities and public transportation.

That's not as big as a money issue in Illinois, where a decision must be made on a $1 billion proposal for water and air pollution control, development of water resources, and a water-recreation program.

Virginians, who have never before borrowed money to finance public projects, will decide on an $81 million bond issue for education and mental hospitals.

In California, homeowners can vote themselves property assessment exemptions which would mean paying $70 less a year in taxes. There's a proposal, too, to eliminate the personal property tax, and an opportunity to double the standard deduction on the state's income tax.

Since 1784, New Hampshire's governor has had the right to declare war independent of the U.S. Congress. He can "pursue (the enemy) by force of arms, as well as by sea as by land, within and without the limits of this state."

Georgia is trying, through the ballot box, to prevent a repetition of the three-candidate impasse of the 1966 gubernatorial race, settled by the legislature's election of Gov. Lester Maddox.

Pennsylvania votes on a money issue to provide Vietnam veterans with bonuses, and out West, in Arizona, the elecorate will decide whether or not to phase out tax exemptions given World War II veterans.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

A.—Try applying iodine, and when this has dried, rubbing over it with furniture polish—and usually the scratches will be almost invisible.

Q.—How can I make a good adhesive for sticking cut - out gold-paper letters or similar designs to glassware?

A.—You can make a very good adhesive by dissolving a few medical capsules in warm water — just enough water to make a thick solution.

Q.—How can I remove paint that has been spilled on concrete floors or driveways?

Q. — What have you to say about the idea of soaking clothes before laundering them?

A. — Don't soak them so long that the dirt is distributed through the fabrics. If soaking overnight, be sure the sudsy water is cold, or your clothes will take on a poor color.

Q. — What do you especially recommend for washing windows?

A. — I like a mixture of water and ammonia. This does a fine job of cutting grease, dries quickly, and leaves a nice gloss on the glass.

Moore Takes Action Against Libel Suit

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., the Republican candidate for governor, has filed a motion in Kanawha Circuit Court asking that he be dimissed as a party to a $5 million libel suit filed by his Democratic opponent.

The suit was filed by James W. Sprouse against Moore, The Charleston Daily Mail and its political editor, Robert Mellace.

Moore's motion contends that the complaint contains no averment of any fact which tend to "support the vague, indefinite and uncertain allegation of a conspiracy between the defendant Moore and other defendants."

The motion also said the complaint does not contain allegations connecting Moore with any publication of or concerning Sprouse. Moore also contended malice by him was not alleged.

County Jail At Lisbon Books 111 Prisoners

LISBON — The Columbiana County jail booked 111 prisoners during October in addition to the 39 confined as of Oct. 1, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan reports.

Cooks at the jail served 3,801 meals at a total cost of $1,574.86. The average daily food cost per prisoner was $1.24, the sheriff said. There were 284 visitors at the jail last month.

Deputies served 369 papers and handled 4,687 radio transmissions and 1,622 telephone calls. Fees totaling $988.23 were collected.

Ohio State Narrows Southern Cal Lead To 13 Points

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Wintersville's dream of a high state ranking was shattered by the Warren Harding Panthers Saturday night when Warren won 43-13.

The Warriors started off briskly, and led 7-6. It was 14-13 Warren after only six minutes had elapsed, but from there on it was all downhill for Bob Kettlewell's team.

The powerful All-American conference is almost sure to wind up with a tie for the title. Warren Harding, Canton McKinley, Massillon and Niles have lost only one game each, while Steubenville and Alliance are winless. Warren hosts Niles and Massillon hosts Canton. Niles has played one less game, so if the Red Dragons top Warren the winner of the Massillon-Canton game takes the title.

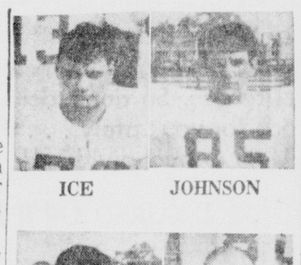

McDONALD of the Inter-County League has completed its season unbeaten, averaging 45.1 points a game and yielding 4.0.

WEST VIRGINIA U. is pushing Carl Crennel, Mike Sherwood and Oscar Patrick for national recognition. For some unknown reason, the release is headed "Georgia Tech's Potential All-America Players."

FORMER East Liverpool coach Jim Render attended the Potters' 24-13 win over Bellaire St. John's Friday. Render, now attending West Virginia U. in pursuit of a master's degree, scouts for the Mountaineers. He said he will fly to Davidson to scout The Citadel Saturday.

BEAVER LOCAL'S Dennis Klembara had another good day as Youngstown U. snapped a five-game losing streak Saturday with an 18-15 upset of Southern Illinois. Klembara hit 24 of 43 passes for 333 yards and two touchdowns.

E. Liverpool Takes Lead In Scoring

ICE JOHNSON

CRANSTON COCHRAN

East Liverpool took over the lead in scoring among area teams, with a 28.9 average per game. Southern Local is next at 28.5.

Beaver Local widened its defense lead with a shutout, lowering its average to 9.0. East Palestine is next at 10.6.

Individually, Southern's Rich Rose is still comfortably ahead in the scoring race, though Leetonia's Ken DiCross scored eight points. DiCross would need 34 points next week to catch Rose, who is idled by a broken leg.

Cranston Offensive Back Of Week

Floyd Cranston was named offensive back of the week for the first time this season after the East Liverpool coaching staff reviewed the films of the 24-13 win over Bellaire St. John's.

Cranston, playing a position with which he was not too familiar, gained 29 yards in five carries and caught four passes for 29 yards. He also faked well, and was so outstanding at his middle guard spot on defense that he hearly got the defensive lineman award, which went to Stanley Ice.

John Johnson was again defensive back of the week, with two interceptions and some good tackles. Don Cochran was named offensive lineman of the week.

The coaches were also pleased with the punting of Dan Cunningham, who averaged 38.3 yards in the absence of regular punter Tom Chambers. Chambers, sidelined with a knee injury, is unlikely to play in the season's finale against Alliance.

Monroe Tops NBA Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Baltimore'a Earl Monroe remains the National Basketball Association's top point-producer, but Los Angeles' Elgin Baylor has replaced Dave Bing of Detroit as the top per-game shooter.

Monroe, last season's rookie of the year, had scored 300 points in 11 games through Sunday for a 27.3 average, according to league statistics released today.

Baylor had 249 points in eight games for a 31.1 mark, while Bing, last year's scoring king, had 247 in eight games for a 30.9 average.

Wilt Chamberlain of Los Angeles remained the top floor shooter with 81 of 119 tries for a .681 percentage. New York's Walt Frazier has converted 31 of 34 free throw attempts for .912.

Kansas, Penn St. Retain 3rd, 4th

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California and Ohio State had close calls Saturday but the Trojans suffered most in The Associated Press weekly college football poll.

They didn't lose their No. 1 national ranking but their number of first-place votes dropped from 24 to 19 and their lead over the second-ranked Buckeyes shrank from 64 points to a mere 13.

Southern California needed a touchdown pass with 1:13 remaining to squeeze past stubborn Oregon 20-13. The Trojans piled up 816 points in the balloting by 45 sports writers and broadcasters.

Ohio State tallied 14 first-place votes and 803 points after holding off Michigan State, No. 17 in this week's poll, 25-20.

Kansas retained third place with 10 first-place votes and 758 points. The other first-place ballots went to fourth-ranked Penn State with 588 points and No. 5 Tennessee with 541. There was no change in the top six teams as Purdue polled 415 points.

In Saturday's games, Kansas beat Colorado 27-14, Penn State edged Army 28-24, Tennessee walloped UCLA 42-18 and Purdue thrashed Illinois 35-17.

Georgia, seventh a week ago, dropped to ninth after tying 13th-ranked Houston 10-10 and California fell from eighth to 11th following a 7-7 deadlock with Washington.

Michigan moved up from ninth to seventh via a 35-0 rout of Northwestern, and Missouri climbed from 10th to eighth after belting Oklahoma State 42-7. Texas took over the 10th spot following a 38-7 drubbing of Southern Methodist.

California barely led the Second Ten by nine points over Notre Dame, which clobbered Navy 45-14.

After Houston in 13th place came Arkansas, 25-22 winner over Texas A&M; Oregon State, which whipped Stanford 29-7; unbeaten Ohio University, 34-27 winner over Western Michigan; Michigan State; Auburn, which upset Florida 24-13; Wyoming which romped past Colorado State U. 46-14, and Louisiana State.

Central Division Wide-Open

Packers Must Scramble For Fourth NFL Title

By BOB GREENE
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — A fourth consecutive National Football League championship still is the goal for the Green Bay Packers. Yet they seem to be going about it in an unusual manner.

"It looks as if we might lose our way into the Central Division title," a Packer said following Sunday's 13-10 loss to the Chicago Bears.

That defeat knocked the Packers out of a share of the division lead with a 3-4-1 record. But former co-leader Detroit also lost.

Now Chicago and Minnesota are tied for first. But both have four defeats to go along with four victories.

Although it's still anybody's race, Packers' Coach Phil Bengtson sees a hard road ahead for his team with only six games left in the regular season.

"We have to win them all," Bengtson said. "And the other people have to lose some."

That might not be so easy. The Packers have to play, in order, Minnesota, New Orleans, Washington, San Francisco, Baltimore and Chicago.

But a final deadlock with Detroit would send the Lions to the playoffs. In case of a tie, under league rules, the team that scored the most points in their two-game series would get the nod. Detroit downed the Packers in their first meeting and fought to a tie in the rematch.

Hurt by numerous injuries to their defensive linemen this season, the Packers also have suffered from poor field goal kicking. It's a problem that Bengtson and his staff are trying desperately to solve.

"We had a big discussion on that," Bengtson said, referring to three missed field goals in the Chicago game. "We're definitely going to have to do something."

"We haven't given up on Erroll Mann," Bengtson said of the latest placekicker, who was added to the squad only last week. "But we haven't decided about next week."

Lady Potters Meeting Tomorrow

The Lady Potter Boosters Club will meet tomorrow night at 8 p.m. at the home of Mary Alice House on Orchard Grove Ave.

All football mothers are invited to the meeting and to the Lady Potter banquet, to be held Nov. 12 at the East Liverpool Country Club. All reservations for the banquet must be made by tomorrow night.

Cracked Ribs Sideline Bill Glass

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Bill Glass, an 11-year defensive end with the Cleveland Browns, will be out 6 to 8 weeks with two cracked ribs, it was announced Monday.

Glass was injured Sunday in the Browns' victory over San Francisco and X-rays revealed the fractures. A Browns' spokesman said it was possible but not likely, that Glass could be ready for any playoff games Cleveland might be in after the regular Natonal Football League season.

Jack Gregory, a second year man, replaced Glass against the 49ers and probably will start against New Orleans next Sunday.

Reserves Lose To Ursuline

The Potters penetrated the 15 twice, but once lost the ball on a fumble and once were set back by a penalty.

Cage Officials Set Meeting Tomorrow

There will be a basketball rules interpretation meeting tomorrow night at 7 p.m. at the East Liverpool YMCA, sponsored by the Columbiana County Officials Association.

Bob Brown of the Northeastern District will be the interpreter. All Ohio coaches must attend this meeting or a similar one to give their teams eligibility to play in the state tournament.

Passing Attack Paces Ohio State's Success

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Woody Hayes has taken a hard look at the statistical sheet covering Ohio State's first six games and likes what he sees.

"The most amazing thing about our football season to date is our great receivers," Hayes told his weekly luncheon Monday.

The top four receivers are Bruce Jankowski, Jan White, Larry Zelina and Jim Otis but a total of 10 Buckeyes have caught passes this season.

"They (the opponents) sure have to cover a lot of them," Hayes noted. "And look at our passing. Name me two other sophomores in the country who are over 50 per cent?"

Hayes was talking about quarterbacks Rex Kern, who has complete 56 of 96 for 747 yards, and Ron Maciejowski, who has hit 12 of 23 or 234 yards.

The unbeaten Bucks are led by Otts' 48 points but a dozen others have cracked the point column.

"That's why we're a better team. All these things emphasize team play and that's what we're after. That's what makes good football teams," Hayes decided.

Maybe Hayes was thinking about last year when his Bucks barely edged the Badgers 17-15. Wisconsin, 0-9-1 a year ago, is 0-7 this season.

Coach John Coatta's team has been blanked by Michigan State, Utah and Iowa and only scored one touchdown in two other games. But the Badgers have looked better in their last two starts, losing to Northwestern 13 - 10 before last week's one-point setback to the Hoosiers, 21-20.

Hayes singled out Larry Zelina for the second straight week as the top offensive player in the 25 - 20 decision over Michigan State. Jankowski, who caught passes, was the best lineman.

Maciejowski, who gave a good account of himself as Kern's replacement against the Spartans, likely will start against the Badgers.

Kern, who suffered an ankle injury "is a fast healer but probably won't be ready," Hayes said. "But don't bet on it," he added.

Hawkins Scores 43 As Pipers Win 4th

By The Associated Press

Jimmy Rayl just missed a desperation shot from the three-point area as the gun sounded Monday night, and the unbeaten Minnesota Pipers squeezed past the Indiana Pacers 121-120 for their fourth American Basketball Association victory.

All other teams in the league were idle, while San Francisco whipped Phoenix 119-108 in the night's only National Basketball Association match.

The victory kept Minnesota as pro basketball's only unbeaten outfit, and boosted to 1½ games its lead over Kentucky in the ABA's Eastern Division.

Rayl missed the shot that would have won for the Pacers after scoring 11 of his 13 points in a rally that helped Indiana cut a 15-point deficit in the final six minutes. He had scored two three-point baskets from beyond the 25-foot range in the closing surge.

San Francisco utilized the scoring of Rudy LaRusso, Nate Thurmond and Jeff Mullins in its conquest of Phoenix. LaRusso and Thurmond accounted for 28 points each while Mullins contribted 26 to the Warriors' attack.

Upper Arlington Ups Poll Lead

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Defending Class AA champion Upper Arlington charged out to a commanding lead in the weekly Associated Press high school football rankings today.

The unbeaten Golden Bears, sporting a perfect 9-0 record, collected 190 points from the sports writers and sportscasters who vote in the poll.

The final ratings will be announced next week.

Coach Marv Moorehead's powerhouse pulled away to a 31-point advantage, its largest of the season, on the strength of a 61-12 romp over Marietta.

Mentor, also unbeaten in nine starts, moved up a notch to second on 150 points while Elyria, 9-0, is in third place on 124.

Canton McKinley, which has lost only to Niles McKinley, vaulted from seventh to fourth after handing second - ranked Warren Western Reserve its first setback, 27-12. That loss dropped Reserve to sixth behind Struthers, 8-0.

Cincinnati St. Xavier, 9-0, is seventh, followed by Shelby, 9-0. Cleveland St. Joseph, 9-0, and Warren Harding, 7 - 2, which moved into the charmed circle after walloping previously unbeaten Wintersville, 43-13.

Wintersville, ninth last week, tumbled to 13th.

Arlington finishes Friday at Lancaster while Mentor closes against Eastlake North. Elyria faces rugged Lorain Senior in its windup while Canton McKinley has its traditional tussle with Massillon Saturday.

In Class A, Newark Catholic continues to hold first place with 168 points, 13 more than garnered by Norwalk St. Paul. Cory-Rawson is 28 points behind in third place.

Mikita, Hull Leaders In NHL Score Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita, the Chicago Black Hawks' dynamic scoring duo, share the National Hockey League individual point lead today after three full weeks of season play.

Hull, the NHL goal-soring king for the past three years, has collected nine goals and as many assists in nine games for a total of 18 points, according to official league figures released today.

Jim Pappin of the Black Hawks is fourth with 15 points, followed by veterans Jean Beliveau of Montreal and Gordie Howe of Detroit with 14 apiece.

Montreal's Rogatien Vachon and Gump Worsley, who captured the Vezina Trophy last season, have moved into the goal-tending lead.

Ole Miss Soph Manning AP Back Of The Week

Manning fired 40 passes, completing 24 for 344 yards, scored one touchdown himself and threw for two more, including a nine-yard strike to Steve Hindman with 55 seconds remaining that gave Mississippi a 27-24 upset victory over the Tigers.

Today, the 6-foot-3, 190-pound youngster was selected college football's Back of the Week by The Associated Press.

Manning, held out of practice until midweek because of a rib injury suffered during Ole Miss' previous game against Houston, tossed a 65-yard touchdown bomb to Floyd Franks as the Rebs rallied from a 17-3 deficit to go ahead 20-17 in the fourth quarter.

Then, with time running out, LSU regained the lead on Kenny Newfield's 11-yard touchdown run. But hte Rebs mounted a last-ditch drive from their 25, Bo Bowen scampering 17 yards before Manning hit on four passes, the last to Hindman for the winning score.

Vaught calls the 19-year-old soph the best quarterback prospect "I've ever had . . . and I've had some good ones."

Among others, he's had Charley Conerly, Eagle Day, Jake Gibbs and Glynn Griffing . . . so it's about the highest praise Manning could ask for.

Two other soph quarterbacks from Dixie, South Carolina's Tommy Suggs and Duke's Leo Hart, pressed Manning for weekly honors while engineering upset victories and North Texas State senior Steve Ramsey went on a devastating long ball spree against Cincinnati.

Suggs tossed five touchdown passes, setting an Atlantic Coach Conference record, as the Gamecocks ambushed Virginia 49-28. The 5-foot-9 flash connected on 14 of 15 attempts for 312 yards.

Hart triggered Duke's 46-30 conquest of Georgia Tech by completing 15 of 21 passes for 237 yards and one touchdown and running 11 yards for another score.

Ramsey threw five scoring strikes as North Texas State flattened Cincinnati 55-34. He wound up with 433 yards on 13 completions ... an average gain of 33 yards.

Namath Runs Show

Parilli Happy On Sideline As Long As Jets Win

By LEE MUELLER
NEA Sports Writer

NEW YORK—(NEA)—It is no easy thing Vito (Babe) Parilli does these days. Standing on the sidelines watching younger men play your game is almost as much fun as purchasing burial plots.

Still, as the sun sinks beyond the Hudson River and Parilli stands in the shadows of Shea Stadium with a New York Jets' uniform on his back and a field phone in his hand, it is—he says—worth it.

Babe Parilli is the Jets' second-string quarterback behind Joe Namath, which is to say that he spends enough time on the field phone to qualify for union membership at AT&T.

Babe Parilli

Parilli, however, is satisfied. "At least with a club like this, I am," he says. "It's a winner. We're going for the championship."

You remember Parilli, of course. Namath was just 7 when the Babe was throwing 23 touchdown passes for Kentucky in 1950. When Bart Starr was in high school at Montgomery, Ala., he plastered pictures of Parilli on his bedroom wall.

Professional football was not immediately kind to the Babe. It took 10 years to establish himself as a competent pro quarterback at Boston. Places like Green Bay and Cleveland did not want him.

Now Parilli is 38 years old, an age at which most professional athletes have settled into swivel chairs. Before Jets coach Weeb Ewbank picked him for his backup quarterback this year, the Babe had completed 1,509 of 3,251 passes for 22,143 yards and 171 touchdowns in 13 seasons.

If he is not tired, perhaps he should be. At any rate, unless Namath comes to physical harm, it is doubtful that Parilli will start at quarterback any more.

Once black, curly hair is now flecked with gray and Parilli—at 6-foot, 195 pounds—is a little heavier than he used to be. He admits becoming second string has been a difficult adjustment.

"It's good to be part of a winner, though, you know" he said. "Oh sure, I'd like to play a little, too — it's a natural feeling — but I'm satisfied."

For the Jets' Ewbank, the trade that brought Parilli to the Jets and send young Mike Taliaferro to Boston was ideal. "Mike had been asking to be traded, but until we got the deal for Babe, I wasn't getting what I wanted." he said. "Now we are all happy. Babe's made a very fine contribution to our team."

It was nice, Babe said. "The thing you've got to do is practice hard," he said. "I practice as hard as Joe every day so that if I'm needed, I'll be ready."

On the bench, Parilli keeps up with the game situation with the phones, talking to coaches in the press box, and then to Namath when the Jets are on defense.

"It's great to know you have a man like that ready to come in if something happens to Joe," Sauer said.

As the season grows older, however, most of Parilli's actual playing time will be clocked during field goal attempts and conversion kicks. "I've never seen anyone better at setting up the ball for place kicks," Ewbank said. "He helped our kicker, Jim Turner, immensely."

When the day comes that Parilli decides to quit playing football, he would — he said — like to coach. Ewbank says Babe already is on the way.

Steelers' Campbell Sidelined

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers won their second consecutive game by beating the Atlanta Falcons Sunday but lost two players with injuries, one for the season.

The Steelers said Monday that linebacker John Campbell will miss the rest of the season with a broken left elbow and cornerback Bob Hohn will be sidelined for at least four weeks with a shoulder separation.

Coach Bill Austin said Jerry Hillebrand will take over Campbell's spot. Austin added that linebacker Bill Saul, injured since the start of the season, will be reactivated and defensive back John Foururia recalled from the taxi squad to fill the two vacancies.

Jackpot Shoot Won By Zaplata

John McIntosh and Paul Saling tied for second with 46 of 50 and Ken Alford and Gus Cochran tied for fourth with 43 of 50.

In practice, Zaplata and Tim Mellon hit 24 of 25 and McIntosh 22 of 25. Zaplata won the red bird shoot, Saling won the grouse walk and walk around shoots and Luther Adkins won two turkeys.

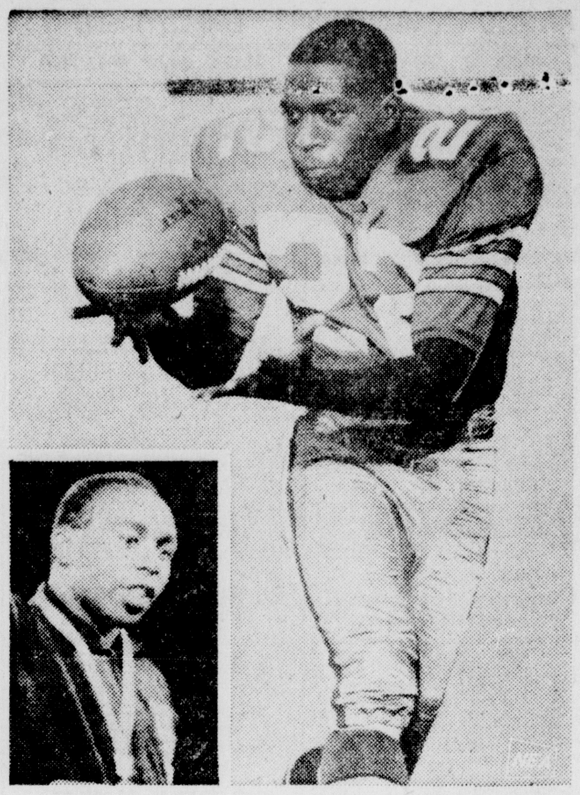

The next shoot will be Wednesday night.

Hines' Speed No Surety Of Pro Football Stardom

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Columnist

NEW YORK—(NEA)—It was the day after Jimmy Hines won the gold medal in Mexico City by running 100 meters in 9.9 seconds, breaking the Olympic record of 10.0.

In Dallas, Cowboy split end Bob Hayes, who set the record in the 1965 Olympics, trotted onto the practice field. He was immediately encircled by teammates. Their heads were hung in mock sorrow and they patted him on the back.

"What's happening?" asked Hayes. "What did I do wrong?"

One of the players replied with a tremor in his voice, "We're sorry, Bob."

"Sorry about what?"

The man who wins the 100-meter race is designated the World's Fastest Human, just as the decathlon winner is the World's Greatest Athlete and the carnival's bearded lady is tre World's Hairiest Dame. The world is fond of dropping titles on people, and sometimes those titles become very heavy to lug around.

Bob Hayes thinks this will be so with Jimmy Hines, as it was for him. Hines recently signed a professional football contract with the Miami Dolphins, just as Hayes did with Dallas after his Olympic triumph. Hayes was an immediate sensation, and has been named to the Pro Bowl game each season.

"Tremendous pressure will be on Jimmy," said Hayes. "Everybody will come into the stadium and will watch Jimmy. They'll forget the Dolphins. They'll expect Jimmy to outrun everybody, every time, every game.

"He's going to be so anxious to do it, he may forget about controlling his speed. He's got to ease up to make the turns and cuts. No one can go full speed and run the patterns right. Not even a slow guy."

Certainly it requires more than the quickness of a blink to make it big in pro football. Ask Ray Norton or Frank Budd, one-time nominees for the speed title. It takes the ability to absorb punishment, to catch passes and to read defenses.

"The first thing I'd tell Jimmy," said Hayes, "is to get some hitting in practice right away. He hasn't played football in, what, four years? He could be contact-shy. And if you're afraid to be hit, it's all over."

Football scientists have found no more effective way to arrest a Hayes or Hines than by slamming him on his tailbone.

"They key on me. They go after me," said Hayes. "And why not? The opposition wants to win as much as I do. If they let me off by myself, they're going to get beat. It doesn't mean I like being belted, but I've come to respect it, understand it, accept it."

Hayes saw Hines play football once. It was at a Houson playground, and Haves was visiting friends. "I saw Jimmy play catch," said Hayes, "and he looked pretty good. Of course, it's a bit different catching a pass in the pros. You've got to concentrate on the ball, and forget those footsteps behind you.

One difference between the two Haves was a football star at Florida A&M. Hines hasn't played football seriously in four years, since he was a standout at McClymonds High School in Oakland, Calif. "I hope he hasn't lost his football sense," said Hayes. "That could happen after a long layoff."

With Hines in the league, some pressure may be off Hayes. But if it's not one thing, it's another. The other day Hayes saw an envelope taped to his locker. It was addressed to: "Jimmy Hines, World's Fastest Human, Dallas Cowboys, Dallas, Texas."

"One of my teammates put it up," explained Hayes, laughing. "He was feeling sorry for me again."

VERN STEPHENS, veteran American League infielder, died of a heart attack yesterday in Long Beach, Cal. Stephens played in the majors in the 1940s and 1950s, and sparked the St. Louis Browns to their only pennant in history in 1944. He was 48. (UPI Telephoto)

Gorgone Has Four Winners At Waterford

Frank Gorgone, a jockey who is licensed in Pennsylvania as a full-fledged barber, rode four winners at Waterford Park Monday night.

Gorgone won with Ann Fan, $16.30 in the second; Rob's Warrior, $63.60 in the third; Cinder's Brother, $63.60 in the sixth, and Johneil, $20.60 in the eighth.

Gorgone almost won the tenth race aboard another longshot named King Soma, but had to be content with a second place finish behind Red Choo Choo.

No Agreement Among Candidates

Behind-Scenes Operation Looms In Electoral Fight

By DICK BARNES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Campaign oratory is likely to give way to behind-the-scenes maneuvering on one or perhaps two levels if today's election fails to produce a clear-cut Electoral College winner.

There has been no agreement among the three presidential candidates about what should be done if one of them fails to get the needed 270 electoral votes.

Republican Richard M. Nixon has challenged Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey to agree in advance to support the popular vote winner if the election goes to the House.

Humphrey said he has always favored direct popular election of the president—which would require a constitutional amendment.

Until one can be passed, he has said he stands behind the constitutional procedure that provides for election by the House if no candidate wins a majority in the Electoral College.

George C. Wallace says the matter will never go to the House but will be settled, if necessary, by the electors themselves who meet and vote Dec. 16 in their respective states.

The maneuvering, however, that is likely to occur will involve first the Electoral College itself whose 538 members won t vote until Dec. 16. It will take 270 electoral votes—a simple majority—for a presidential candidate to win.

The next target of maneuvering would be the New House of Representatives, which will inherit the task of picking a president if the Electoral College can't do it.

When the public votes tonight, it expresses its presidential preference but actually picks slates of electors in each state.

The slates of candidates for elector have said which presidential nominee they favor. The slate supporting the nominee who wins the most popular votes in each state gets to cast all that state's electoral votes.

If Richard M. Nixon, Hubert H. Humphrey or George C. Wallace wins in states with 270 or more electoral votes, the electoral college proceedings are a formality.

But if there is no immediate apparent majority after the popular voting, the dickering can begin.

In only 16 states and the District of Columbia are the electors actually pledged to follow their state's popular vote. Wallace's electors in many states have pledged to do what he says. Thus, if Wallace told his electors to vote for Nixon or Humphrey, that could create an electoral majority despite the popular vote.

There would be 41 days for bargaining or changes of mind.

On Dec. 16, the electors meet in their respective state capitals to vote. The outcome presumably will be known almost immediately, although the official ballots are not tabulated until Jan. 6 at a joint session of Congress. There is no provision for a second electoral college ballot if no majority is reached on the first.

However, a leading law expert, Harvard Prof. Paul Freund said Monday that a 90-year-old law might prevent switching of positions among electors.

He said that the 1878 law places in Congress "the final say whether to honor an electoral vote cast for a candidate other than the candidate of his party."

If the Electoral College deadlocks, the House of Representatives would immediately ballot to pick a president. Each state delegation would get one vote and 26 votes would be required to elect a president.

The fact that one party holds a majority of the 435-member House is no guarantee its seats would be distributed within the states so as to guarantee the 26 votes. Additionally, at least 85 candidates with a good chance of election have said they would vote for the popular vote winner in their district, state or the nation rather than necessarily for their party's nominee.

Paralleling this procedure would be selection of a vice president. If the electoral college could not produce 270 votes for Spiro T. Agnew, Edmund S. Muskie or Curtis E. LeMay, the Senate would have to pick the vice president.

But while the House would ballot among the top three finishers in the electoral college presidential balloting, the Senate would be allowed to select only between the top two in vice presidential voting.

If the House were deadlocked over the presidency at noon, Jan. 20—Inauguration Day—the vice president-elect would become acting president until the deadlock is resolved.

If the Senate also were deadlocked, the speaker of the House would become acting president after resigning as speaker and as a member of Congress. Next to him in succession would be the president pro tem of the Senate.

The House twice has selected the president following electoral college deadlocks.

It picked Thomas Jefferson in 1801 over Aaron Burr, who was then made vice president.

Local Proposals On Ballot

U.S. Voters To Settle Hundreds Of Questions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Californians can grant themselves tax cuts, New Hampshire may give up the right to declare war, and Tuesday is a day of decision in semi-dry Utah where a liquor-by-the-drink question is on the ballot.

Two other states, Hawaii and Nebraska, decide whether to lower the voting age, while Washington state votes on whether traffic policemen should administer breath and blood tests to drinking drivers.

These and hundreds of other questions will be settled by Americans in about three-fourths of the states with local proposals on the election ballot.

New Jersey voters will decide whether to float that state's biggest bond issue in history—$990 million—to pay or low income housing, education facilities and public transportation.

That's not as big as a money issue in Illinois, where a decision must be made on a $1 billion proposal for water and air pollution control, development of water resources, and a water-recreation program.

Virginians, who have never before borrowed money to finance public projects, will decide on an $81 million bond issue for education and mental hospitals.

In California, homeowners can vote themselves property assessment exemptions which would mean paying $70 less a year in taxes. There's a proposal, too, to eliminate the personal property tax, and an opportunity to double the standard deduction on the state's income tax.

Since 1784, New Hampshire's governor has had the right to declare war independent of the U.S. Congress. He can "pursue (the enemy) by force of arms, as well as by sea as by land, within and without the limits of this state."

Nearly 200 years later, New Hampshire votes whether or not to retain the ancient statute.

Georgia is trying, through the ballot box, to prevent a repetition of the three-candidate impasse of the 1966 gubernatorial race, settled by the legislature's election of Gov. Lester Maddox.

Pennsylvania votes on a money issue to provide Vietnam veterans with bonuses, and out West, in Arizona, the elecorate will decide whether or not to phase out tax exemptions given World War II veterans.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

A.—Try applying iodine, and when this has dried, rubbing over it with furniture polish—and usually the scratches will be almost invisible.

Q.—How can I make a good adhesive for sticking cut - out gold-paper letters or similar designs to glassware?

A.—You can make a very good adhesive by dissolving a few medical capsules in warm water — just enough water to make a thick solution.

Q.—How can I remove paint that has been spilled on concrete floors or driveways?

A.—By scrubbing with a strong solution of lye water, then rinsing the concrete well with clear water.

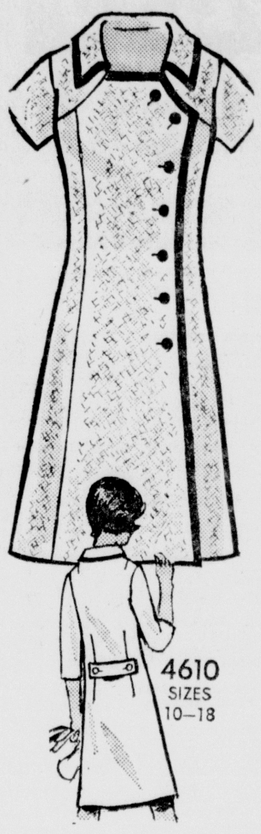

Q. — What have you to say about the idea of soaking clothes before laundering them?

A. — Don't soak them so long that the dirt is distributed through the fabrics. If soaking overnight, be sure the sudsy water is cold, or your clothes will take on a poor color.

Q. — What do you especially recommend for washing windows?

A. — I like a mixture of water and ammonia. This does a fine job of cutting grease, dries quickly, and leaves a nice gloss on the glass.

Moore Takes Action Against Libel Suit

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., the Republican candidate for governor, has filed a motion in Kanawha Circuit Court asking that he be dimissed as a party to a $5 million libel suit filed by his Democratic opponent.

The suit was filed by James W. Sprouse against Moore, The Charleston Daily Mail and its political editor, Robert Mellace.

Moore's motion contends that the complaint contains no averment of any fact which tend to "support the vague, indefinite and uncertain allegation of a conspiracy between the defendant Moore and other defendants."

The motion also said the complaint does not contain allegations connecting Moore with any publication of or concerning Sprouse. Moore also contended malice by him was not alleged.

County Jail At Lisbon Books 111 Prisoners

LISBON — The Columbiana County jail booked 111 prisoners during October in addition to the 39 confined as of Oct. 1, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan reports.

Deputies served 369 papers and handled 4,687 radio transmissions and 1,622 telephone calls. Fees totaling $988.23 were collected.

LISBON — Kiwanians will sponsor their annual pancake and sausage meal from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday in Fellowship Hall and at the United Methodist Church.

The club's weekly luncheon meeting will not be held, but A. Monty Muntean, president, will conduct a roundtable session Thursday noon at the Wick hotel.

ACROSS FROM KIDDINGS—385-2225

OVER 11,000 SOLD

We have 15 used cars for sale

why only 15?

Because we don't believe in putting cars on our lot just to have them there. Every car on our covered display lot is a new car trade. Why? because we've found that a new car buyer usually trades a better car than a used car buyer.

You hear a lot about reconditioned used cars. Fine as far as it goes. But we try to go one better. By putting cars on our lot that don't need reconditioning. Naturally we do whatever is necessary to our cars to assure you of a safe, smooth, dependable car. But wouldn't you rather have a car that never had anything wrong with it than one which has been repaired for sale? Sure you would. And that's the kind we like to sell at Al Green.

This is the reason behind the Al Green Quality Crest. It symbolizes not only the quality of our used cars but the integrity of sales and service, too.

AL GREEN

A strong warranty always comes with an Al Green car. To protect you from faults that may develop, and to show the confidence we have in our cars.

Many dealers put their "cream puffs" on the front row. So do we. But, then again, we, only have a front row. If you're looking for a used car—look to Al Green. We won't sell you anything but the best. Because we don't have anything but the best.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, Nov. 5, the 310th day of 1968. There are 56 days left in the year.

On this date in 1940, Franklin D. Roosevelt became the first U.S. president in history to be elected to three terms of office.

On this date, in 1605, a conspirator, Guy Fawkes, was seized as he was about to blow up the House of Lords in London.

In 1872, President Ulysses S. Grant was re-elected, carrying all but six states.

In 1942, Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery announced that Britain had won an absolute victory in Egypt during World War II.

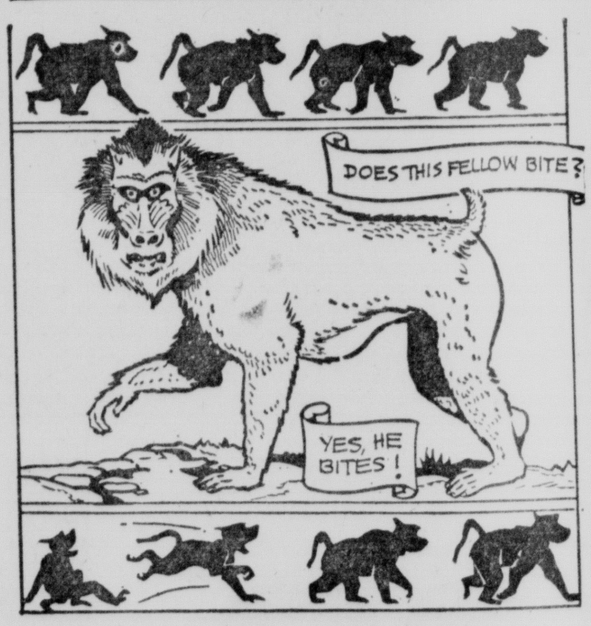

In 1946, a new career in politics began as John F. Kennedy, 29, was elected to the House.

Ten years ago — A U.S. request for planning machinery of a U.N. peace force was shelved by the political committee of the General Assembly.

Junior Editors Quiz on MANDRILLS

QUESTION: Where is the mandrill found and what are its colors?

* * * *

ANSWER: The animals parading across the top and bottom of our picture are baboons — a special kind of monkey that lives mostly on the ground and has a head with a long muzzle, somewhat resembling a dog. Baboons are feared by other animals, since they have sharp teeth and quarrelsome dispositions. The mandrill is a kind of baboon that carries the baboon nature to an extreme. It is large in size, with a particularly surly and ferocious temperament. The mandrill's pig-like eyes, set close together under jutting eyebrows, seem to signal "Hands off!" This effect is heightened by the extraordinary coloring of the mandrill face: the long nose and nostrils are bright pinkish red and the cheeks on either side are brilliant blue, making a most startling contrast. There also patches of bright red on other parts of this strange baboon's body. Such coloring is particularly vivid in the case of old males, who boss the herds around. Perhaps the colors serve to scare the other males away. Mandrills live in West Africa, especially in Guinea.

7-15

(Cheryl Swift of Muskegon, Mich., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

At Farm Bureau Meeting

'50-Year' Group Honored

United Band Boosters served a ham dinner to approximately 225 members and guests. Dawson Irey of Lisbon RD 4, Farm Bureau president, was master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Leonard Lowmiller of Minerva RD 2, women's committee chairman, introduced the following 50-year members:

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stamp of Salem, Fred Schoeni of Beloit, Mrs. Elsie Farmer of Leetonia, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Houlette and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wisler of Columbiana, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Cope, Ralph Papania and Fred Williamson, all of New Waterford, and Miss Johanna Braid of Homeworth.

WILLIAM Woolf of West Township was elected to the board of directors for a two-year term. Carl K. Miller of Columbiana was elected to the board to serve one year remaining on the term of Albert Hartley, who resigned.

Directors re-elected were John Bartels, representing Butler Township; Dale McKarns, Franklin - Wayne; Tom Rudebock, Salem Township; Frank Murray, Center; Carl Wollam, St. Clair-Liverpool; W. W. Baughman, Unity; Mrs. Clyde Farmer of Salem RD 3, representing District 1 (Knox, Butler, Perry and Salem townships), and Mrs. John Huston of Wellsville RD 1 representing District 4 (Madison, Washington, Yellow Creek, St. Clair and Liverpool Townships).

Members elected Ed Lowmiller of Minerva RD 2 and A. C. Cope of New Waterford as delegates to the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation's annual meeting in 1969.

The Rev. David Brantingham of Winona Friends Church gave the invocation and Galen Greenisen of Salem led group singing. Mrs. Farmer played the organ during dinner and accompanied the singing.

REPORTS were given by Gene Courtney, manager of the cooperative (the Landmark Store); G. V. Weinstock, local manager of the Nationwide Insurance Co., and William McNutt of the Ohio Agricultural Marketing Association, an affiliate of the OFBF.

Special recognition was given Mrs. Evelyn Hoopes of Beloit RD 2, the organizational director who is on leave of absence. The county had 260 paid-up 1969 members as of Saturday night.

$161,450 New Building Set In October's Permits

New construction and remodeling estimated to cost a total of $161,450 was authorized in 19 building permits issued during October by Marvin Wooley, building and doning inspector.

The total work authorized last month was up $85,875 from the $75,575 in September.

Two major jobs accounted for the bulk of the dollar value in last month's permits. The First National Bank was given an $80,000 permit for remodeling of the storeroom alongside its building. Mr. and Mrs. John Woomer obtained a $65,000 permit for a new apartment complex on St. Clair Ave.

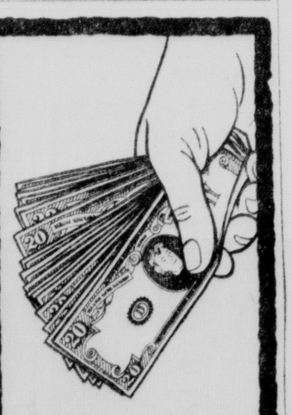

The other October permits, the persons to whom they were issued, the work authorized and the estimated cost of each job:

Ernest Brooks of 707 Armstrong Ln., to erect a utility building, $150; Darla Bennett of Canton St., to construct a patio, $300; C. D. Deshler of 1703 Globe St., to install aluminum siding, $900; Toney Adkins of 1907 Michigan Ave., to erect a carport, $300.

Fred Probst of 1834 Harvey Ave., to build a new porch, $400; Ervin Crable of 607 Sanford Ave., to build a garage, $1,500; Mrs. Carrie Chadwick of 1104 Oliver St., to erect an addition to a garage, $1,000.

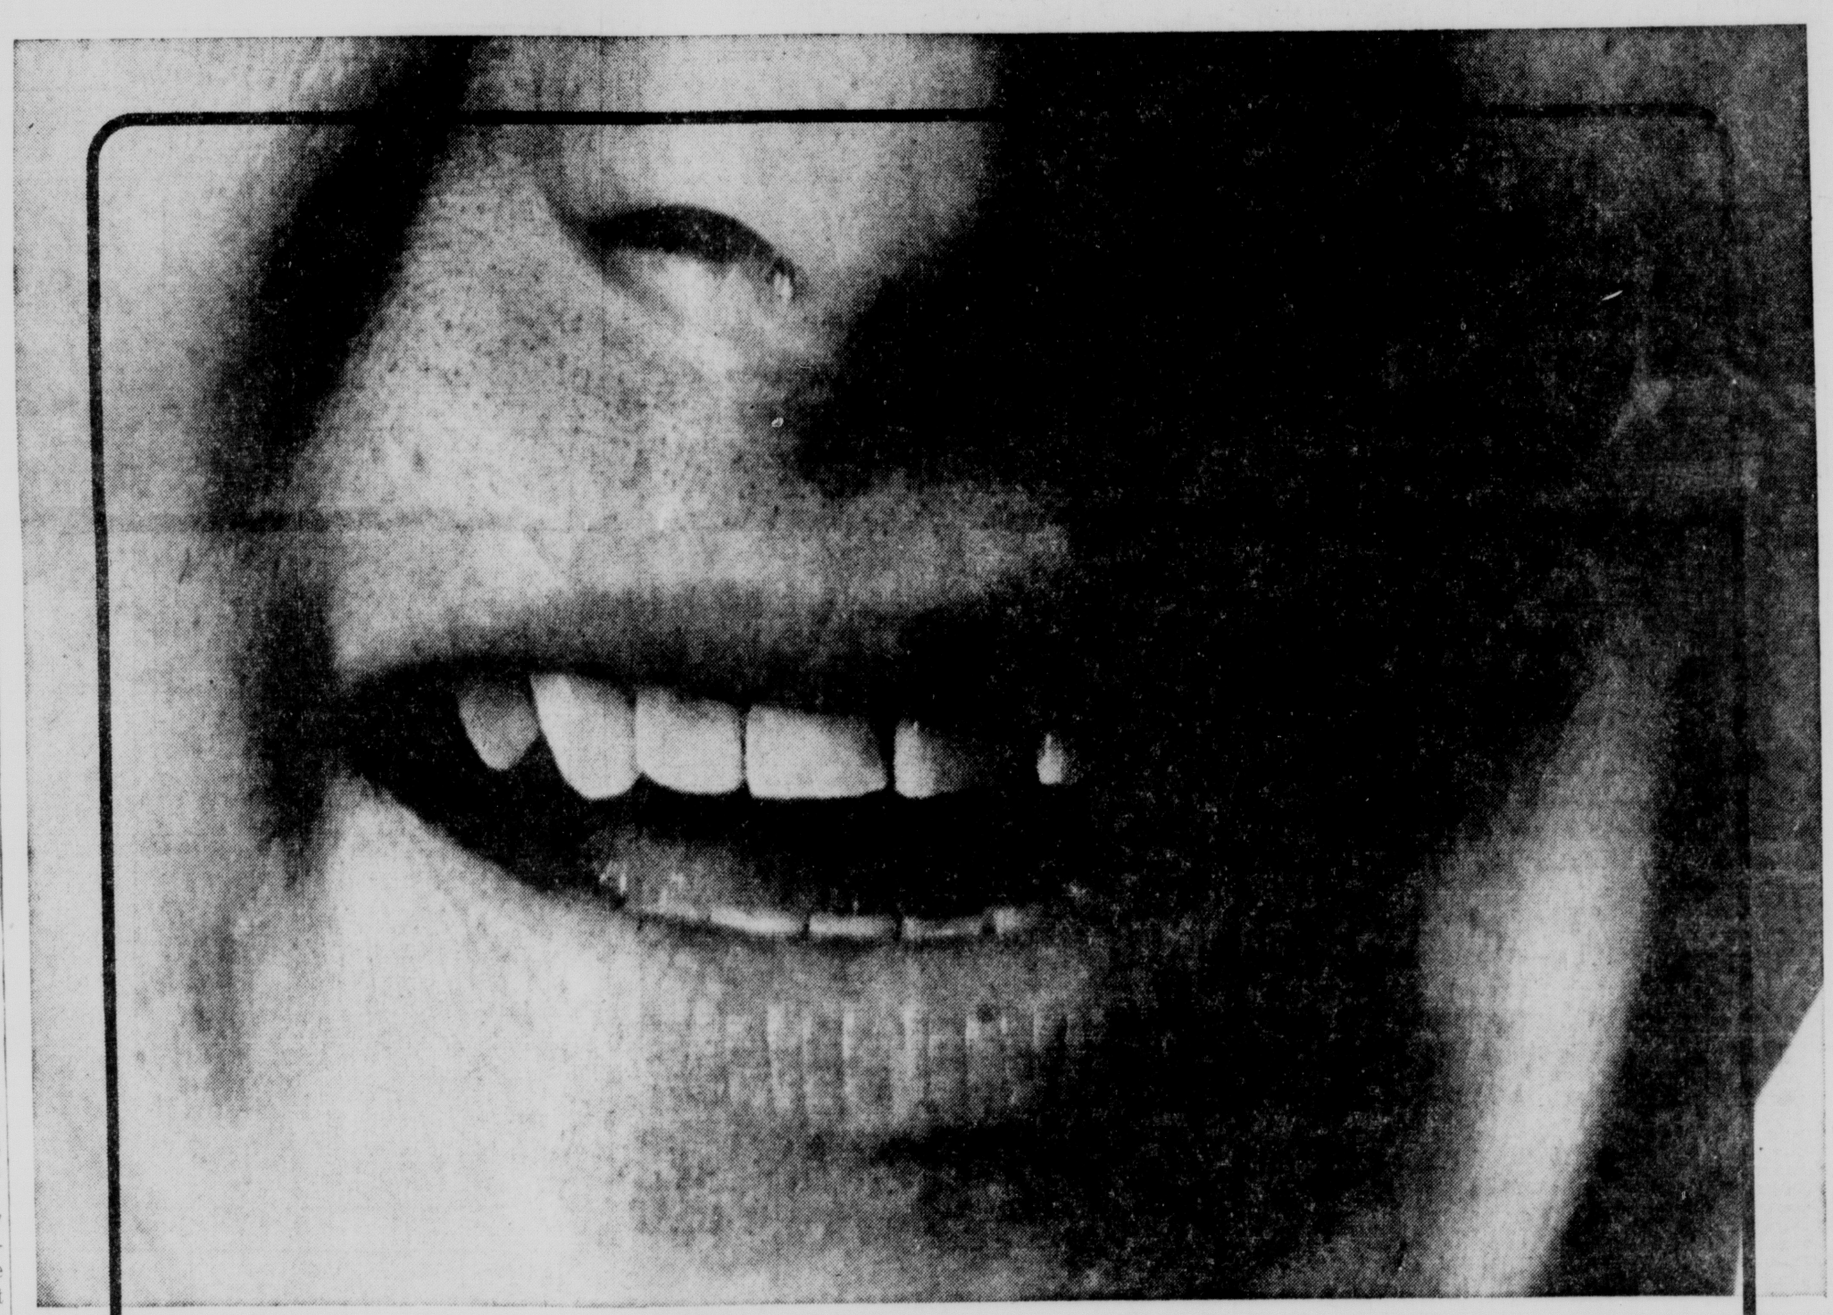

Beatrice Garner of 1007 Huston Ave., to install a new bathroom, $200; Howard Claypool, to install a new roof, $500; Sanders Firestone, to remodel a building at 637 St. Clair Ave., $500; Mrs. Lottie Smith of 1744 Etruria St., to build a one-room addition, $900.

J. L. Keenan of 711 Bradshaw Ave., to build a garage addition, $250; Vera M. Valentine of 1715 St. Clair Ave., to erect a garage and renovate a home, $3,500; Fred Gulutzz of 426 Thompson Ave., to build a carport, $500; Harold Bricker of 400 Thompson Ave., to install storm windows, $250, and Frank L. Potts of 434 Thompson Ave., to install a swimming pool, $4,800.

Andrew Ferencz had the last laugh. "Some of my friends laughed when we switched to electric heat in our 16-year-old house ... 'til I showed them how little electric heat is costing us." Kathryn Ferencz loves it. "It's so clean and convenient—and it's costing us very little more than the gas heat we had. I'm glad we switched to electric heat." The Ferencz's of Canton, Ohio have lots of company. The switch to flameless electric heat is breaking all records because it's worth so much more in comfort, yet costs about the same as other fuels. Let us show you how little it can cost. Get a free estimate—from us or your Reddy Kilowatt Recommended Dealer.

OVER 11,000 SOLD

We have 15 used cars for sale

why only 15?

Because we don't believe in putting cars on our lot just to have them there. Every car on our covered display lot is a new car trade. Why? because we've found that a new car buyer usually trades a better car than a used car buyer.

You hear a lot about reconditioned used cars. Fine as far as it goes. But we try to go one better. By putting cars on our lot that don't need reconditioning. Naturally we do whatever is necessary to our cars to assure you of a safe, smooth, dependable car. But wouldn't you rather have a car that never had anything wrong with it than one which has been repaired for sale? Sure you would. And that's the kind we like to sell at Al Green.

This is the reason behind the Al Green Quality Crest. It symbolizes not only the quality of our used cars but the integrity of sales and service, too.

AL GREEN

A strong warranty always comes with an Al Green car. To protect you from faults that may develop, and to show the confidence we have in our cars.

Many dealers put their "cream puffs" on the front row. So do we. But, then again, we, only have a front row. If you're looking for a used car—look to Al Green. We won't sell you anything but the best. Because we don't have anything but the best.

Junior Editors Quiz on MANDRILLS

QUESTION: Where is the mandrill found and what are its colors?

ANSWER: The animals parading across the top and bottom of our picture are baboons — a special kind of monkey that lives mostly on the ground and has a head with a long muzzle, somewhat resembling a dog. Baboons are feared by other animals, since they have sharp teeth and quarrelsome dispositions. The mandrill is a kind of baboon that carries the baboon nature to an extreme. It is large in size, with a particularly surly and ferocious temperament. The mandrill's pig-like eyes, set close together under jutting eyebrows, seem to signal "Hands off!" This effect is heightened by the extraordinary coloring of the mandrill face: the long nose and nostrils are bright pinkish red and the cheeks on either side are brilliant blue, making a most startling contrast. There also patches of bright red on other parts of this strange baboon's body. Such coloring is particularly vivid in the case of old males, who boss the herds around. Perhaps the colors serve to scare the other males away. Mandrills live in West Africa, especially in Guinea.

Andrew Ferencz had the last laugh. "Some of my friends laughed when we switched to electric heat in our 16-year-old house . . . 'til I showed them how little electric heat is costing us." Kathryn Ferencz loves it. "It's so clean and convenient—and it's costing us very little more than the gas heat we had. I'm glad we switched to electric heat." The Ferencz's of Canton, Ohio have lots of company. The switch to flameless electric heat is breaking all records because it's worth so much more in comfort, yet costs about the same as other fuels. Let us show you how little it can cost. Get a free estimate—from us or your Reddy Kilowatt Recommended Dealer.
